

W T A W Batt Chat

In My True Story of Wednesday, August 2, at 9:00 a.m., CWT, over WTAW, three pals—Ken, Charley, and Lou—had the even tenors of their lives broken up by the war. For Charley went into service, Ken stayed home because of an injury, and the girl, Lou, stayed home too. Which man should she marry? The story of "Your Best Girl" has all of the drama daily created by the chaotic world in which we live.

A society girl meets a young farmer and they fall in love. But they are worlds apart until the girl renounces her former life and recaptures the pioneer spirit. The Blue Network's My True Story, "Pink Chiffon Girl," heard Thursday, August 3, deals with this problem.

In My True Story of Friday, August 4, a girl who loves her teacher, Joel Harley, undergoes many bitter experiences before she realizes that it is her old standby, Steve, who is really the man for her.

A woman interviewed by Don McNeill on a recent broadcast of the Blue Network's Breakfast Club reported that she had started out to attend a Breakfast Club session three months previously but had turned back home within a block of the studio.

"Why did you back track?" asked McNeill.

"To keep an appointment with the stork," she replied.

The Four Vagabonds will sing that sublime ballad of a person who has burst all bonds—"Running Wild"—on their Blue Network program of songs, Wednesday, August 2, at 4:15-4:30 p.m., CWT.

The mellow foursome also will intone "San Fernando Valley," "Prayer of a Nation," "My Darling Nelly Gray," and "I Only Want a Buddy (Not a Sweetheart)."

Cliff Arquette faced with a large utilities bill, tries to collect some back rent from tenants of Glamour Manor during the broadcast, Wednesday, August 2, at 11:00 a.m., CWT, over the Blue Network. The results are somewhat unexpected and amusing.

Charlie Hale's orchestra will feature a revival of "The Sheik," and Hal Stevens, vocalist, will sing "I'll Walk Alone."

Judge Ransom Sherman will defend the issue that "a back seat driver is the lowest form of animal life," during the Blue Network broadcast of Nitwit Court, Tuesday, August 1, at 7:30-8:00 p.m., CWT.

After the judge has lost himself in a maze of contradictory evidence, the problem will be tossed into a vacuum composed of three learned jurors—Waymond Wadcliffe (Arthur Q. Bryan), Bigelow Hornblower (Mel Blanc) and Bubbles Lowbridge (Sara Berner).

Musical interludes will include an original song by Jimmy Dodd, accompanied by the Jack Rose instrumentalists.

Someone who happens to have the twenty-four-year-old original Paul Whiteman recording of "Do You Ever Think of Me?" is going to get a $25 war bond by lending it to the Blue Network's musical director, conductor of the Philco Summer Hour, heard Sundays at 5:00 p.m., CWT.

Each week the Radio Hall of Fame orchestra, which provides the Summer Hour music, plays a tune exactly as Whiteman recorded it twenty or more years ago and then presents a modern version.

Arrangers have been copying the old orchestrations from whatever ancient, scratched records they've been able to find. However, no one can locate the "Do You Ever Think of Me?" disc, so Whiteman has promised to give the war bond to the first person who writes him care of the Blue Network in New York offering to lend him the record.

In self-contented subjunctive mood, Curley Bradley will sing "If You Knew Susie," on the Blue Network broadcast of Farm and Home Makers, Thursday, August 3, at 11:30 a.m., CWT. Bradley also will baritone "Georgia On My Mind," "I Had a Talk with the Lord," and "Am I a Soldier of the Cross?"

The Harmonizers, instrumental sextet, will play their streamlined version of the old favorite "Twelfth Street Rag," and follow with the "Chicken Polka." The orchestra, under the direction of Harry Kogen, will play a medley composed of "A Little White House," "Just a Cottage Small," and "My Little Grass Shack."

In addition, Bradley will present a last-minute summary of farm news, and Kay Baxter, Blue Network homemaker, will give household hints.

The program is produced by Bob White.

State income taxes are not imposed in 15 states, which contain 40 percent of the population of this country.

A Battery Places High in Slide Rule Contest Finals

A Battery claims the title of the smartest outfit on the campus by virtue of its large representation in the slide rule contest.

Seven boys were finalists, but the crowning feature, according to the boys from A Battery, is the fact that A Battery won three of the top seven places in the contest. Allen F. Johnson was first, winning a slide rule and leading the E. E. students. C. B. Nance was fourth, and David V. Hudson, seventh, the latter two also placing first and second in the Aeronautics Department respectively.

The way of the transgressor is hard on his associates.

Norway To Make Last Payment On Debt to U. S.

The Norwegian government Monday will pay the last installment—$1,239,000—on a $25,000,000 twenty-year loan contracted in the United States in 1924.

The Royal Norwegian Information Service said Ambassador Wilhelm Morgenstjerne will make the payment to the National City Bank of New York.

Norway arranged two 6 per cent loans in 1923 and 1924, both due in twenty years. The first, for $20,000,000, was paid off a year ago.

Total amount repaid on the two loans since the Nazi invasion of Norway in April of 1940, is about $16,000,000, in addition to interest payments.
