Man, Your Manners

By I. Sherwood

Merry Christmas and a happy holiday season!

When you do your last minute Christmas shopping, you might add a box or two of candy and use one as a courtesy gift to your girl's mother. It will help to make you popular with her—she is really the one who helps to make your visits pleasant; the other box of candy would be a nice gift for your mother.

We have never heard of a woman who didn't love flowers, so if you are at a loss to know what to give your Aunt Harriet, give her flowers.

In the between days of Christmas and New Year, you would be wise if you would make a list of those who sent you greeting cards; it will help next year when you send your greetings in return.

If you don't forget to write your thank-you notes, you won't have to suffer a guilty conscience in 1946.

WE EXTEND to the Aggie Corps and our many other friends on the A. & M. Campus

OUR HEARTY WISHES for a

MERRY CHRISTMAS and
HAPPY NEW YEAR
