that those who are in the service will be given leave to participate in the game so don't pass up a player because you know he is in the army. Last year Jim Thomason, Chip Routt, Ernie Pannell and Dookie Pugh all played in the game and Pannell made the starting team by getting the largest number of votes for a tackle job.

Fill in the ballot below, or as many other ballots as you can find, and turn them in to your First Sergeant, who in turn will deliver them to Haikin at the Battalion Office in the Administration Building.

Angelo squad will not bring their own horses but will ride mounts of the Cadets.

Strong Opponents

At the present time the San Angelo team is one of the strongest in the state, having recently defeated Cecil Smith's famous aggregation in a San Angelo tourney. The San Angelo lineup will include: Len Mertz, prominent San Angelo rancher and horseman at No. 1; Gene Linthicum at No. 2; Dutch Evinger, rated at seven goals, one of the nation's top poloists, at No. 3; and Lt. Bill Dent, of Arizona polo fame, who had a four goal handicap in the last rating but is probably worth seven now, will be at No. 4 spot.

A practice scrimmage will take place at 3 p. m. Saturday, July 25, and a game is scheduled for 2:30 p. m. on the following day. The A. & M. Polo Field is located on the Sulphur Springs road just west of Highway 6. No admission will be charged as an attempt is being made to give the public some good sports entertainment in the absence of such major sports as football, basketball and baseball, says Lt. North.

the Near East there should be no great fear for their destruction there. For here they would have a great area in which to maneuver and several fine points from which to receive reinforcements, supplies, and material through the Red Sea and the Persian Gulf besides the possibility of aid from India, if the British can keep from alienating her. Here then, in the Near East, the Russian-British-Indian and other allied troops could be conditioned and made strong enough over a period of time, possibly years, to launch a victorious assault westward over the same trail with perhaps the hoped for western front giving aid. I doubt seriously if the allied forces can open a successful western front before the Russians are divided. What this all boils down to then is a long drawn out war (years) with a final spurt to win the last battle to settle it all. Where will this ultimate battle field be? Anywhere from India to France and probably in western or eastern Germany with the ultimate fall of Berlin.

INTRAMURALS

Within the next day or two a recreational questionnaire will be sent to the recreational officers by the Intramural department. All Aggies who are given one of these forms to fill out are reminded that this is an attempt to better the local sport program. The questionnaires have been made up by a Park and Recreation Development class of the Landscape Arts department.

but gets fired because he's depriving somebody that needs it of a job. Playboy Fonda ends up buying a hospital, his wife ends up running it and everybody is happy. The funny situations are well portrayed and the story is filled with funny bone ticklers.

The Lowdown: fun for all with no holds barred.

"NAZI AGENT," showing at Guion Hall today only, portrays Conrad Veidt in a dual role as Nazi agent, and his twin brother, a loyal American citizen. The cast also includes Ann Ayars and Frank Reicher.

"Nazi Agent" is something new and original in the line of German spy pictures so prevalent at this time. Veidt does a masterful job in his role as the two brothers. The brother who is a spy is a German consul, and he attempts to use the small shop of his Americanized brother as a clearing house for the Nazi bund. Naturally, the two brothers, each loyal to his country, have a fight and the best man wins. To thwart the spying the American assumes the place of his brother and foils the Germans' plot to blow up the Panama Canal.

to choose the boys for the different positions, but after due deliberation, the managers made a wise choice... Neither the A or B teams can be classed as the first or the second team since it was the idea of the managers to divide the teams as evenly as possible and still stand a grand chance of drubbing the Bryan All-Stars twice—something that is yet to be done in the annual Bryan-A. & M. series... Kyle Field is still being considered as the site for the game here but should that plan fall through, Diamond No. 4, which is across from Dean Kyle's home will probably be used... Word from the athletic office and official advices state that the Washington State game WILL BE PLAYED unless something comes up which neither team can control... the Duke-A. & M. tilt could have been played but each team desired to schedule service organizations and October 10 was the most convenient date for both.

Lipscomb's Pharmacy started out like a house on fire but soon the fire was put out by the rest of the teams. The Campus Theatre started with a losing streak and lost their first four games but since then have been winning their share of the games. At the present Madeley's Pharmacy is in the middle of a winning streak which has carried up the ladder. The closeness of the race is shown by the fact that three teams are tied for fourth place only four games from the league top. After Monday's games the league players will forget all differences and the All Star selections will try to defeat the Bryan All Stars next Wednesday and Thursday.
