The Battalion

Entered as second class matter at the Post Office at College Station, Texas, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1870.

Subscription rate $3.00 per school year. Advertising rates upon request.

Member Associated Collegiate Press

Office, Room 5, Administration Building. Telephone 4-5444.

Office, Room 5, Administration

Calvin Brumley Editor | E

search, and extension work.

Agricultural Club Monday by Gibb Gilchrist, recently named president of Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, reflects the thinking of one engineer who intends to get the job done. Such objectives as developing a force of the best informed agricultural agents in the country, the most highly qualified research scientists in the school's laboratories and experiment stations, the best trained instructors to impart up-to-the-minute information which will help our farmers to share more largely in the national income agricultural that they don't use it much but you know, if the library had a beautifu and interesting girl behind every stack, not behind but in front, of books the book circulation would go up tremend-but in front, of books the book circulation would go up tremend-business and experiment stations, the best trained instructors to impart up-to-the-minute information which will help our farmers to share more largely in the national income about 1 days and In part the program, "... as outlined before the Dallas according to their responsibilities. It's true that they don't use it Biography: to impart up-to-the-minute information which will help our flight. Naturally the general wore farmers to share more largely in the national income, should a star because he commanded as have the approval of all Texans.

President Gilchrist said he is taking his time in find- the stars. ing the right man for the vacancies created recently by resignations. In that he is wise. Gilchrist left no doubt among those who heard him that he knows exactly what his principal job is and when he simply summed it up as find-der his jurisdiction and his insignia ing the means and the men to raise the standard of farm is derived from the gable or rafter.

. . Whether intensive farming, supplemental irriga- ment. The sergeant wears three tion, chemurgy and other aids will bring that about remains stripes because he headed a vilto be seen but President Gilchrist determined that whatever lage of ten or more houses. it may take shall be a part of the enlarged program of Texas A. & M."

To the student body at A. & M. and to the people of the troops of a barricaded town Texas it is encouraging that people over the State are supporting Gilchrist and his outlined program. It speaks well the barricade and were known as of Gilchrist, an engineer, that he has not forgotten agri- lieutenants. Captains wore two culture because Texas is primarily agricultural.

If President Gilchrist can do the things he has proposed town or city surrounded by a moat. A. & M. will become the most advanced institution of learn- WATCHING PEOPLE EAT ing in the entire Southwest. There are thousands of interested people who believe sincerely in President Gilchrist.

There are others whose confidence he must win. It is difficult for any man in a responsible position to hew the instance: The girl across the room, path he thinks is right and best without making enemies pretty but married. . . . Don't Backwash will go on and on as the totalitarian road? by Freder- his final training included study the totalitarian road? by Freder- his final training included study the totalitarian road? by Freder- his final training included study the totalitarian road? by Freder- his final training included study the totalitarian road? by Freder- his final training included study the totalitarian road?

at the present time the job is doubly difficult.

the present time the job is doubly difficult.

A man who is strong in his own house has much more career maid) eating methodically that never will anything even represent time the job is doubly difficult.

The prim old lady (probably a column and it is sincerely hoped career maid) eating methodically that never will anything even represent time the job is doubly difficult.

The prim old lady (probably a column and it is sincerely hoped that never will anything even represent time the job is doubly difficult.

The prim old lady (probably a column and it is sincerely hoped that never will anything even represent time the job is doubly difficult.

The prim old lady (probably a column and it is sincerely hoped that never will anything even represent time the job is doubly difficult.

The prim old lady (probably a column and it is sincerely hoped that never will anything even represent time the job is doubly difficult.

The prim old lady (probably a column and it is sincerely hoped that never will anything even represent time the job is doubly difficult.

The prim old lady (probably a column and it is sincerely hoped that never will anything even represent time the job is doubly difficult.

The prim old lady (probably a column and it is sincerely hoped that never will anything even represent time the job is doubly difficult.

