Lecturer To Address Student Body

Stanley W Foran Speaks to Students In Chapel Wed

Stanley W. Foran of Dallas, famed throughout Texas and beyond for his lectures on Americanism, will speak Wednesday, July 15, before meetings of the A. & M. students. Foran will address members of the junior and senior class at 10 a.m. Wednesday morning, and at 8 p.m. will talk before the freshman and sophomore classes.

Title of his speech will be "My Country 'Tis of Thee—and Me!"

For the last four years—since June, 1938—Foran has conducted what he calls a "one-man crusade" to awaken Americans to the value of the American Way of Life. During that period he has received more than 1,600 invitations to deliver his now famous lecture on Americanism. He has actually addressed more than 800 audiences, located from the Great Lakes to the Gulf and from the Atlantic to the Rockies. His visible audiences have totaled approximately 400,000 persons. In addition, he has made more than 250 radio broadcasts, and versions of his speech have been printed in millions of copies of newspapers, magazines, house organs and other publications.

The Dallas man served in the First World War as a pursuit pilot. He held a lieutenantancy at the end of the war.

Foran was instrumental in organizing the Dallas unit of the Texas Defense Guard some 18 months ago. He is at present senior captain in command of the 19th Battalion of the Defense Guard.

For the last 25 years, Foran has devoted all of his time, except the period spent in the army, to his work as a public relations and advertising counsel. Since 1935 he has headed his own advertising agency in Dallas.

This is the theme that Stanley W. Foran has presented in person before close to half a million listeners:

"Let's keep Americans the richest, happiest, freest and most self-reliant people on earth collectively by re-selling ourselves individually on the principles and practices that have made us great. To do that let's re-sell ourselves on the cooperative individualism which has enriched us materially, culturally and spiritually beyond the dreams of less blessed people—and by our unified, vitalized and outspoken zeal for effectively functioning democracy, let's regenerate belief in freedom in all lands where coercive collectivism is destroying personal liberty, equal rights, freedom of speech and the dignity of man."

Work Has Begun On Bandstand And Dance Floor Job

Work on the new dance pavilion was begun Thursday and it is hoped that the slab will be finished by the first of August.

Plans are now being formulated to have a Corps dance the weekend immediately following the completion of the slab and bandstand with the Aggieband Orchestra producing the sound effects.

The work done thus far has been the clearing of the plot of cedars and of sod to a depth of nine inches. Located just east of the railroad station, the pavilion will be surrounded by the cedars which now cover the area.

Space occupied by the slab will be slightly more than 10,000 square feet and will offer more dancing space than is afforded by the old mess hall.

The proposed bandstand will be located on the west side of the dance floor next to the old highway and will be built in three tiers and storage space in back so that the space underneath can be used for storage of chairs, public address equipment and roller skating equipment.

Funds for the construction of the slab are being furnished by the Exchange store.
