AMVA PLANS DANCE; HEARS DR. BOYD

Dr. Charlie Boyd, a meat inspector for the city of Houston, explained the duties of a veterinarian in city health work in a talk to the Jr. AMVA chapter here Wednesday night in the amphitheatre of the Veterinary Hospital. Dr. Boyd is a '45 graduate of the A. & M. Veterinary School.

The chapter will hold the annual AMV dance on April 23, according to plans presented at the meeting.

Chas. Crabtree Elected Head of Singing Cadets

Charles Crabtree was elected president of the A. & M. Singing Cadets at their tri-annual election meeting. Fount Ray is vice-president; Charles (Burr) Thoma is secretary. Bob Featherwood was named music librarian and John Smith publicity chairman.

The Singing Cadets are anxious to hear from students who like to sing, but who have been too bashful to come forward and join the group. By its nature, the membership of the choir is not rigorously limited, and there is room for many more members.
