box on the west side of the rotunda of the Academic Building not later than noon today.

All new members must complete a one-week theory course in the principles of pistol marksmanship which will also begin at the armory Monday. These classes will be arranged from the schedules which are turned in. A schedule of the instruction periods will be posted on the pistol team bulletin board adjacent to the box in the Academic Building. Elimination of new members will begin Monday, October 12.

Difficulty is expected in arranging matches with other schools since most schools do not begin their pistol season until February. Due to this drawback it is expected that a large number of matches will be fired by mail. Cook expects that a number of shoulder-to-shoulder matches will be fired with pistol teams of the police forces of San Antonio, Dallas, Austin, Houston, and other Texas cities.

HISTORY

Statistics for 1941-42 showed A. & M. to have the largest intramural program of any college in the country.

A regular staff for the department was not organized until 1936 and before that time Penberthy ran the program with only the aid of part-time student assistants. At the present time the staff of the Intramural and P. E. departments consists of five regular faculty members and a large number of students who have charge of the various sports.

INTRAMURALS

Due to the strictness of this rule an extra amount of time is being allowed for the officers to submit their entry cards.

Freshmen, frogs, and others taking Intramural for Physical Education credit must be registered for P. E. 102, section 508, in order to receive credit for their participation. Men who have not registered in the prescribed manner could do so at once through their respective deans.

Scheduling for the current intramural session will begin as soon as the entry cards are received and it is expected that actual playing will start early in the week beginning Monday, October 12.

KYLE FIELD

Phillips, husky guard, looks good in that line. Pappy goes on to say that there are quite a number of newcomers that are looking good. From what I've observed Center Jim Pressley, Guards Hans Neumann and George Strohmeier have done rather well although the moaning Pappy Wesson might disagree. Only a coach for two weeks, Wesson is already acting like a typical mentor—always pessimistic.

to the police. The main thing that is uncovered is that Mida was a female Midas, she worshipped money. Detective Van Heflin suggests crime be reenacted and the unsuspected killer turns out to be—Have fun guessing—we're not telling.

The Lowdown:—as usual, it's the least suspicious suspect.

"LADY IN A JAM" portrays Irene Dunn in the part of the lady with Patric Knowles and Ralph Bellamy in supporting roles. It's a wacky, lunaticish show that approaches absurdity. Unless you can laugh the whole thing off as just one of those things, you've no business seeing this one.

Irene Dunn is an extravagant, slightly "teched in the head", heiress who is facing bankruptcy. A psychiatrist, Patric Knowles, advises her to go West to Arizona. There she gets mixed up in a phony gold mine and a phony cowboy, Ralph Bellamy, and also falls in love with her doctor. She finds a new fortune when the land turns out to be rich in quicksilver.

The Lowdown:—if you see this one, don't say we sent you!

STATISTICS

ly doesn't over-enjoy the movies, for according to the survey, the average number of shows attended per student on the annual basis was 85.37, which simple arithmetic breaks down to a weekly average of 1.64 shows.

Club memberships hit a surprisingly new high, with the answers looking like this: Boy Scouts, 57.09%; FFA, 47.01%; 4-H Club, 33.21%; YMCA, 30.97%. Naturally, these figures don't add up to 100 because some boys belonged to more than one club.

About that time, the radio blared out and in determining the types of programs the Ag boys like best, another surprise jumped out of the tabulating machine.

At the top of the list is dance music with 77.24%; news follows closely with 52.06%; comedy hit third sliding with 34.13%; classical music was fourth with 11.37%; drama knocked down an even 10%; and educational programs with 4.14% landed just above addresses, which took the cellar with but 0.69%. These figures also add up to more than hundred, but the reports states that although an error was made in the first test, at least the preference came in the same order, regardless of the per cent rated.

Life, Readers Digest, Colliers, Saturday Evening Post, Time, Newsweek, and technical magazines are enjoyed in the order named.

In answer to the question: "Do you think a man should marry when he is certain that he will go into the armed services?", the Ag students said "NO" by a 72.44% vote. 64.86% of the boys believe just

Baptists Hold Party Honoring Retiring Education Director

A reception honoring Harvey Hatcher, director of education and music, First Baptist church, College Station will be held at the church Saturday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. Students and friends are invited.

With the new building and improved facilities "a greater program than ever before is being launched" it was announced by Rev. and Mrs. Brown. Over 500 Aggies have joined the church since the beginning of school last fall, 100 of which became members last Sunday. The Browns, who organized the first Campus Baptist church, are beginning their twenty-third year of ministry to the cadets of A. & M. College.

enough homework given in general now 23.55% said too much, and 11.59% said there was too little given.

Visits to the library average about 5 or 6 times per week, and with 38.00% objecting to library assignments, 62.00% said they were okay.

In concluding, may I add, these tests were made in the most accurate manner possible under the circumstances and were considered by the Accounting and Statistics department (under whom they were conducted) and although they have been "bulled" around here, they are the straight stuff from the left hand hip-pocket of Grandpa's long-handles!