The prim old lady (probably a column and it is sincerely hoped that never will anything even represent the probably a column and it is sincerely hoped that never will anything even represent the probably anything even repr chance of success than one who is not. A. & M. is the house of President Gibb Gilchrist. Aggies are A. & M. If Presimpatiently . . . Sailor and his the Battalion Office again.

Lt. Buchanan's group nas participated in every major aerial operation of the Mediterranean Thematical Control dent Gilchrist can show to the people of Texas a firm and loyal student body in Aggieland he will accomplish his objectives. If not, the odds are against him.

Something to Read By Edna B. Woods

What Russia Wants by Joachim Joesten

tinued his career as a journalist seems rather impressive. in the Scandinavian countries for Mr. Joesten enumerates Russia's lady leaves or sits down. several years, spent five months objectives as five, two negative and in a Swedish concentration camp, three positive. Russia does not when that country was invaded by want a Soviet Europe, neither does behavior is one that every lady the lady be seated and if he is in- for the home grounds, by P. J. the Germans, and married a Swed-she want a Reactionary Europe. should take seriously, since every sistent enough she will either be Van Melle.

case, refer to Stalin's speeches, and final step.

sistant editor of Nation magazine, left Germany in 1933 because he opposed Nazism. But before he ficed 10,000,000 men. That number, made his way to the United States compared with the combined losses made ms way to the United States via Russia, Japan, and Panama, he worked on the Paris press, con
The description of England and the United States are agreed on the rule that when a lady comes to speak to those which was less than 1,000,000, seated at the table all the men seated at the table at the table

Russia does want a restoration of gentleman must stand as long as seated or move on. Contrary to popular opinion, the 1941 frontiers of the U.S.S.R., Russia's foreign policy is neither a peace with security, and a voice mysterious nor enigmatic, accord- in the reorganization of Europe. ing to Mr. Joesten; it is simple, The author points out that Stalin's straightforward and down-to- rise to power and triumph over earth. What Russia Wants is "an Trotsky as the successor to Lenin attempt, in so far as it can be was simultaneous with the converstatements and circumstancial evi- ary activities into a self-centered dence, to establish the facts and and strongly national state, and to present the Russian view." that in 1943, the dissolution of the "Authoritative statements," in this Communist International was the "circumstancial evidence," to Rus- The Russians have repeatedly sia's military and political history demonstrated their superiority at for the five years prior to 1944. fighting a defensive rather than an Russia's right "to want" can offensive war. Having fought to hardly be disputed. However, the protect the land which they love, strength of her demands depends the Russians have been planning to on the interpreter, and Russians protect that land by making her are inclined to measure losses in geographical neighbors, politically sympathetic at least. Mr. Joesten's account of how she has partially Baltic states, with Finland, and in mulative proposition, the Far East. densed version of Russian diplom- termination—in fact, we like to acy and a prediction of what her see them reckless. These players future policy will be. The author's will make mistakes, but their misfaith in a workable peace after takes are more apt to be few in victory is based on the hope that number and their relaxed perform-England, Russia, and the United ance will far overbalance their States will be completely honest mistakes. and outright in declaring what We like to see the player who authority, rating his men strictly cized for not using the library. Marcelin and Pierre Marcelin.

A private in this man's army Corporals wear two chevrons because they commanded a settle-

Soldiers, although privates call them something else, who headed bars because they commanded a

W HILE EATING at the Ag-gieland people notice things. For shot and Canis got. In an age of the integral of th receiving criticism.

know about the lass behind the coffee urn. . . . What is the man in anything but Canis is buried here the totalitarian rick A. Hayek.
The Tyrants'

College Library

to all in this time but few know out and alone. . . . Old man, neat-civilian world, by Niven Busch. ing on November 29, 1944. the origin of each even though ly dressed, twisting fingers off some Geeyes know the origin of while waiting for his turn. . . Valley of the Sky; a novel of men

Many a GI would like to tell his he looks wet behind the ears and she's still dewy eyed. . . . Pro
Time Must Have a Stop; a novel January 1, 1922. major to go climb a tree but would fessors, teachers, and others at the Revolution, by Ralph Korngold.

