Program Announced For Musical Tea To Be Held Sunday

Local D. A. R. Chapter Holds April Meeting

La Villita Chapter, D. A. R., held their April meeting at the home of Mrs. L. L. Fouraker on Thursday evening, April 19. After the committee reports, the first reading of the by-laws was made by Mrs. S. W. Bilsing, regent. Plans were formulated for a Yearbook, and Mrs. Fouraker was appointed to make arrangements for a cover.

A letter was read from Mrs. Frederick Burt Ingram, State Regent, commending the chapter on its rapid increase in membership and enclosing a check as a reward for a newly organized chapter.

Several names were presented for membership. Names of the boys on the D. A. R. sponsored L. C. I. boat assigned to the chapter were given to members who had not already received them. Letters, birthday greetings, cookies, phonograph records, and books are being sent to these boys. A beautiful arrangement of sweetheart roses and iris adorned the living room where the meeting was held, and a basket of garden flowers in pastel colors added to the attractiveness of the table from which the delicious refreshments were served.

Man, Your Manners

By I. Sherwood

Only the best informed of the younger generation would know just what constitutes a "date", but from what we read it is a broader term than "social engagement." "Date" may be a noun of meaning or a verb of great importance; it may be anything from a few minutes at the hamburger stand, to the most formal of dances; it may be the term for a man or girl whom one is "dating", as well as the occasion itself.
Dances furnish an important part of "dating" here at A. & M. Some young people rate their popularity by the number of "dates" they have but quality of

The following communication is published as an official action of the governing authorities of the City of College Station, Texas:
The City Council has taken considerable time since the public hearing on your request of December 12, 1944, to investigate all of the restrictions and limitations set forth in the deeds of the property owners in the Oakwood Addition of the City of College Station. We find that certain positive and definite restrictions are included in all deeds and we quote as follows:
Sec. 2: "Lots 6 to 11, inclusive in Block 1—of said Oakwood Addition shall be used for residential purposes only."
Sec. 3: "The above and foregoing restrictions, stipulations and conditions shall be effective until January 1, 1948; but at any time within two years of said date, the then owners of a majority of the square-foot area of the lots in said Addition may, on the basis of one vote for each square foot owned, by majority vote, extend, renew, change, amend, or abolish these restrictions and conditions, as they may wish; provided that such meeting shall be held at the principal offices of the Oakwood Realty Company of College Station."
We also quote from Section 17 of Ordinance No. 38, entitled Zoning Ordinance: "and where the provision of such easements, covenants or laws shall not be interfered with by any of the provisions of this ordinance."
The Council accepts the restrictions set forth in the deeds to property owners of the Oakwood Addition as covenants entered into between themselves and the realtors. They further accept these covenants as imposing greater restrictions in the Oakwood Addition than does the Zoning Ordinance. In view of these facts the Council has no alternative other than to deny the petition.
It is further ordered by the Council that a copy of this action be published in the Battalion at the earliest possible date. Passed and approved by the City Council of College Station, Texas, April 12, 1945.
Ernest Langford, Mayor.

THE LOWDOWN ON CAMPUS DISTRACTIONS

By J. L. Everett

At the Palace Thursday through Saturday is showing "Winged Victory," starring Sgt. Mark Daniels and Pvt. Lon McAllister. This is a screen adaptation of the stage play with the original military cast. It tells the story of a crew of men from the time they become air corps cadets to their flights in their plane called the "Winged Victory."

Lowdown: Good pic!
"Bathing Beauty," starring Red

Skelton, Esther Williams, and Basil Rathbone, will be playing at Guion Hall for the last time Thursday. This picture is a musical with two big name bands, 24 bathing beauties, songs galore, all against a girl's college background. It's really a knock-out picture with lots of women.

Lowdown: Any Aggie will eat this up!

Thursday at the Campus will be the final showing of "Bride By Mistake." A comedy depicting the romance of an air corps veteran, home for a rest cure, and a girl with millions. The picture stars Alan Marshall and Marsha Hunt.

Lowdown: Worth seeing.

The weekly double feature will play at Guion Hall Friday and Saturday. The first show, "Mr. Big," with Donald O'Connor, mainly is singing and dancing. The second feature is "The Great Moment," starring Joel McCrea, Betty Field, and Harry Carey. This is the story of W. T. G. Morton, the doctor who discovered ether as an anaesthetic.

At the Campus Friday and Saturday will be the double feature, "Gildersleeve's Ghost," and "Cobra Woman." The first feature stars Harold Peary and Marion Martin and takes up the story of an invisible woman, a gorilla, spooks, and a mad scientist, mixed up in a haunted house. The second show is "Cobra Woman," starring Maria Montez and Jon Hall. It is the story of twin sisters, one of whom is the cruel ruler of Cobra Island. It's the same old Montez stuff—but what stuff!

Lowdown: See this first.

"Pin-Up Girl" will play at Guion Hall Sunday. The picture stars Betty Grable and lots of gals with beautiful "gams." A very entertaining picture with lots of song and dance numbers.

Lowdown: No Aggie will miss this!

"None But the Lonely Heart," starring Cary Grant and Ethel Barrymore, is the dramatic story of a young man who, in striving to raise himself and his mother from dire poverty, becomes involved with a gang of thieves. The course he takes results in tragedy for himself and death for his mother. Ultimately he realizes the futility of it all and starts out anew.

Lowdown: Good Sunday entertainment.
