Student Election Plans Set For Wednesday

War Bond Show Here Friday

Movie Stars Will Be Presented On Kyle Field Stage

Three Hollywood personalities, who are touring the state in the interest of the 5th War Loan, will appear in Kyle Field on Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock for a Bond Rally and outdoor show, according to an announcement made today. The stars, Wild Bill Elliott, Republic western ace; Adele Mara, Republic starlet, and Jimmy Wakely, famous radio and screen cowboy singer, now with Republic, will head a unit locally which will include several returned war heroes, and an hour of diversified entertainment. This unit of the "Stars Over Texas" group is one of five which is touring the state at the present time in the interest of the 5th War Loan, appearing at rallies in approximately 200 towns and cities in Texas.

During the 3rd War Loan, when the "Stars Over Texas" idea was inaugurated, for units of stars covered approximately 140 towns, and sold more than $32,000,000 in War Bonds. For the present drive, the War Activities Committee of the motion picture industry in Texas expects to sell at least $50,000,000 in bonds during the current drive.

Press Club to Meet In Y.M.C.A. Wednesday Night

The Press Club will hold its first meeting of the summer semester Wednesday night, according to Calvin Brumley, editor of the Battalion. The meeting will begin at 7:15 in the Cabinet Room of the YMCA building.

The election of officers of the club and appointment of staff positions will be the main objectives of the meeting. Plans for activities for the summer will be discussed. All club members, new and old, are urged to attend this important session.

Freshmen Adapt Themselves To New Customs; New Fish Awed By "Sully"

Two weeks ago another Fish class entered A. & M. in much the same manner as in each year since the college was founded in 1876. Immediately spirit picked up, and Fish Brown, Fish Smith, or Fish Jones is my name was heard everywhere on the campus. Freshmen in their new khaki uniforms were seen in front of Guion Hall, behind Sully's statue, and at every other inscription as they were learning the words according to an old Aggie tradition. It really made the upperclassmen feel good and get a good case of the butterflies.

LOVELY—Adele Mara, Republic starlet, whose twinkling brilliance has been added to the galaxy of the great in the Hollywood firmament, will shine in the "Stars Over Texas" War Bond Show to be presented Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock in Kyle Field.

Tax Payment Due - Dr. Barlow Leaves To City Fri. June 30 For S. P. E. E. Meet

Last half of the split tax payment for the City of College Station is due by June 30, according to announcement made this week by Claude W. Dodgers, collector of city taxes. After that date a penalty and interest will be added to the tax payment, it was pointed out.

Those who elected to pay their taxes in split payments are urged to make the last half payment before June 30th in order to avoid the penalty and interest that will be placed on it after that date.

A group of men including Mr. Barlow, Mr. Spence, Mr. Street, Mr. Crawford, and Mr. Faires from A. & M. will attend a meeting of the Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education in Cincinnati, Ohio, on June 22-24. Mr. Barlow is chairman of the Committee of Aeronautical Engineering Curricula which is a part of the SPEE. The purpose of this session is to see what other schools are offering in the way of engineering courses and exchange various ideas.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mr. Barlow, who is head of the Aeronautical Engineering Department and also acting Dean of Engineering at the present, will make a tour of aircraft factories in Pittsburgh, Dayton, Lafayette, and Indianapolis before returning to College on July 2.

Campus Camera Club To Organize Wednesday

Local camera fans will meet in room 123 of the Academic building Wednesday night for the organization of a Camera Club for the summer.

Committee Announces Eligibility List; Polls Open Eight, Close Five

Meeting Monday night, June 19, the Student Elections Committee considered the eligibility of the men submitted on petitions for class officers. Those men that were found eligible for class officers and yell leaders will have their

Dean Kyle Returns From F.C.A. Meet

E. J. Kyle, Dean of the School of Agriculture, returned yesterday from a conference of the Farm Credit Administration which has been in progress for the past eight days in Kansas City, Missouri, national headquarters for this organization.

Dean Kyle, one of the directors from this district, was called upon to address the meeting concerning his plan for post war agriculture. Copies of this plan, which is the same one Kyle submitted to Secretary of State Cordell Hull recently, were distributed to farm leaders from all over the nation. Parts of this plan concerning Pan-American agriculture were compiled from information which Dean Kyle gathered on his trip through the Latin American countries a few years back.

Directors from each of the twelve districts which compose the Farm Credit Administration were present to discuss plans relating to the financing of agriculture. The Farm Credit Administration (See KYLE on Page 3)

Yell Practice Unifies Corps; "Kyle Field", "Farmers Fight", Shows Aggie Spirit at Height, Known World Over

Soon after the election of yell leaders this coming Wednesday, there will be held the first yell practice of the summer. The time and place of the practice has not been announced as of yet.

To the freshmen this will be an entirely new experience. If they haven't already done so, they should obtain a copy of all the yells and learn them before the first yell practice. A copy of the important yells may be found in names placed on a ballot and the election will be held tomorrow, Wednesday, in the rotunda of the Academic Building from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 a.m. and from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Those men that were found eligible for yell leaders and class officers were: Seniors: President, Tom K. Alley; Vice-President, William B. Griffin; Secretary-Treasurer, Sam Law; Social Secretary, Oscar Charles Haenisch, and Calvin Brumley; Senior Yell Leaders, A. C. Jones and H. Q. Sibley.

Junior class candidates are: President, E. A. Baetz, B. B. Wallace, and J. B. Kearby; Vice-President, John A. Huebner, L. W. Schuhmann, W. H. Schiefelbein, and Morris Boone; Secretary-Treasurer, Jere W. Higgs, and Delbert Runyon.

Five petitions were submitted for (See ELECTIONS, Page 7)

New Publication Date Set For The Battalion

Beginning this Friday the Battalion newspaper will be issued on Tuesday and Friday afternoons rather than Tuesday's and Thursdays as announced previously.

Those men who have been working on the Battalion are requested by the editor to come down on Monday and Thursday afternoons and also any other Aggies who feel that they have writing or reporting ability are asked to report to Room 5 of the Administration building.

the YMCA Handbook and in a copy of the old Cadence. It is important that they know them if they expect to make this first yell practice a good one.

The yell practice represents more than just another campus event. It is at this type of Corps meeting where enthusiasm, especially for our athletic teams, is generated. The new student often gets his first sensation of the old Aggie (See YELL PRACTICE, Page 2)
