"Applications for Student War Loans, made available through the U. S. Office of Education, will be accepted beginning Monday, October 19, 1942. The attention of interested students is called to the following conditions pertaining to these loans:

ELIGIBILITY: Only full-time students enrolled in Engineering, Chemistry, Physics, and Veterinary Medicine whose technical education can be completed within twenty-four months after the first loan.

Applicants must (1) attain and continue to maintain scholarship standards satisfactory to the institution in which they are enrolled (a grade-point average of 1.5 or better at time of application, and continuing to make a passing grade in three-quarters of scheduled work); (2) demonstrate the need of this assistance to enable them to remain in school; (3) agree in writing to participate, unless otherwise directed, in accelerated programs of study in authorized fields; and (4) agree in writing to engage, for the duration of the wars in which the U. S. is engaged, in such employment or service as may be assigned by officers or agencies designated by the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission.

Applicants must furnish a Retail Credit report at their own expense. (This item may be included in the amount loaned.)

AMOUNT OF LOAN: Loans are limited to an amount not exceeding tuition and fees (all charges required by the institution for participation in its educational program) plus a maximum of $25 per month for each month of participation and subject to an all-over maximum of $500 by June 30, 1943. Funds, except for tuition and fees, may not be paid to students for more than one month in advance.

PERIOD OF LOAN: The borrower shall sign a note made payable to the Treasurer of the United States. Repayment shall be made with simple interest at the rate of 2 1/2% per annum on the following basis: one-fourth of principle plus interest after one year from date of discontinuance as full-time student; one-fourth principal plus interest each year thereafter until paid in full. No principal or interest shall become due during the period that the borrower is serving in the armed forces; payment shall be extended so as to date from the time of discontinuance of such service.

Further details concerning these loans are available at the Placement Office, Wendell R. Horseley, Director, Placement Office

At 2:30 Saturday afternoon, all groups will attend the T.C.U. game on Kyle Field, and will attend the Corps Dance Saturday night, after which the meeting will be officially adjourned.

Present head of the Southwestern Press Club is John Longley, editor of the Longhorn.

Arrangements for the meet have been in the hands of Longley, Ed Gordon, editor of the Engineer, and Brooks Cofer, Battalion editor. Arrangements for the faculty representatives have been made by Dr. Ashton.

AGGIE FISH

a beautiful 34 yard pass from Alvarez resulted when Bart Halton of the Fish intercepted one of Alvarez's passes on his own one yard line, and was knocked back over the goal for a safety.

Ernest Genthner, who incidentally played a standout game at end kicked off for the Fish to open the ball game. Allen tried two plunges at the stout Fish line and then kicked to Flanagan who made an 11 yard return. The first half was a hard fought affair with neither team able to gain an advantage.

Flanagan Goes Over

Early in the second quarter the Fish drove deep into Allen territory and Flanagan plunged over from the five yard line for the first score of the game. Following this the Ramblers opened up with a terrific aerial assault which culminated in a 34 yard pass, Alvarez to Sudduth, for a score. The half ended with the score standing 6-6. Allen Academy kicked off to open the second half, and Flanagan took the ball on his own five yard line, fumbled momentarily and behind beautiful blocking raced 95 yards for a touchdown. The Ramblers then opened up another aerial assault which culminated in a safety when Halton intercept a pass and was tackled over his own goal. The Fish took the ball on their own 15 yard line late in the third quarter and marched 85 yards for their third score. Strohmeyer kicked the only conversion of the afternoon.

The fourth quarter found the fish attack slowed up somewhat as a steady stream of substitutes trickled into the game. Coach Lil Dimmitt used a total of 53 players during the afternoon. However, late in the fourth quarter Allen was penalized to their 15 yard line for clipping and from this point, Baty pitched a touchdown pass to Flanagan for the final score of the contest.

The Fish roundly outplayed the Ramblers in every department, piling up a total of 132 yards passing and 144 yards rushing to the visitors' 79 and 36 respectively. Leading ground gainer of the day was Flanagan who carried the ball eight times for a total of 64 yards.

The Cryptography Club will meet in room 310, Academic Building immediately after yell practice.

BACKSTER

(Continued from Page 1) " . . . tighter, tighter . . . you're going into a deep sleep . . . I am going to count to ten, and at each count you will go into a deeper sleep . . . one . . . two . . . three . . ." By the time he reached the count of ten, Williams (we'll drop handles for convenience) was rocking limply in a deep sleep. Backster continued, "You now have perfect balance. You will not rock anymore." Immediately Williams stopped rocking.

Incredible Mental Powers The most fascinating and most incredible part of the demonstration was the mental telepathy and clairvoyance. The latter word means the power to see things not visibly present. Backster placed Williams in a chair facing the corner of the room, then said, "I want your mind to mentally look behind you; then you can tell me who you see and what he is doing." Williams mumbled, "I see the boy who takes pictures and writes for the Battalion. He is reaching in his back pocket for his billfold."

"Good," said Backster, "Now, I want your mind to mentally travel around and find Lt. White." After a moment he replied, "He is out at the polo grounds talking with Lt. North." Later I checked up, but found the clairvoyant mistaken. However, several boys in Goodwin testified that during the A. & M. Corps game Backster had a boy under hypnosis who told many incidents about the game which were announced a few seconds later over the radio. Backster admits his subjects aren't always accurate, but he is trying to perfect his clairvoyance. He intends to get into the army or navy intelligence department when he graduates from A. & M.

Backster is of course taking all the psychology he can get, but he has to major in sociology because no major in psychology is offered at A. & M. He picked up the art three years ago at Rutgers' prep school, where he overheard another boy telling about the powers of hypnosis. He tried it on a hallmate, and to his surprise it worked. Since then he has read a great deal on the subject and done much research, especially in the field of clairvoyance.

He more than welcomes anyone interested to drop around to Room 62, Goodwin, to shoot the bull or to be hypnotized. He works at the Campus theater Wednesday, Sat-

GARBER

standing engagements as the Royal Hawaiian Hotel and Alexander Young Hotels in Honolulu. Coming back to the continent he was besieged with offers from movie producers, recording companies, hotels, and radio sponsors, many of which he accepted. Finding this not to his liking, he jumped at the chance when Garber offered him a contract to sing with his band.
