Karkoff Brother Sportlights Overseas

Jerry Krakoff, 2nd Company newshawk, received word from his brother that he was alive and kicking, kicking the Axis in North Africa, and longing for the day when "Old Lady Liberty" would loom over the port bow.

The letter was received last week by Jerry from his brother Abe, stationed in North Africa, with the 99th Heavy Bombardment Group. Sgt. Krakoff was drafted on December 4th, 1941, just three days before Pearl Harbor. During the next sixteen months he was stationed at nine different air fields and promoted to the grade of 1st Sgt. In April of this year he was shipped overseas at 1st Sgt. of the 346th Bomb. Squadron. It meant a dull life of watching his buddies go on bombing missions, some to return no more, while he was left behind to do the paper work. Late in May Abe asked for and received a demotion to S/Sgt. which relieved him of his ground duties and permitted him to fly. Today Sgt. Krakoff is a wing gunner on a B-17. During the 38 days of war on Sicily he made several bombing missions and reported "Mission Accomplished."

Sgt. Krakoff visited the city of Algiers and Setifa and wrote that the populace of those towns were very friendly and very talkative. He writes of a great shortage of chocolate candy and linen sheets—but don't we? His closing words of the letter were, "We're all waiting to complete our 50th mission and then back to the good old U. S. A."

S/Sgt. and Pfc. Krakoff are the lowest ranking members of the Krakoff family in the armed forces. There are two more brothers in the service . . . a captain, recently stationed at Camp Breckenridge, Kentucky; and a 2nd Lt. now with troops at Treasure Island, Calif. And, believe it or not, there are two more brothers at home keeping up the morale. Yes, the Krakoff family has gone to war.

Sportlights

More action in our little world of sports . . . I could say I told you so but I'll be polite . . . what I'm referring to is the snappy Officers' ball club. They certainly are not the best team on the campus but what they lack in ability they make up for in drive and spirit.

The old boys are practicing religiously and it won't be long before they come through with a victory over one of our teams.

Last Sunday's ball game between the fifth and fourth companies was a humdinger. The game had all appearances of a Brooklyn Dodgers-St. Louis Cardinals game with plenty of rough stuff and some fast action.

The fifth company fielded a snappy outfit and played its best game to date. The final score was 15-5, with the fourth company on the short end of the score. Especially noteworthy was the hitting of Darrel Hudson, the fifth's flashy shortstop, who netted himself a homer, double, and single, and the superlative pitching of Lefty Vitz, whose smooth southpaw slants had the opposing batters completely handcuffed.

Three cheers department—To Lieutenants Heifetz and Fisher. In their game with the Vets the two officers had a terrible collision. Lt. Heifetz suffered a cut over his right eye and Lt. Fisher a leg injury. Both, however, continued in the game. Intestinal fortitude, men, intestinal fortitude.

ber of the Intramural Cofball Team which won the championship for two years, and a first class scout when he left New Orleans for college. Albright's old outfit was "B" Chemical Warfare. He moved to H-16 Walton Hall at the beginning of this semester. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Albright of New Orleans.

W. B. Caldwell

W. B. Caldwell is Secretary of the first semester freshmen class which was recently won by him in that class' election. Caldwell has no real hometown since his parents Col. and Mrs. W. B. Caldwell have been stationed at various parts of the world, but El Paso can be called "home" for it was here that he graduated from Austin High School of 1200 students in the upper four grades. Caldwell was editor of the school annual this past year, but he was a one year letterman in football at Lailehua, Hawaii, High School where he spent two years. Swimming was also one of his past times because he participated in the swimming meet at Des Moines High School where he attended school for a while.

and honoring Rev at the same time. There are boxes at the west door of Sbis Hall, the rotunda of the Academic building, and the front doors of Duncan Hall will have a box so that those Aggies who are in the army as vets may do their part in honoring Rev. Service men who are Aggie-exes or if they would like to contribute, may put any amount in one of the boxes that are located about the campus. In case there are people such as the one in Bryan who contributed $2.50 (letter reprinted in another part of today's Battalion) who live outside of College Station, the "General Reveille Fund" has been set up by the Student Activities Office to help in reaching the goal set. Money may also be sent to Jack Knox, Head Yell Leader, Box 2501 or to the writer at Box 5571. These letters should be addressed College Station, Texas. All checks should be made out to "General Reveille."

Aggies, I know that you want to do all you can to help, so when you see the boxes at various places on the campus or when you have time, give some money. It will be appreciated by Reveille, the Corps, and the Army.

us to keep that spirit. We nearly took the roof off with that statement. After he got through talking he came down and yelled with us. I was standing by him and when we came to the part in the Aggie War Hymn where he lock arms, sure enough, I swayed with a Colonel. All in all, we had a big time.

Personalities

Seth Berlin Donelson Seth Berlin Donelson, a native Texan from Stanton, is our senior of honor today. He was born in 1916, in Westbrook, Texas, and has spent all of his 26 years in Texas.

"Full Moon," as Seth is commonly called by the fellows, lettered in football, basketball and track back at dear old Stanton High. He captained the football team and was secretary of his class in 1937, his senior year.

