as to the continuance of the ROTC program and the participation in the program of universities and colleges engaged in the program at the present time.

The present plans are not only to continue ROTC, but to expand it well beyond its enrollment before the war and to strengthen it by raising the courses to the college level. Therefore, the important task that lies ahead of us is apparent, and without the cooperation of your institution and other institutions maintaining ROTC, the program cannot be successfully carried out.

Your institution will be offered the opportunity to continue its affiliation with the War Department in this important phase of our military preparedness, and the purpose of this note is to allay any impressions to the contrary.

As soon as details of the War Department post-war plans, in this respect, have been formulated, you will be promptly advised and your cooperation formally requested.

Faithfully yours,

New Orleans and in army camps throughout the nation, according to McQuillen's files. Nearly every Texas town and city will be the scene of a muster of the A. & M. Cliffs in those areas.

The program here Saturday night is expected to follow the schedule listed below:
Opening of the Muster with the National Anthem played by the Band and introduction of the class of '95; review of history of past Musters and description of present ones; reading of a letter from the President of the Former Students Association, Rufus Peeples, concerning the Corps Muster. Development Fund and Union Building; Roll Call of classes; singing of the Aggie War Hymn by the Corps; address by Lt. Clifton H. Chamberlain, class of '39, who attended the 1942 Muster on Corregidor, was taken prisoner of the Japs and later freed on Luzon; singing of "The Twelfth Man" by the Corps; introduction of a new Aggie song written by Mrs. Ford Munnerlyn, with the Singing Cadets, and Mrs. Munnerlyn accompanying at the piano; Roll Call for the Absent, poem to be read with "The Spirit of Aggieland" as background of music, followed by a prayer; closing ceremony with "Auld Lang Syne" on the organ and singing by the Corps; and playing of the "Aggie War Hymn" by the Band.

The following communication is published as an official action of the governing authorities of the City of College Station, Texas:
The City Council has taken considerable time since the public hearing on your request of December 12, 1944, to investigate all of the restrictions and limitations set forth in the deeds of the property owners in the Oakwood Addition of the City of College Station. We find that certain restrictive and definite restrictions are included in all deeds and we quote as follows:

Sec. 2: Lots 6 to 11 inclusive in Block 1—of said Oakwood Addition shall be used for residential purposes only—
Sec. 9: The above and foregoing restrictions, stipulations and conditions shall be effective until January 1, 1948; but at any time within two years of said date, the then owners of a majority of the square-foot area of the lots in said Addition may, on the basis of one vote for each square foot owned, by majority vote, extend, renew, change, amend, or abolish these restrictions and conditions, as they may wish; provided that such meeting shall be held at the principal offices of the Oakwood Realty Company of College Station.

near the city dump at Massabielle when she was gathering wood for her mother. When the news of Bernadette's Lady spread around Lourdes, her native village, the mayor dragged her before the police, hired a psychiatrist to examine her, and boarded up her already famous healing spring. But this did not shatter Bernadette's faith in her Lady, for she visited the grotto in the rocks for fifteen days. At first only the primitive and the poor believed her, but after a while her priest believed some of her experience. Finally the Roman Catholic Church was convinced that her story was true, and she spent the last years of her life in a convent where she died of a tumor and tuberculosis of the leg. Since Bernadette's death thousands of hopeless cases have visited Lourdes, and many of them have come away completely cured of their afflictions.

The outstanding feature of the elaborate production is the fine acting which was displayed by the cast. The two and one half hour show was often repetitious, and especially toward the end of the plot was rather cautious and drawn out. On the whole the picture will arouse most people's religious emotions, with Jennifer Jones giving a truly remarkable performance in the role of Bernadette.

Another opinion—this time from Molton and Marlio in "Controle of Germany and Japan" is against the partition of Germany. These men believe it would lead to an impoverished world. They also object to destroying industry and think a sufficient controle could be worked out by prohibiting German air transport companies and eliminating electric power industry, these things to be furnished from the outside.

Mrs. M. C. Hughes gave a talk on the re-education of Germany, using a recent copy of "Stars and Stripes" and the book "Re-educating Germany" by Richter, as the source for her material. The re-education process is already underway in Italy and no doubt the same methods will be used in Germany. Mr. Richter presents a plan for the re-education of Hitler's children whereby each child is given a personalized idea of the Good European. In establishing this complete change of viewpoint, he believes no teacher of the Hitler regime should be retained, but rather, the introduction of women teachers throughout the secondary school system. He also thinks the use of dormitories for secondary schools would be helpful. In regard to the schools of higher learning, he thinks there could be a limit to the numbers attending the Universities and technological schools, and that certification of professional men should be controlled. This plan, he thinks, should not be hard to put into effect since the centralized controle of education is already established.

Mrs. R. L. Brown and Mrs. Nat Edmondson then conducted a Guessing Game where "Time" cover pictures were thrown on the screen and members were asked to identify them. Mrs. R. R. Lyle won the gold star for high score and Mrs. L. M. Haupt won a bouquet of yellow roses as a consolation for low score.

During the business meeting, prior to the program, the 1945-46 program was read by Mrs. Roy Snyder and committee reports for the year were given. Mrs. J. T. L. McNew, Mrs. David Ergle, and Mrs. R. C. Terry were taken into the club as new members and Mrs. T. O. Walton, Mrs. E. P. Humbert, and Mrs. G. S. Fraps were declared life members for having been members for twenty years.

The next meeting will be a picnic on May first.

tection and sets out to expose the gang himself.

At Guion Hall Friday and Saturday will be "Take It Big," with Jack Haley, Harriet Hillard, and Mary Beth Hughes, and "Keep 'Em Slugging" with the Dead End Kids. The first picture is about an actor who inherits a run-down dude ranch and, with the help of a group of entertainers, rehabilitates the place.

The second feature will be the same old Dead End Kids plot—fights, jams, and a happy ending.

Lowdown: Could be better.

Sunday, at the Campus, "Tall In The Saddle" will be playing. Starring John Wayne and Ella Raines, this is the story of a fighting cowboy who attempts to solve the murder of a rancher. He becomes involved in two fights, a three-cornered love affair, and a second murder for which he is blamed. A stagecoach driver helps him find the real killer and the cowboy makes his decision regarding which woman he'll marry.

Lowdown: A good pic—see it.

Opportunity!
An unusual opportunity for the right man. I have just bought 200 acres of extra good land in four tracts. One tract is 12 miles north of San Antonio, 600 feet east of Austin-San Antonio Highway, on a gravel road, electricity, well of good artesian water, pumping capacity 200 gallons a minute, pump being installed. Second—a forty acre tract, all plowed, no Johnson Grass, 400 feet away. Third—fifty acre tract, six miles farther north, same Highway, all plowed and 90 acres adjoining all plowed, two wells, one house. Artesian water at 200 feet. I want a junior partner, salary and part of income. No money required. Must be smart, willing to work and country raised. I am in active medical practice in San Antonio, but was country raised with ten years experience as commercial irrigation gardener, culture and sales. Nine years of university education.

A Splendid Opportunity for the Right Man. Must Act Now. No Money Required. You Can Begin Now and Finish School Later.
