Ex-Batt Editor Is In Denver Hospital

According to latest reports Lt. R. L. Doss, ex-Aggie of the class of '39, expects to be released from the Fitzsimmons General Hospital, Denver, Colorado, within the next few months.

R. L. "Cueball" Doss, was editor of the Batt in 1939. He was secretary of the Student Welfare Committee. He was in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges. "Cueball" was also a prominent member of the debate club.

"Cueball" resigned from school to become a city reporter on the Sherman Democrat, and later the sports editor of the Denison Herald, in the year 1937. He quit and returned to school in the same year and graduated in 1939 with an M. S. degree.

His father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Doss, live in White-write, Texas, where Mr. Doss is a printer-editor.

be a general meeting with the Joint Legislative Committee on School Laws on June 29, with State Senator Carl L. Lovelady, presiding.

Problems of concern to all school executives and students of school administration will be discussed fully in panel type meetings, with each session having a leader and several assistants selected from among the outstanding educators of Texas. Each session will have an assigned subject and the business program just released by Dean Brooks lists the major problems confronting the schools of the State at the present time.

A business session will conclude the conference near noon June 29, at which there will be reports from standing committees and election of association officers for the coming year.

-ELECTIONS-

vice-president; and W. W. Powell, secretary treasurer.

Later on there will be an election for junior yell-leaders and to hold the run-offs. There should be more voters in this than in the election held yesterday, as the competition will be keener. Also, an abnormally small number voted yesterday. Only three-hundred and ten votes were counted. This is attributed to the large number of positions for which there was only one candidate.
