When the Masked Horseman of WTAW is falsely suspected of two murders marked by silver bullets held tightly in the victim's hands, he is determined to establish his innocence. The exciting dramatization of the Lone Ranger, titled

"Missouri Goes To Town," will be broadcast, Monday, February 12, at 6:30 p. m., CWT.

Horry Wismer, sports director and ace sports commentator of WTAW, will journey to Chicago to receive the Esquire Sports Award as the "Outstanding Sportscaster of 1944."

Presentation of the award will be made by Alfred Smart, secretary-treasurer of Esquire, Inc., in the course of Wismer's regular weekly sports roundup via the Blue Network on Saturday, February 10, at 5:15 p. m., CWT.

Claire Trevor, blonde siren of the cinema, will be the special guest of Don McNeill and his matinee madcaps on the WTAW Breakfast Club, Monday, February 12, at 8:00-9:00 a. m., CWT. Miss Trevor's forthcoming film is fetchingly titled "Murder, My Sweet."

An undeveloped tin mine belonging to the Barton estate commands the attention of Charlotte Greenwood during the Charlotte Greenwood Show, Sunday, February 11, at 2:00-2:30 p. m., CWT, over WTAW.

The mine formerly was owned jointly by the Bartons and a Mr. Gregory. The property was divided after a misunderstanding, and has been standing idle for 20 years. Miss Greenwood investigates the mine and decides to make it a paying venture.

Incidental music will be furnished by Charles Dant's orchestra and the Richard Davis Chorus.

Major Richard Bong, Army ace with 40 Jap planes to his credit, has concocted the slippery "Spotlight Question" that the Quiz Kids will try to pin down on their BLUE Network (WTAW) broadcast, Sunday, February 11, at 6:30 p. m., CWT.

Out to hit the gong on the Bong question, and others put to them by Quizmaster Joe Kelly, will be Pat Conlon, 7, Ann Farrell, 14, Harve Fischman, 14, Richard Williams, 15, and an 11-year-old new comer, Kent McPherron, who among other things knows plenty about paleontology.

Lieut. Norman Barry, former Chicago radio announcer who holds the Bronze star for courage in action against the Japanese, will relate his exciting experiences as commander of a PT boat, via the WTAW broadcast of Meet Your Navy, Saturday, February 10, at 6:30 p. m., CWT.

Lieutenant Barry took command of his deadly little craft at New York City and lived aboard her continuously during a perilous run to the New Hebrides and, finally, Leyte.

Musical interludes will be supplied by the Ship's Concert Orchestra, the a-cappella choir of 200 voices, and distinguished bluejacket soloists.

Skiles graduated from North Texas State Teachers College in 1933, and received his Master's degree in Government in 1941, and completed one year of his Doctor's work at the University of Texas. After getting his degree in Government and Economics, Skiles took over the job as Administrative Assistant to the State director of the National Youth Administration, and then resigned to take up law. He attended Texas University and later went into practice in Denton, Texas. He also served three terms as a member of the Texas House of Representatives.

Skiles received his experience in publications while attending NTSTC. He was editor of the Campus Chatter and school yearbook, and also graduate business manager of all student publications.

Woods occupy a larger part of the farms of this country than does any other crop, in fact as much as all the cereal crops combined.

Announcements

DOGS PICKED UP
Owners may identify the following described dogs, picked up for not having license tags by City and College police, at the office of the City of College Station:
1 large male black and blue spotted terrier, white with black head, medium size.
1 yellow Collie female with harness.
LEE NORWOOD
City Marshal.

A number of dogs without license tags have been picked up in the past few days within the city limits of College Station, which includes the A&M College campus by the city marshal and campus police. Owners may arrange to see and identify these dogs by contacting the office of the city manager and the city marshal.

City ordinance requires that owners of dogs pick up without license tags will be penalized $2.50 and will be required to acquire the license in addition.

Dog owners should buy city dog tags without delay. They may be secured from the city office. However, before any license is issued, the dog owner must produce a certificate showing the dog has been vaccinated against rabies.

City officials may destroy a dog that is not called for within 48 hours.

AGGIE

improvement in free style; Bough, Riley, Lea, Armstrong, and Gaines.

The problem now facing Coach Adamson is the lack of enough swimmers. The squad is very thin, and he needs a lot more tankers.

He is asking all those new Frogs, and all those who haven't come out for the team to do it now because he needs them. Backstrokers, breaststrokers, and divers are badly needed and all those interested should see him as soon as possible between five and six in the afternoons at his office at the swimming pool.

The first test for the Aggie team will come during the latter part of March when the Longhorns will invade Aggieland for a dual meet. It is expected that T.C.U. and S.M.U. will enter this year's conference meet as last year it was just a dual meet between the Aggies and Longhorns.