NENYARD W. CANIS has for Mackenzie. many men as could be seen from some months been a figment of War Narratives: the imagination of someone. At times Canis had somewhat of an Carey McWilliams. imagination himself but he has imagined out. The mirage is gone. Without Bitterness; Western Nations in post-war Africa, by A. A. vanced training in combat tactics and operational procedures of his 9, 1942, Lieutenant Bullock attend-

Renyard

Man, Your Manners

By I. Sherwood

Journalist Joachim Joesten, asstant editor of Nation magazine

Journalist Joachim Joesten, asstant editor of Nation magazine

Journalist Joachim Joesten, aslilies for American Gardens, by Luke Field, Ariz., and left the for blood," substantiate that. By a lady stands, talking to him, if who is seen sitting and eating George L. Slate.

All writers of table manners agreed on the rule that when lady comes to speak to those lady comes to sp seated at the table all the men by placing a chair for her. As soon Gardening in the Lower South, while a lady stands is automatical- Gardening in the Shade, by H. tober of this year. ly proclaimed 'no gentleman' by K. Morse.

rise and stand until the visiting as she sits the men may sit and by H. Harold Hume.

PENNY'S SERENADE By W. L. Penberthy

Every once in a while in watch- every minute he is in the game and wood. ing sports contests of different doesn't seem to ever know when Engineering Sciences: determined from authoritative sion of Russia's world-revolution- kinds we see a player, who misses he has made a mistake, judging Plan Your House to Suit Your-himself by some never come.

Penberthy

What Russia Wants is a con- a contest full of confidence and de- HELP BRING VICTORY-they desire, need and expect. gives his best every second of shot, drops a from external appearances. We like self, by Tyler S. Rogers.

kind of a gesture. We are never at our best when Food Chemistry and Cookery; an I can well appre- we are afraid of making mistakes important and distinctively new ciate the feeling because we will be tight and lack type of college text, by Evelyn G. of these men be- the confidence to take some very Halliday and Isabel T. Noble. cause often their necessary chances in doubtful The Ashley Book of Knots; mistake may resituations. In our every day life every practical knot-what it sult in the loss of we can be very uncomfortable if the contest. But we carry with us the fear of saywe all know that ing or doing the wrong thing.

such mistakes are In my opinion the point can be accomplished that and continues to unintentional so we would rather pretty well illustrated by the case do so is not only very interesting that the player forget it. If he of the Big League Baseball inbut in many cases revealing. Sepa- doesn't, it will bother him and he fielder who was sold by his club rate chapters discuss Russia's re- is much more likely to make fur- after a season in which he had lationship with Germany, with the ther errors-it is sort of an accu- made no errors-but neither had he tried for any of the hard ones.

—BUY MORE WAR BONDS

FINE UNIFORMS LAUTERSTEIN'S Phone 4-4444

Books Received By

some of the guys that wear the The young married couple - they who bring battles to the peaceful from A. & M. must be freshly married because valley of the sky, by Hobert D.

Mr. Roosevelt, by Compton Dorm. No. 13.

Lifeline; the ships and men of our merchant marine at war, by Robert Carse.

in China, Africa and Europe, by Jack Belden

McCrary and David E. Scherman. Brave Men, by Ernie Pyle.

gar McInnis. Veteran Comes Back, by Willard Waller.

Prejudice Japanese - Americans:

and war, by Henry A. Wallace. one of the world's clearest minds Beverly, Laurinburg, N. C., was puts to the test here the problems the first fighter group to fly the Emily Post says, "This detail of of a waiter a man can suggest that Place; hardy deciduous materials comes from, and how to tie it, by charge in one that every lady the lady he scated and if he is in ey and Harry Hill. The Garden of Gourds, by L. H.

ball or makes a to see him take some chances in- Atoms in Action; the stimulating mistake, indicate stead of just waiting until every- story of what science has done and his disgust for thing is just right, which time may can do for the average man, by

Friday and Saturday - starring -Jean Arthur

> — in — "Barbary

They Dream of Home; the story

Still Time to Die; an account, Aggie-Ex, Flies fearless, moving and true, of how men feel who go through battle First Mission

First of the Many; a journal of

The War; Fourth Year, by Ed-

Social Problems:

democracies unknowingly traveling hours of flying in a P-51 Mustang, as, on July 22, 1944.

