The Four Vagabonds will be giving out gospel truth when they sing "Rhythm Is Our Business' on their WTAW program of songs, Friday, August 4, at 6:00 p. m., CWT. Other selections by the free-swinging foursome will be "Marie Elena," "Pretty Kitty Blue Eyes" and "Quilting Party."

With eyes fastened on the rosy postwar world, an octet of Waves and sailors will sing "Make Way for Tommorrow" on the WTAW broadcast of the all-star tar revue, Meet Your Navy, Friday, August 4, at 7:30-8:00 p. m., CWT.

Wismer-Sports.

5:45 Leon Henderson.

Chief Specialist John Carter, former, "Met" opera tenor who recently returned from entertaining Navy personnel in the Pacific war theater, will sing 'Quiereme Mucho', and Bluejacket Harvey Crawford will serenade with "Goodnight, Wherever You Are."

In observance of the 154th anniversary of the Coast Guard, the dramatized portion of the program will depict the heroism of Coast Guard Signalman 3-c Harold Nason, of Rhinelander, Wis., who risked his life to rescue shipmates during an action in the Mediterranean.

Orchestral selections will include "Avalon" and a concert arrangement of "I'll Remember April." The bluejacket choir of 200 voices will intone the beloved hymn, "O God, Our Help in Ages Past."

Meet Your Navy originates weekly via WTAW from the U.S. Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Ruth Posselt, talented young American violinist, will be the solo artist at the Mozart festival broadcast by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Dr. Serge Koussevitzky, on Saturday, August 5, at 7:30 p. m., CWT, over WTAW.

The festival, staged in connection with the seventieth birthday of Dr. Koussevitzky, who was born on July 26, 1874, will be held in picturesque Tanglewood's concert hall. Selections on the broadcast are Symphony in G Minor, Opus No. 25, (I. Allegro Con Brio, II. Andante. III. Menuetto, IV. Allegro) and Concerto for Violin and Orchestra in D Major, No. 4, (I, Allegro, II. Andante Cantabile, III. Rondo-Andante Grazioso).

Not the usual serious treatment generally accorded George Gershwin in memorial concerts, but a rough-and-tumble free for all jazz jamboree, which will include Lee Wiley, the late composer's favorite singer, will make up the all-Gershwin Eddie Condon's Jazz Concert over WTAW Saturday, August 5, at 2:30 p. m., CWT.
