Dance Tonight After Aggie-S. M. U. Game

Orchestra From Bergstrom Field Plays For Occasion

Dance Lasts From 8:30 to 11:30 in Sbis; Price is $1.00 For Couple or Stag

Tonight after the S. M. U.-A. & M. football game an all service dance will be held in Sbis Dining Hall according to an announcement made by the Student Activities Office last Tuesday. The dance will be held from 8:30 until 11:30 p.m. that night; admission for the dance will be $1 for couples or stags.

The Del Valle orchestra, now known as the Bergstrom Field Orchestra, from near Austin has already been engaged to play for the occasion. The Del Valle orchestra is stationed at Del Valle field just outside of Austin, and when the airfield changed its name to Bergstrom Field the orchestra did likewise. The orchestra was engaged last semester for the Freshmen Ball, and everyone who attended the ball can well remember the Del Valle orchestra for its personality and good music. The band also played for the Final Ball of last semester, however, since then the band has been completely reorganized and more players have been added to its roster. Although the band has been reorganized it can be expected to put out the same quality of music that it has before at past dances.

Staff Sergeant Jack Ream is still the band leader, and his band has many new novelty numbers as well as popular pieces and boogie-woogie. The band has always been entertaining and lively at their previous appearances. Everybody who has ever heard or danced to the music of the Bergstrom Field Orchestra will agree that the band furnishes the dancers top notch music.

The dance is expected to have a fairly large crowd since Service men, S. M. U. students, and Aggies are being invited. The dance will probably be one of the best this semester, so Aggies and Service men, let's give it all our cooperation Saturday night.

Laugh Clown Laugh

By Charles West
What would we do on these, long, trying days of war years if we did not have someone to keep us laughing—if we did not find humor in little things that we hear or see—if we did not have our popular jesters to clown for us in the movies and over the radio? Where would our optimism be if we did not look to the lighter side of life? If there weren't a brighter side to life (all would be pessimism, and pessimism would be defeat!

Perhaps we have not all been too blind to stop and think of this. But few of us have been unselfish enough to think of what went into those laughs that we hear over the radios and in the movies. Few of us have cared about the drama that those gestures concealed. Those comedians have been only "funny-men" to us—not real, live people with hearts that are crushed as easily as our own. The tragedies of their lives are concealed in a successful attempt to make us laugh, be happy, and keep courage.

How wrong we are to think they have not tragedies! For example, Lou Costello, the funny, fat man of radio and screen that has made you roar in the aisles, returned to his regular program Thursday night after a year's leave of absence (See LAUGH, Page 4)

BSU Retreat Will Begin Here This Evening At Seven

Dr. M. T. Rankin Will Speak; Was Prisoner of Japs for Six Months

The Baptist Student Union Retreat will begin this evening at 7:30 P. M. The Baptist Students of A. & M. have been fortunate in securing as their Main Speaker, Dr. M. T. Rankin who is Secretary of Baptist Mission Work in the Orient. For 6 months Dr. Rankin was a prisoner of the Japanese in the Stanley Prison at Hong Kong. He will speak Saturday evening, Sunday morning and Sunday night. Mr. W. F. Howard, new State Student Secretary will be here and will speak Saturday evening. He will also bring the Sunday School Lesson Sunday Morning.

As inspirational speaker for Morning Watch, Sunday Morning, and also Sunday afternoon, the Baptist Students have brought to our Campus; Milton Strong. He was former head of The Voice of Christian Youth Movement in Detroit. Also former Division head of Bendix Aircraft Co. At present time he is a Student at the Dallas Theological Seminary.

Also speaking on Sunday afternoon will be Rev. R. L. Brown, our own Baptist Pastor, and 1st Lt. George Miller. Lt. Miller is one of our Army officers here at A. & M. and also a great Christian.

All Students, service men and local people are invited to attend these meetings.

