Final Ball To Be In The Grove On September 17

Del Valle Orchestra Playing for Last Ball of Semester; Charge to be $1.10

Del Valle orchestra under the able direction of Sgt. Jack Reams has been contracted to play for the Final Ball which has been definitely set for Friday, September 17 at 9 p. m. The ball will be in the Grove instead of Sbis Hall as was announced in Tuesday's Battalion. 1 a. m. will end the ball as has been the custom for most balls that are held at Aggeland. The price has been set at $1.10 for Aggies with or without dates.

A dormitory for dates has not yet been decided upon, but these plans will be worked on and released as soon as possible. Plans for souvenirs are also underfoot, but these will be announced at a later date also.

Sgt. Reams played for the Freshman Ball this semester, and he was acclaimed as a splendid leader with a splendid orchestra by most of those who had the pleasure of hearing him. Lt. John L. Griffins is the sponsor of this orchestra which is composed of service men stationed at this Austin field.

The Final Ball is a customary feature of the close of every semester just as it is this semester although war time has changed things considerably. This is strictly an Aggie affair with present activated, or former Aggies on the campus being the only ones allowed to attend. A larger number of dates are wanted down for the ball so it is up to the men to get them.

This ball promises to be a success, and it will be that if the Aggies want it to be.

Aggies Picked As Most Enjoyable, All Around Dates By Pin-Up Star

Touched off by a recent collegiate blast fired in the direction of Hollywood, more particularly at Hollywood's blondes, Dolores Moran, one of Warner Bros.' pin-up favorites, has fired right back.

Miss Moran found enough time off from her recent work in "The Constant Nymph" and other pictures to evaluate and reach these decisions:

Of all collegians, Notre Dame men are the best husband-candidates; Tulane produces the worst conversationalists; Harvard men are the most ungentelemanly; U. S. C. men are the poorest dancers; U. L. C. A. men are the worst dressers; Georgia Tech men have the fastest and most entertaining "line"; Columbia produces bores with the least sense of humor; N. Y. U. lads are the most fickle; Stanford men are the handsomest; Princeton men are the smoothest dancers; Yale men rate as "best dressed"; Michigan's industrialists are the best spenders and the boys from Texas A. and M. are by far the most enjoyable dates.

Dolores seems to get around.

Juke Box Dance Saturday, 8:30-11:00, In Open Air Grove

The Juke Box Dance will begin at 8:30 and last until 11:30 Saturday night. Music will be furnished from recordings, and any one desiring a selection may request it by simply telling the recording operator.

"WNBL" at Navasota

It has just been announced that "We've Never Been Licked," the Aggie picture produced by Walter Wanger of Universal Studios, will show at Navasota today and tomorrow. This picture has been both praised and complimented by critics of the drama world and by Aggies. It remains to the person who actually sees the picture and knows Aggeland as to whether it is a true portrayal of the true Aggeland.

Vet Examiners To Meet On Campus

The Texas State Board of Veterinary Examiners and the State Veterinary Medical Association of Texas will meet at the A. & M. College of Texas September 20-22, it was announced by Dr. R. P. Marsteller, Dean of the School of Veterinary Medicine.

The Examiners will conduct their meeting September 20 and 21 under chairmanship of Dr. A. C. Burns of Cleburne. The 20th semi-annual meeting of the state association will be held September 21 and 22 under the chairmanship of Dr. W. Dan Roberts, president.

Dr. Fred P. Jaggi, Jr., of the A. & M. College staff will be in charge of local arrangements.

Dairymen To Be At A. & M. Soon

Dairy fieldmen representing Texas creameries, cheese plants and dairy product manufacturers will meet at Texas A. & M. College September 15 and 16 to obtain information which they can take into the field to aid milk producers in meeting the problem of maintaining production in the face of the dairy feed shortage in the state.

The two-day program is being held at the request of the dairy plants to give their fieldmen the advantage of the latest information available at the college according to Charles N. Shepardson, head of the A. & M. Dairy Husbandry department.

Albert V. Moore, associate professor of dairy husbandry will be in charge of the meeting, and speakers will include other members of the college staff.

Mystery Show on Kampus Kapers Sat.

Richard Jenkins has announced that the Kampus Kapers program this Saturday night will be in the form of a mystery program. The program plans have not been completed at this time, but Saturday's Battalion will cover the details more thoroughly. Kampus Kapers will begin at the usual time of 8:15 and last one hour. The show will be in the Assembly Hall and are free to Aggies, service men, residents of this area, and visitors on the campus. Everyone is invited.

While General Rev Walks By

—Trant—

When I was a fish at Aggeland,
There came to us one day,
A little pup that boy picked up
And he brought her there to stay.

When they came up to the Campus gate,
They heard a bugle sounding,
Then the boy looked down to the puppy's face,
And saw there joy abounding.

We gave her the name of Reveille
And still she answers the call,
Now, she's the pride of Aggeland
And she's loved by one and all.

From Taps until the doggie's name,
She slept in the Freshman dorm.
In those old days there was only one
And she slept there rain or storm.

"Freshman! Come outa' that bed!
Our Mascot sleeps on the floor!"
"Yes sir, she can have my bed!
And I'll sleep there by the door."

