Dorms 14, 15 To Be Opened For Guests

Aggies May Register For Rooms Thursday

Dorm 14 will be opened for Aggie guests arriving for the dances this week-end and, if necessary, Dormitory 15 will also be available.

Students expecting guests will register for the rooms Thursday morning at 8 o'clock and will be admitted to the dormitories from 1 to 3:30 Friday afternoon in order to ready the rooms for their guests. Girls will be admitted to their rooms beginning at 4 o'clock with their linens to be furnished by their respective dates. They must be in by 2 a. m. Friday night and by 1 a. m. Saturday night. A charge of 75 cents per guest will (See DORMS, Page 3)

Longhorn Staff Opens Offices In Room 3 of Administration Bldg.

With the opening of offices in room 3 of the Administration building work on the 1944-45 Longhorn has been begun by Marc Smith, Editor and Bob English, Advertising Manager.

Their offices will be adjacent to the present Battalion Staff office in room 5.

Plans call for the Longhorn to record activities of the school and student body beginning with the next semester but it is likely that excerpts from this semester's work will be included.

The groundwork for the annual is now being laid with the respective contracts being negotiated and preliminary work started.

Dr. Frank Bolton, Dean Of College, Is Member Of 16 Campus Committees

By Eli Barker

Being dean of the college, Dr. Frank Cleveland Bolton holds one of the most important positions on the campus. He is well fitted for this job in a school such as A. & M. as he was graduated from the A. & M. College of Mississippi in 1905 and held the highest cadet commission, major, in his senior year.

Bolton was born at Pontotoc,

FLETCHER HENDERSON, "America's Ace Arranger," who will play his insinuating music for the Second Regimental Ball Friday night.

Presbyterian League To Have Swimming Party Wed. Evening

The A. and M. Presbyterian Young Peoples' League will entertain with a "Dutch" swimming party at the Bryan Country Club, Wednesday evening, August 23. After meeting at the new "Y" at 6:30, the group will go directly to the swimming pool. Following the swim, the members of the League will serve refreshments. Rev. Norman Anderson, the Pastor, said that all Aggies will be able to return to the campus in time for C.Q.

Mississippi, on March 24, 1883, and taught on the Electrical Engineering staff of his alma mater from the time of his graduation until 1909. He received further college training at Cornell University, University of Chicago, University of Wisconsin, and Ohio State University. After being awarded the degree of Master of Science by the latter institution in 1928, the hon- (See DR. BOLTON, Page 8)

Experiment Station Receives Donations

Two grants of funds totaling $8,000 have been made to the Texas A. & M. College Experiment Station by private concerns interested in furthering studies in their respective fields of agriculture. One grant of $5000 is for experiments in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and the other is a $3,000 fund for laboratory studies, particularly of the amino acids in meats.

Dr. Carl M. Lyman and his associates have been advised by Dr. H. R. Kraybill, director of scientific research, American Meat Institute, Chicago, that a grant-in-aid of $3,000 has been made by the institute for their study of amino acids and the amounts of each contained in meats and meat products.

Meats, and particularly lean meats are rich in proteins. In turn protein contains some 22 known (See DONATIONS, Page 3)

Vice President Wallace Is Visitor On Campus; Confers With Gilchrist, Kyle

When Harold Young, Dallas attorney, became executive assistant to Vice President Henry Wallace five years ago one of his first assignments was that he bring the former Secretary of Agriculture to Texas A. & M. College.

Young carried out that assignment Sunday, and he and the Vice-President spent several hours on the campus as guests of President Gibb Gilchrist. They later departed for Austin where the Vice-President will get in some relaxing tennis matches, and be honored with a barbecue today by Mayor Tom Miller.

Mr. Wallace spent Saturday visiting the Southern Regional Cotton Laboratory at New Orleans, and early in the evening he had Mr. Young telephone Dean E. J. Kyle of the School of Agriculture. Young told Dean Kyle the Vice-President long had wanted to visit Texas A. & M. College, and arrangements were made to meet

Aggies Hold First Football Workout

Around 100 boys answered Coach Homer Norton's call and reported to Kyle Field Monday afternoon as the Aggie mentor started putting his charges through workouts in preparation for the 1944 football season.

Most of Monday's session was spent organizing the boys and outlining the definite plans and rules by which they must abide. Coach Norton, in a 30 minute talk to his charges, welcomed the new boys to A. & M. and outlined his plans for the next five weeks to the group.

For the next week or so the drills will consist mostly of the fundamentals of football. This is a part of the training which must be covered, but it is not usually taken up until the later stages of training. However, until the weather has cooled off, the workouts will be taken up mostly by place kicking, punting, passing, running back of kickoffs, extra point kicking, (See FOOTBALL, Page 5)

Battalions Elect Committee Group

Reformation of the Student Welfare Committee has been partially completed with the designation of three battalion representatives for the senior class and designation of class officers to represent the junior and sophomore classes. Freshmen will not be represented on the committee until the remainder of that class registers in October.

Elmo Crehshaw, and Willie Ralston have been elected by the 3rd and 2nd battalions of the 1st regiment and J. R. Kidd has been selected to represent the 1st battalion of the 2nd regiment. Junior representatives are: Class president, Ernst Baetz, vice-president, John Huebner, and secretary treasurer, Jere Higgs. Sophomore representatives are president, Jack Ward and vice-president, Bill Pratt.

President of the senior class, Tom Alley, reports that he will secure the names of the other elected representatives from battalion commanders and certify the completed committees to Dean F. C. Bolton within this week.

The Student Welfare committee will be concerned with matters concerning the welfare and interests of the student body and will meet with and make recommendations of the Executive Committee.

Seniors To Discuss Revision of Cadence With Dr. Doak Wed.

Seniors will meet with Dr. C. C. Doak, chairman of Sub-Committee No. IV of the Post War Plans and Policies Committee, Wednesday night, in Room 32, Science Hall, at 7:00 o'clock, to discuss the use and possible revision of the "Cadence".

In a similar meeting last Wednesday night, twenty freshmen met with Dr. Doak to discuss the merits of "The Cadence" and to offer suggestions that might make it more useful as a handbook for first year students. This particular discussion is an outgrowth of studies undertaken by the sub-committee which has given consideration to "The Cadence" as a part (See CADENCE, Page 8) him in Houston Sunday morning.
