MEANDERINGS

at the Plantation Club in Dallas.

Those that heard Jan Savitt last Friday night in Fort Worth are still bleeding. It seems Savitt committed the unforgivable—he used a pickup band for the job, composed of local musicians. Brother, when a band leader does that, he is really sticking his neck out.

The music world is shocked to hear that Ray Eberle isn't singing with G. Miller any more. Miller says it was "due to many acts of misconduct on his part over an extended period of time." Frank Sinatra is also quitting T. Dorsey around early Fall. What's wrong with these vocalists? They all seem to be temperamental.

Thirty Second Notes

In answer to many questions regarding the Aggieband's fem vocalist. . . She is Miss Adie Baldwin of Houston, who besides singing with the Aggieband has sung with Eddie Fitzpatrick, Joe Sudy, Herman Waldman, Peck Kelly and others. . .

Speaking of the Aggieband, in compliance with the many requests from over the state asking for the September holidays, the band is planning a tour to cover the state. If your home town club would like to have the orchestra that week, I advise that you get in touch with the band immediately, as the transportation problem must be worked out for your vicinity. . .

The death of Thomas F. Dorsey, Sr., seventy, on July 12th, may unite Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey. They have just organized a song publishing company together.

Last minute information finds Ray Eberle singing with Gene Krupa, and Skip Nelson replacing Eberle in Miller's band.

Lipscomb Downs Loupot

Lipscomb's Pharmacy, in the meantime, took a one-game advantage of Loupot's when they defeated the latter, 6-3, Thursday evening. A five run rally, marked by wildness and errors on the part of Loupot's proved to be the tonic that handed Roland Bing's boys their defeat. They came back fighting in the latter stages of the tilt, but all that proved in vain as pitcher Andy Cokinos of the Pharmacy scattered five blows through seven innings.

Scoring four runs in the sixth inning of play, the Campus Cleaners scored their other win over Campus Theatre Thursday night by the score of 6-3. Again, as last night, the Theatre took a short-lived lead of 2-0 but pitcher Willie Zalapae contacted a wild streak and coupled with some ragged outfield playing on the part of the losers, Campus Cleaners soon sowed up the game.

Play Today

Lipscomb's Pharmacy meets the Loupot's Traders in the second game this evening with Walter Shaw or Johnny Hejl on the mound for the latter and Donald Punch the probable flinger for Kyle Drake's crew. Game time is 7 o'clock sharp.

Also have a request from the Nelson Rockefeller organization for some men who have had rather extensive practical experience in agriculture, especially in the production and packing of fruits and vegetables, and who can speak Spanish fluently, to go into Central and South America. These men will be expected to direct practical agricultural operations.

Anyone interested in these positions should call at my office or see Professor J. W. Berger, Head of the Agricultural Economics Department.—E. J. Kyle, Dean, School of Agriculture.

Texas Negroes Start Production in Farm Livestock

A total of 16,873 Texas Negro farm families this year started production in poultry and livestock for the first time, according to Dr. E. B. Evans of Prairie View, state leader of Negro extension workers in Texas.

Reports from 47 of the 51 counties having Negro extension agents show that 1,564 farm families obtained milk from cows for the first time for production of milk for home use. Milk production recently has taken the lead in the all-out war effort, especially among farmers who have bought farm homes through the Farm Security Administration, Dr. Evans says. They are now marketing whole milk for the first time.

al of 50 former college stars make up Coach Wallace Wade's West All-Army team. . . Of that 22% or a total of 11 players formerly carried the mail for the Aggies. . . They are John Kimbrough, Bill Conatser, Dennis Andricks, Jim Thomason, Marion Pugh, Derace Moser, Doug Dawson, Leonard Dickey, Joe Rutt (we mentioned Chip in our last column but a correction has been made), Henry Hauser and Marland Jeffery. . . The rest of the team is fairly evenly divided as far as colleges are concerned. . . Duke and Vanderbilt each have four players on the team, while the rest of the colleges contribute either one or two players. . . Altogether there are 27 colleges represented. . . Here's how the squad is divided—there are 18 backs, 10 ends, 10 tackles, 7 guards and 5 centers. . . Some of the more famous backs besides the Aggies already mentioned include Jimmy Nelson, the Alabama lad who rocked the vaunted Cadets at the Cotton Bowl last year; Herman Rohrig, Nebraska's ace ball toter; Don Scott, All-American mentioner from Ohio State and Kay Eakin, Arkansas' triple-threat halfback. . . Other well-known football names include Nick Drahos, Cornell tackle; Hank Gude, Vanderbilt center; Holt Rast, Alabama end and Bill Annahu, Santa Clara wingman. . . A little something out of the books, but it concerns one of Aggieband's popular pros. . . Didja know that Dr. Luther Jones of the Agronomy Department was formerly the wrestling champion of Princeton and Cornell. . . It all happened during World War I days when Doc was working for his degree. . . He's only a little mite—about 140 lbs.—but apparently plenty rough—I mean physically. . . He's also a pretty good handball and tennis player. . .

will ask that everyone buying a corsage buy a Victory Corsage. They are composed entirely of war stamps of small denomination, and cost very little more than regular corsages.

Because of metal shortages, and the present price of jewelry of all sorts, the dance committee has decided to replace the usual favors and programs with a better, more beautiful program. These programs will serve as favors and will make just as good a favor as metal ones formerly purchased, says Swofford.

Sbsia hall will be used instead of The Grove because of the increased privacy, and the ease of decorating the dance floor without having to worry about rain.

Huge crossed sabers, mirrored to reflect a myriad of colored lights, will hang from the ceiling, and lighting will be restricted to colored lights strung around the edge of the dance floor much like those at the Junior Prom last year.

"Herbie Kay has one of the best bands now touring the country, and we think that the Cavalry Regiment, by having Kay, will have the best orchestra for their ball and the corps dance following of the entire social season," Swofford said. Kay will probably play a Town Hall program early in the evening before the ball, and will play for the Corps Dance the next Saturday night.

HISTORY

and a curriculum providing great flexibility had been installed.

By the 1920's a new era in education had dawned, and Texas A. & M. was at the helm. Colleges and Universities all over the world are now patterning their courses and programs after the ideals set forth by Senator Morrill, and students will learn something besides earning their degrees by sitting in classrooms.

A. & M. will turn out students who have a place in the world, who will be at home in all lands and ages, and who will count the wonders of nature a familiar friend and art a familiar acquaintance. Thus, that white-haired man, who dared defy the conventions of a conventional age, indirectly ushered in a golden age of learning—an age led by the Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges of the United States.

If a man makes a better mouse trap in these times, he is made an honorary Lieutenant in the Navy—Austin American.