Our Settlement with Germany; commanded by Colonel Ernest H. that vex men of good will every- historic Italy-to-Russia shuttle where, by H. N. Brailsford.

continue eating. Without the help | Shrubs and Trees for the Small

Insect Pests, by William C. Har-

Knowing Your Trees; new and enlarged edition, by G. H. Colling-

George Russell Harrison.

'Impatient Years'

Preview Saturday Night Also Sun. - Mon. - Tues. Wallace Beery

Coast Gent"

Answers to Loupot's Quiz

Here are the answers to Loupot's second Aggie Quiz:

1. The value of the physical plant at Texas A. & M. was $9,500,000 but has grown to be $15,000,000.

2. There are six schools at A. & M. They are: Graduate, Arts wife wondering a little about the of five ex-marines faced with the and Sciences, Engineering, Veterinary Medicine,, Agriculture, and the ARMY INSIGNIA are familiar whole thing but in a hurry to get problems of life and love in a School of Military Science, which was established at a board meet-

> 3. A. & M. won its first basketball championship in 1920. 4. Mrs. L. B. Locke of Bryan is the only woman to graduate

5. The tradition of the Twelfth Man originated at Dallas in 1922, when the Aggies were playing Centre College. The date was

6. Lawrence Sullivan Ross is the only man to be honored by deans before him. Dean Marsteller, Dean of Veterinary Medicine, took office on These were the answers sent in by "F" Battery, which won first prize in this week's contest.

Second Lieutenant,

Lieutenant Billy H. Buchanan, 20, Craig St., Hillsboro, Texas, Bombson of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Buchan- ardier on a 15th AAF B-24 Liberaaction with the men of the 8th an, 407 E. Juan Linn, Victoria, Tex- tor bomber, has arrived in the Med-Air Force, by Capt. John R. (Tex) as, entered upon his career as a iterranean theater and is assigned combat pilot on December 25 when he flew his first combat mission over enemy territory, a high altimore than 170 major attacks atude heavy bomber escort attacking the Brux Synthetic Oil Refinther Ploesti Oil refineries, the Hereries, Czechoslovakia.

Symbol of Racial Intolerance, by group in Italy in November, Lt. Hungary. Buchanan was given thorough adcourses in combat intelligence pro- mas Bullock, live at the Hillsboro, The Tyrants' War and the Peo- cedures, enemy aircraft recogni- Texas address.

Democracy Reborn; the Vice- are and has the outstanding rec-President speaks out about peace ord of having destroyed 475 enemy planes on 325 missions. This group, mission.

terms of blood and human sacriThe other day a young man ar- she stands. It doesn't change the The Wild Garden, by Margaret April 1943, he was awarded his pilot's wings on May 23, 1944 at IS STILL . . . 90 & 200 pilot's wings on May 23, 1944 at IS STILL .

C. H. S. Tupholme.

Evelyn Kays - Allyn Joslyn

SUNDAY and MONDAY

Also Cartoon and News

Aggie-Ex Joins Mediterranean Group

15TH AAF IN ITALY-Second 15TH AAF IN ITALY—Second Lieutenant Thomas A. Bullock, 504

mann Goering Tank Works, Aus-Assigned to a veteran fighter in Austria, Germany, Italy and tria, and other important targets group before he was scheduled for ed Texas A. & M. College. He was The Road to Serfdom; are the combat flying. In addition to 20 commissioned at San Angelo, Tex-

HELP BRING VICTORY-

—BUY MORE WAR BONDS

Tax Included Box Office Opens at 1 P.M.

Closes at 8:30

also March of Time --- C Q M I N G ---

MONDAY and TUESDAY

GARY COOPER Dr. Wassell