Campus Security Catches Thieves

A warning that undesirable, dope addicts, petty thieves and jailbirds have been known to frequent the campus and community posing as ex-servicemen was issued this week by the office of campus security.

Two drug addicts appeared on the campus Monday night, it was stated, and posing as discharged servicemen sought to obtain money with which to buy drugs.

Petty thieving, looting and begging is the lot of such characters. Good actors, they play on the sympathy of a public serviceman conscious.

Guion Announces New Tuesday Plan

"Two for the price of one" describes the new Tuesday "family night" programs at Guion Hall Theater, according to an announcement from the management.

Attendance at Guion Hall has steadily increased and if interest continues to manifest itself there is some chance that plans for improving the seating and general atmosphere of the theater may materialize.

Guion presently is operating on shows at 1:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday and continuous shows from 1:00 on Saturday and Sunday.

Dames Club Meets For Reorganization

Former members of the A&M Dames Club met Monday, October 22, to discuss the possibilities of reorganizing the club.

The organization enjoyed great success in former years, but was disbanded because of tire and gasoline shortage. Now that our national emergency is over, the way is again clear for a similar club.

Book Review Slated For Brazos Aggies

Mrs. Edna B. Woods, reader's advisor for the Texas A. & M. Library, will review Ernie Pyle's book, Brave Men, before the October meeting of the Brazos County A. & M. Club.

Similar reviews of Brave Men and other currently popular books have been given by Mrs. Woods before service clubs and other organizations in this section.

Wives of Brazos County A. & M. Club members are invited to attend the meeting, President Bill Carmichael announced.

There also will be a showing of motion pictures of a football game the Aggies played this year, but just which game this will be has not been announced.

Hillel Club Meets

The Hillel Club will hold a social meeting Sunday, October 28, in the Sbisal Lounge at 7:15. A party in honor of Ed Daniels' birthday will be held at that time.

Brother, Don't Spare a Dime—You'll Need It

"Where were you on the weekend of November 9-10," may be a difficult question to answer as event after event adds up for inclusion in what promises to be one of the outstanding weekends of entertainment yet offered on the campus.

Student Activities has just announced the second Town Hall attraction for the evening of Friday, November 9th.

Girls and super-girls will be included in the weekend if the invitation extended the beauties of the TSCW yearbook is accepted and they appear on the campus to be judged by the entire corps.

If that isn't enough to cop the banner the second all-corps dance will be staged on Saturday night, November 10th from 9 to 12.

Brother, don't spare a dime. You'll need it for the fun.

Martin Elected Fish President

The Freshman class held its first meeting Tuesday night in the Assembly Hall. Eli Barker, Cadet Colonel of the Aggie Corps, had charge of this meeting.

William E. Martin from Dallas and B Battery Field Artillery was elected president. Other officers elected were Nathaniel R. Leatherwood of C Company Infantry.

All are second semester freshmen. The meeting was concluded by talks by the newly elected officers.

Church Women Plan Communion Day Tea

A tea commemorating World Communion Day will be held by the College Station Council of Church Women at 3:30 p.m. Monday, October 29, at the Y.M.C.A.

Mrs. J. C. Reed of Houston will speak on "Woman's Place in a Peacetime World" and will also bring a message from Mrs. Harper Sibley, national president of the Council of Church Women.

After the program all College Station and Bryan ministers and their wives will form a receiving line to meet the people of the community.

Mrs. C. M. Lyman is general chairman of the council, and Mrs. Frank G. Anderson is co-chairman.

CONFERENCE

The Board offices are open from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on Saturday.

During the convention, persons attending will be identified by special convention badges.

but services will not be open to the general public because of limited space. Promise of a record for outside attendance is great.

A charge of 50¢ per person will be made for all visitors eating in the mess hall Saturday. This charge is made because of the large crowd expected for the Baylor game.