After graduating from high school Seth entered N. T. A. C. with plans of coming to A. & M. in the future. He spent one year at N. T. A. C., getting off his pre-veterinary work. While there he worked at the College Farm as "milk maid" and general farmer, but that paid his way through his first year of college and that was all he wanted.

In the fall of '38 "Fish" Donelson of A-Co. Infantry began the long road leading to the title of a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine. Besides taking the prescribed Vet courses, he was a member of the 18-23 club and the Jr. Chapter of the A. V. M. A. Seth also worked at the Aggie Inn, and for a while he waited on tables in Sbis dining hall.

Although V. P. P. 333 was his favorite course, Seth claims that public speaking under Stone was his most enjoyable course.

In just 24 more days Seth will be graduating and leaving us to become another ex-Aggie and Officer in Uncle Sam's Army. He hopes, as all Aggies do, to get a shot at those yellow-bellies over the other side of the pond. Here's hoping that you get your wish, "Curley", and the best of luck to you as an officer and after the war as a Veterinarian.

when I proposed to her a few years ago so it must be time to commit suicide. The football boys continually say that we will need the backing of the corps more than ever before this year. That's all the news Brant Myers will give when asked for stuff for this column. Let's go out and back them while they're out there every afternoon. If the team can go out and get as sore as Brant is almost every night, we can surely go down to Kyle Field once in a while and watch the team. That and some yell practices we might get back will sure help the team. The team members are working hard and they really deserve some support so let's give it to them.

Another thing that needs support on the campus right now is the fund for making Rev a general. This dorm kicked through with about twelve dollars Wednesday night besides the fact that most of the men had already contributed. Wonder if Legett and Walton (a bigger dorm) can round up as much? Also the freshman dorms should be able to round up as much as Milner seeing that they all have more men than Milner. We don't think any dorm will beat our record though. We aren't through yet either. Let's swell those boxes and give Rev the honor she deserves for a service well rendered through twelve years.

Time and paper are going fast so I'll see you in the Batt two days nearer to victory over anyone that fights the Aggie spirit in any form. Remember, Bryan Field gets it first and all the team asks is the deserved support. Let's give it to them.

full military look about him—tie flying in the wind as he puts his shirt in his pants—Comp-nee Fall In!!!!

Until next Saturday we remain your Walton correspondents who say As long as one Aggie remains alive, there will be a Spirit of AggieLand, but let's keep College Station the birthplace of that Spirit.

lights up a yello-bole PIPE. All the Fish of Texas A. & M. extend a real welcome and friendly hello to the new Air Corps squadron that just moved in. We hope that you will like A. & M. and we know that you will turn out to be just as swell fellows as your older squadron man are.

Mystery of the week: Fish Springs bought an Esquire. Now of course he likes to read the stories in it, but there was a special picture he wanted to cut out. This was a Varga girl. This picture was very dear to him, and it was purloined, Fish Springs pleads for the culprit to please return his picture, for looking at women is his favorite pastime.

The typewriters have really been pounding away this week. Almost every Fish is writing his term theme.

Anybody wants learn how to play a neat game of poker? If you do, just see Fish Longman. From the games I've watched in there, I'd say that that Fish really knows his cards . . . of course, all poker games are played with matches.

The gang fights are still going on. Seems as if every time you stick your neck out the door, the body of a Fish goes sailing by.

Well, the news is coming in slow and sluggish, so I'll be closing; but fellows, let's go out there and make our Ball the best Fish Ball ever to be at A. & M. . . .

has been rehearsing several spirited marches.

The five hundred advanced students and the 800 basics will pass before reviewing officers, Col. Buevens, Regimental Commander, and the Company commanders of the five companies as well as their assistants. At press time it was still undetermined whether Col. Welty could attend. The review will be held on the field directly behind Duncan Hall and according to Lt. Williams will be the first of several such reviews.

the fifth the Sailors scored 4 runs, cutting away the Marine 2 run lead, and that is the way the score stood for the remainder of the game.

Hallot, first man up in the fifth, homered. Pope walked, Foster singled him to second and Laurens loaded the sacks with a drive through short. Gordon (winning pitcher) then won his own ball game with a Texas Leaguer that sent three men home.

Both teams displayed good fielding and Holstein pitched a good game for the Marines. With a little more power at the plate the Marines will be a hot contender.

Reeves, a new-comer to the Navy Ten, proved to be a worthy right fielder, accounting for a double in the first inning and scoring Navy's first run.

NAVY ORCHESTRA TO PLAY AUGUST 28TH.

With Chuck Jendricks as head man, the Navy will take a flying leap into the music world August 28. Saturday evening will be the show-off. We haven't heard them play yet and are trying to wait. We really want to give this band every chance to get off to a good start. Let it not be said they had to stop because of lack of support. August 28th is the night for the auspicious opening of this Navy Orchestra and the locale will be the Country Club . . . It is going to be good, really good so grab a date and be ready gang.

FORMER TRAINEE KILLED IN ACTION

Jack Howard Jones, 19, former trainee on the Radio Operators School, has been listed by the Navy as killed in action. Jones received his rate as Radioman third class upon graduation and was shipped to Jacksonville, Florida, where he was stationed until sent to sea. He had been in the Navy approximately 18 months, the last two at sea.