Graduate of '41 Gets New Rank

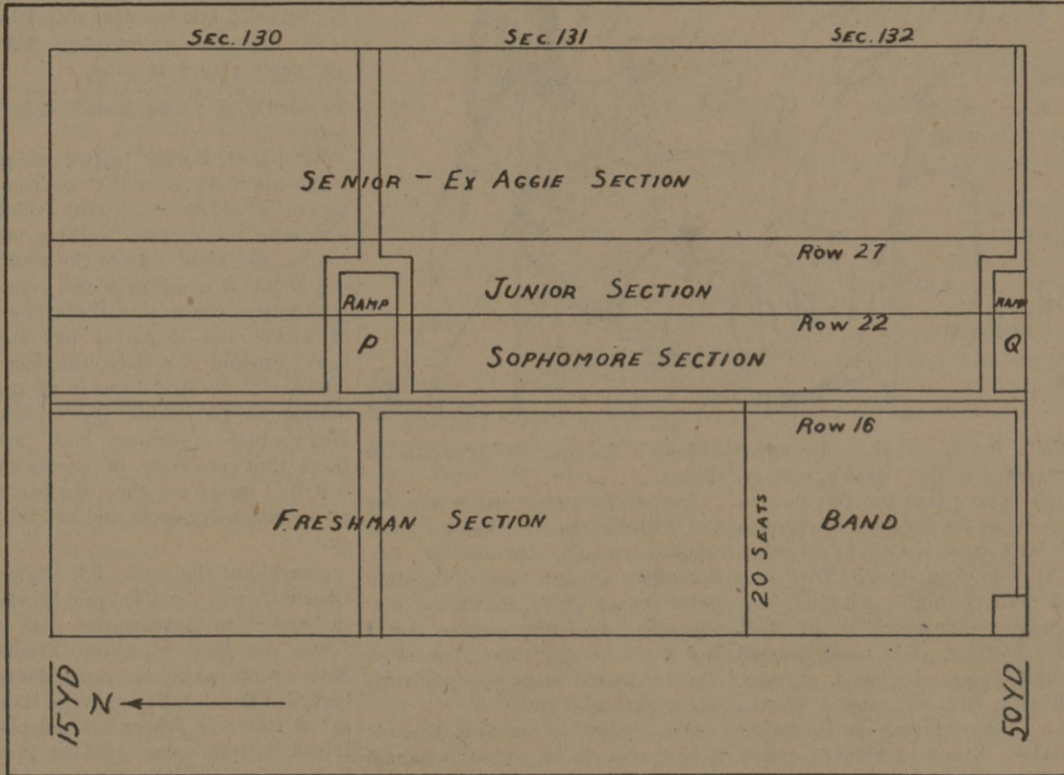

Prof. and Mrs. F. W. Hensel have been notified that their son, F. W. Hensel, Jr., has been promoted from First Lieutenant to Captain.

Captain Hensel received his degree from A. & M. in 1941, majoring in Agricultural Administration. While in Aggie land, he was president of the Marketing and Finance Club and Assistant Town Hall Manager. He was also a member of the tennis squad and Brazis A. & M. Club.

At present Capt. Hensel is stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and is in command of "A" Battery, 686th Field Artillery Battalion, at that post. The captain's father is head of the Landscape Art Department of A. & M.

Last Day for Payment Of Maintenance Fees

Today is the last day for Students to pay their maintenance for November. Amount due this month is $33.65. The fiscal office will be open until 2 o'clock this afternoon to receive payments.

CLASS SECTIONS—Pictured above is the sections apportioned to the various classes by the three yell leaders with the approval of the military department. Freshman and this includes fish and frogs will occupy rows 1-16 in sections 130, 131, and 132. Starting on the 50 yard line and running back through row 16 will be for the band. They will use section 132. Sophomores will sit in rows 17-22 while juniors will have seats 23-27. Seniors and Aggie-exes have rows 28-40. The different classes are requested to find their sections and use them.

ARMY-NAVY TEST TO BE GIVEN ON NEXT TUESDAY

Tuesday morning at eight o'clock in the Assembly Hall the A-12 and V-12 tests will be given. The exams are to be under the supervision of G. B. Wilcox, Manager of the Student Personnel Office.

The following statements will probably clear up any matters which students are hazy on in regard to the quizzes: A student, after taking the test, is not obligated to enter the program if he is accepted. Any one who failed to pass the test given in April of this year may again take the exam; in fact, even if one took the test and passed it he may take it again for reconsideration. Those who take the quiz are asked to state their preference of Army or Navy program. This preference cannot be changed at a later date if the applicant wishes to get into another program, it was stated.

The exam will be given only on the prescribed date and not repeated until sometime in 1944, this being the only opportunity to take the test until that date, it was re-

Patriotic Program To Be Held Sunday

The Music Group of the College Women's Social Club is sponsoring a Patriotic Music Program on Sunday afternoon, November 7, at 3:30 p. m., states Mrs. Ray Putnam, secretary of the Music Group. The program will be held in the YMCA Chapel, and there will be five special numbers.

Aviation Cadet Don Towers and Sgt. Cliff Miller, an instructor in the Marine Corps will present several piano solos. Mrs. G. E. Blake will furnish the program with a violin solo; Lt. Walter Lee Porter, of Bryan Air Field will sing. The Singing Cadets, under the direction of Richard Jenkins, will render several selections.

Refreshments will be served, and the public is cordially invited to attend this patriotic program.

Hillel Club Will Feature Lecturer

The Hillel Club will feature Sunday evening, November 7th, at 7 p. m., at the Lounge Room of Sbis Hall, a musical program of high quality with Miss Anne L. Landau, Ph. D., internationally famous authority on music, with a program of recorded music entitled "Jewish Composers on Broadway."

"The World's greatest artery of popular music—Broadway," says Miss Landau, "is musically bounded on the north by Carnegie Hall and on the south by the Metropolitan Opera . . . and for the past two decades these poles have exerted a magnetic influence on all the music produced there," Miss Landau excitingly develops the two trends today leading away from purely popular music . . . one towards the symphonic platform, the other toward the operatic stage.