When it came my turn, she had my bed,
And she had my cover too.
But I didn't mind it a single bit
'Cause I was an Aggie true.

I'm an Aggie Ex, but still I'm true,
But now I'm on foreign sand.
And my mind goes back to a girl I know,
Who's the Spirit of Aggeland.

I read in a paper from Aggeland
Where a portrait will hang on the wall.
And a collar will be in the trophy case
In the center of the Academ. Hall.

If I were an artist of great renown,
Instead of an Army man,
I'd answer the call, and go back to it all,
Back to my Aggeland.

But since I'm a soldier and engaged in war,
I can only hope and pray
That before old Rev crosses the bar,
I get back A. & M. way.

Then I'll click my heels, and straighten my back,
And raise my hand to my eye.
I'll hold the salute; I'll not even breath,
While General Rev walks by.

Aggie-Ex Gets Navy Wings

Ralph Rothman, son of Mrs. M. Rothman of 8924 Cumberland St., El Paso, won his Navy "Wings of Gold" and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve this week following completion of the prescribed flight training course at the Naval Air Training Center, Pensacola, Fla., the "Annapolis of the Air."

Prior to entering the Naval service, he attended Texas A. & M. for two years.

Having been designated a Naval Aviator, Lieutenant Rothman will go into active duty at one of the Navy's air operational training centers before being assigned to a combat zone.

WNBL Received Heartily . . .

It seems that WNBL has really been making the rounds, not only of this country, but others as well. A letter has been received by Dr. Ide P. Trotter, Head of the Agronomy Department, from a friend from Mexico praising the picture to the high heavens.

The man, M. E. Gonzales, was only on the campus for 6 weeks but according to his letter, part of which is quoted, he really got the old Aggie Spirit. In his letter he said, "As the first scenes appeared on the screen, the railroad station, the Hall of Science, the Petroleum Building, the Stadium, the marching grounds, etc., my heart started to beat so fast that I thought my chest would explode." In another part he said that though he had only gone to A. & M. for 6 weeks, he felt like he had graduated here.

This just shows how the Aggie Spirit gets a hold on people and what makes it the greatest school in the world.

Another letter reviewing the picture was one from an ex-Aggie in Dallas—Forest Hughes. Graduating in 1927, Mr. Hughes has been a real Aggie and has been active in Aggie work ever since. He saw the show in Pensacola, Florida and in his letter remarked that it is the greatest picture ever made for an Aggie. Part of his letter was as follows: "It really gave me the old butterflies to see the picture of the gutter-walking fish; to hear and see the Aggie Band; to hear of sawdust and gunwadding and air outs and water fights. As an old Aggie, thanks to you, I think Mr. Wanger certainly deserves to wear the boots!"

A note from John Holman, former Editor of the Battalion, stated that about 50 Aggies from all over California saw WNBL in San Francisco and thought it was swell. He also said, "These people

Town Hall Tickets On Sale Sept. 14; Season One of Best

Aggies and Servicemen Pay $2; College Staff And Residents Pay $5

Season tickets for the fall presentations of Town Hall are to be put on sale September 14th. The tickets are $2 for Aggies and Servicemen and $5 for others. There are many programs to be featured which will attract large crowds. This means that there will be a rush for tickets and to get a good selection of seats, one should come early.

The entire program for the season has been announced by the Town Hall Committee through the Student Activities office. Eight varied presentations have been selected, which make the programs much more entertaining. On the schedule are Bidu Sayao, Metropolitan soprano, October 19; Carmen Amaya and her group of gypsy dancers, November 18; the Singing Cadets on December 14; Richard Crooks, the Metropolitan Opera Tenor, will sing before the Town Hall audience on January 20; the mind reader, Joseph Dunninger, presents his show on February 8; the Philadelphia Opera on February 21, will feature modern dress and contemporary English combined with the classics; Zino Francescatti, and expert violinist, will be the featured artist on March 7; the Houston Symphony will end the season's Town Hall programs with its seventh appearance before an Aggie audience.

Reserved tickets may be bought beginning Tuesday and on any day following at various booths located about the campus. The Student Activities office, located in Room 3 of the Administration Building, and the YMCA lobby will have booths for the purpose of selling these tickets. No reservations will be taken by telephone and none will be sold before Tuesday, September 14 at 9 a. m. Additional booths will be set up in Bryan, but the location is not yet known. This will be announced before the 14th which is the beginning date of the reservation sale.

The General Reveille Fund needs approximately $30 to have Rev's picture painted and the collar made. Contribute now so this can be done immediately.

Scholarships For Aggies Announced

A score of undergraduate scholarships for Texas boys, and seven scholarships for Latin-Americans at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas were announced today by F. M. Law, president of the board of directors. All of the announced scholarships are for study in the A. & M. School of Agriculture, E. J. Kyle, dean.

Anderson, Clayton and Company is donor of the largest number of scholarships. This cotton firm for several years has offered scholarships to six 4-H Club boys and five Future Farmers of America who have made outstanding records in the production of cotton in Texas. These boys have the privilege of attending one of several Texas agricultural colleges.

Anderson, Clayton and Company have set up two scholarships for students from Brazil, one for Argentina and one from Peru, the students to be selected as soon as war conditions permit.
