

THE LOWDOWN ON CAMPUS DISTRACTIONS

By J. E. Everett
At the Palace Thursday through unday "Keys To The Kingdom" ill be playing. This picture stars regory Peck and Thomas Mit-nell. "Keys To The Kingdom" is th Century-Fox's screen version A. J. Cronin's dramatic novel Keys To The Kingdom". Gregory

Peck plays the lead as the ascetic priest who takes his missionary responsibilities seriously. Much of the story is laid in China.

LOWDOWN: A very good picture.

"So Proudly We Hail" will be playing at the Guion Hall for the last time Thursday. With an all-star cast, this picture tells of a group of Army nurses on Corregidor during the first phases of our war with Japan. One of these nurses, Claudette Colbert, falls in love with an American officer and collapses into a stupor when she learns he is killed on Mindanao.
She does not recover from the stupor until she is returned to the United States.

LOWDOWN: A fair picture.

Playing for the last time Thursday at the Campus will be "Princess and The Pirate", starring Bob Hope and Virginia Mayo. The picture is a comedy adventure story in technicolor, giving a new twist to the old pirate's tale. Bob Hope, as a phoney pirate, is pitted against a stormy ocean and a villainous buccaneer. Hope finds romance with a runaway princess, experiences a savage battle with brigands and covers himself with glory.

LOWDOWN: See it!!!

The double feature playing at Guion Hall Friday and Saturday will be "Forest Rangers" and "Roger Touhy." The latter feature stars Preston Foster, Victor McLaglen, and Lois Andrews. The picture is the biography of one of the last gangster members of Chicago's lawless era. The former picture stars Fred MacMurray, Paulette Goddard, and Susan Hayward. This picture tells the story of a forest ranger who falls in love with a city girl and of the local belle's jealousy. There are also some very good scenes of a forest fire.

LOWDOWN: A good program—see it!!

On at the Campus Friday and Saturday is the double feature "Passport to Destiny" and "Crazy House". The first picture stars Elsa Lanchester and Gordon Oliver. The show relates the adventures of a girl believing she is guided by the "magic eye" of an English scrubwoman and pre-

Aggies Enjoy Corps Ball After Muster Ceremony

Singing Cadets Given
Awards at Cafe Party

Sunday, March 29, the Singing Cadets held their annual banquet at Bill Williams Cafe in Houston.
After a dinner of fried chicken the cadets had an informal program of songs and recitations and awards were made by their director, Bill Turner. The banquet came as a climax to the club's last trip of the season which included performances at the Sam Houston Teachers College and the Houston Stage Canteen. For their performance at the State Canteen the group was given a formal citation as an award for the entertainment of service men there.

Cadets receiving keys for two semesters of membership in the club were: Gilbert Carmichael, David Mitchell, Noble Atkins, Earl Kirk, Robert Stinson, Lynn Grip-on, Morgan Hampton, William Harper, Fred Buenostro and Lynn Weichert. Special awards for four semesters or more of membership were made to Charley West and Burl Ervin.