Miss Landau has been acclaimed in capitals throughout Europe. She was professor of Music at the University of Berlin and Heidelberg until the advent of Hitlerism, a distinctive achievement in Germany at any time for a member of the Jewish faith.

Since her arrival in this country, (See HILLEL, Page 4)

Present System Out; Heavy Army Program Is Reason

College Returns to System Used During Past Months; Reveille Hour Earlier Wed.

Beginning next Wednesday morning at reveille, the College will resume the old schedule of calls that had been in effect this past spring and summer. All class hours will be set back one hour next Wednesday, therefore necessitating the resumption of the former system of calls.

B Team Victors Over Allen Ramblers

It was the Aggie's game yesterday afternoon when the "B" team crushed the Allen Academy Ramblers 31-6 with Jordan, Pogue, LaRue, and Hughes showing some good Aggie action to knock the Ramblers around quite abit. Turnage of the Ramblers made their lone touchdown to keep it from being an all-Aggie fray.

Jordan of the Aggies made two long runs to keep the excitement high and at the same time making two touchdown runs. Pogue passed to Schodde to start another touchdown run; Pogue was oved for the six points. LaRue and Hughes both showed some exceptional playing with their two touchdowns.

In an official notice to all departments Friday afternoon, President Bolton stated that the heavy load of Army Sections on classrooms had made it more practicable to return to the old schedule for the conservation of electricity.

Business offices will open at 8 o'clock in the morning, close from 12 to 1 o'clock for lunch, then resume hours until 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Under present schedule, classes began at 9 in the morning and end at 6 in the evening. It was thought at the time that the system now used would prove satisfactory, but with the return to the college of the furloughed A.S.T.P. Units, the old system will be re-augmented.

Peace Officers Are Meeting On Campus Of AMC Next Week

Williams Expects About Fifty to Enroll Here For Training Courses

About fifty Texas peace officers are expected to attend the traffic officers training school to be conducted by the industrial extension service of the school of engineering at A. & M. College November 8-20, according to E. L. Williams, director.

Cooperating agencies include the state board of vocational education, League of Texas Municipalities, Texas Police association, Safety division, International Association of Chiefs of Police and the state Department of Public Safety.

Instructors will include Gordon H. Shee, Daniel G. Reynolds and David G. Monroe, all of the I. A. C. P. safety division; Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director public safety department; Carl Rutland, Texas Safety association; Thomas L. Willier, Houston police department, and Wallace D. Beasley and Vernon L. Engberg, A. & M. College.

Accident prevention, traffic control, public safety education and allied subjects will be a part of the course of study. Purpose of the course is to provide intensive training that will enable traffic police executives to secure maximum efficiency in traffic control. The course is especially suitable for chiefs of police and the heads of the various divisions of the larger departments.

Rooms and meals will be provided on the campus for those in attendance, it was announced.

Navy Reopens Aviation Program

The Navy Department has reopened its program for the enlistment of 17-year old students into the Naval Aviation Cadet Training Program, according to an official notice issued from Dean F. C. Bolton's Office.

Students who are interested in participating in this program may obtain application blanks from the Dean's Office, Room 210 in the Administration Building. All students are urged to obtain these forms at once for, as a rule, this program is only opened at intervals for limited periods of time.

Mystery Play To Be Heard Over WTAW

Highlights of tomorrow's programs scheduled to be heard over WTAW, is the A. & M. Radio Club's production of "The Black Death," a half-hour mystery play by Frank Cunningham, to be heard at 2:30 p. m. This play has been widely produced over many radio stations in the United States and Australia, according to Richard Gottlieb, WTAW staff announcer.

The story concerns the discovery of peculiar occurrences on the planet Mars by Dr. Marshall Hamilton, noted astronomer, and the resulting epidemic in the town of Watersville, Delaware of "the black death," supposedly spread by the invaders from Mars.

Included in the cast will be Barbara Peters, Ted Dedliers, Arthur Peters, John Holman, and Dick Gottlieb. It is the first of a series of plays and skits to be produced by members of the Radio Club over WTAW.

AGGIES--How About It?

Today is the day of the big game with Southern Methodist University on Kyle Field. The College is acting as host to the Ponies, and the Aggies of the Corps will be the ones who will make the biggest impression on the visiting team. Complaints of various kinds have been made to the effect that the Corps has not been as courteous to the team which is here on invitation of the College. Such complaints say that the Corps insists upon making too much noise while their boys are trying to call signals.

Toward good sportsmanship and to pay the proper respect and courtesy to the visitors on the campus, it would be a highly complimentary gesture on the part of the Corps to give the visiting team every opportunity to call their signals. The Fightin' Texas Aggies have always enjoyed a reputation of being tough customers, hard fighters and consistent winners—but at the same time they have enjoyed the reputation of being square shooters, good sportsmen and gentlemen. The Corps' discourtesy of yelling and interfering with the opposing teams signals certainly isn't indicative of the Aggie legend of courtesy and good sportsmanship.
