W T A W Batt Chat

Terrific competition between many of this city's most beautiful lassies is currently in progress in a newspaper contest to select 100 girls to be the dates of servicemen in the Blind Date program which is scheduled to open at the RKO Theatre June 22.

Paced by Femcee Arlene Francis, Blind Date will appear on the RKO stage three times daily for a week and include the regularly scheduled BLUE Network broadcast, Monday, June 26, at 7:30 p.m., CWT. It will mark the first stage appearance of the show on which six servicemen vie for dates with three girls over the telephone.

Quiz Kids will round out their fourth year on the airplanes with the broadcast on Sunday, June 25, at 6:30-7:00 p.m. CKT, over the Blue Network.

Prominent among the small-fry scholars who will celebrate the anniversary of the famed kilocycle alma mater will be Sparky Fischman, who is exactly as old as the program. Sparky is the brother of Quiz Kid veteran Harve Fischman (also to be heard on the broadcast), and, like him, is proficient in American history on the quiz board will be Joel Kupperman, 8-year-old master of math; Richard Freeman, who in ten years has gathered enough knowledge to last a lifetime; and Claude Brenner, 15, who recently received a scholarship to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Joe Kelly will serve as a quiz-master of ceremonies.

lough wedding possible, "The Time, The Place, The Girl," will be sung by Dorothy Kirsten, soprano, and Mack Harrell, baritone, on the Keepsakes program over the Blue Network Sunday, June 25, at 7:30 p.m., CWT.

Miss Kirsten's solos will be "Sometime" and "Frasquita's Serenade;" Harrell will sing "Invictus" and "Old Dog Tray." Tom Jones' orchestra and chorus will be heard in "When You Wore a Tulip" and "Loch Lomond."

Matching the incredible speed of a B-29 Charlie Magnante's lightning fingers will coax "Flight of the Bumblebee" from his accordion during his guest appearance on the Blue Network's Summer Hour with Paul Whiteman and his Radio Hall of Fame orchestra and chorus Sunday, June 25, at 5 p.m., CWT.

The world's fastest accordionist will also be heard in a special arrangement of "Tico, Tico."

Ilene Woods, warm-throated songstress, will sing "I'll Get My," and Whitman will conduct his celebrated arrangement of "When Day Is Done." Other selections to be sung by Bobo Johnston and Hi, Lo, Jack and the Dame include "How Blue The Night," "Take It Easy," "Donkey Serenade," "Time Waits for No One," and the "Hit Kit" medley consisting of favorites of servicemen overseas.

Whitman's "Old and New" number of the afternoon will be the first arrangement he ever played of the veteran "Wang Wang Blues," with a brand new orchestration immediately following.

Don McNeill, America's witty waker-upper who each weekday adds luster to the dawn's early light, will round out his eleventh year as m. c. of the Blue Network's Breakfast Club on the broadcast of Saturday, June 24, at 8:00 p.m., CWT.

High points in McNeill's career of the last twelve months include his amusing contest to unearth the "world's greatest one-man band" (a dubious title that was won by a virtuoso known as Panhandle Pete), and his founding of an actual Breakfast Club that now has approximately a million charter members.

Chief among the honors that fell to McNeill in the last year was that extended by Tune-In Magazine, national radio publication, which cited him as m. c. of "America's outstanding morning variety show—the Blue Network's Breakfast Club."

Only change in the Breakfast Club cast during the same period was the departure of Jack Baker, tenor, for naval service, and his replacement by Jack Owens, who since has established himself as radio's one and only Cruising Crooner.

The world's fastest moving glacier is the Upernivik ice stream in Greenland, which has been observed to move 100 feet in one day.
