Official Notices

OFFICE OF DEAN OF MEN

Memorandum No. 26: Subject: Care of Dormitory Rooms and Apartment.

To: Residents of Dormitories No. 14, 17, Walton and Hart Halls.

It has come to the attention of this office that individuals housed in Dormitories No. 14, 17, Walton and Hart Halls have painted the walls of their rooms, or have made other changes of a permanent nature. Since the removal of such paint or restoration of the rooms to their original condition involves considerable cost and labor to the College such practices must be prohibited.

Effective February 23, 1946 no permanent changes or additions may be made in dormitory rooms or apartments without written approval of the Dean of Men. Violators of this necessary ruling will be required to pay the cost of restoration of the quarters to their original condition.

J. W. ROLLINS, Dean of Men. W. R. HORSLEY, Vice-Director Student Affairs.

March 1, is the deadline for filing applications for degrees to be conferred at the end of the current semester. This deadline applies to both graduate and undergraduate students. Those students who have not already done so should make formal application in the Registrar's Office immediately.

H. L. HEATON, Registrar.

Lucrecia Sarria Scores Hit With Latin-American Songs

By Allen Self

Lyric, rather than coloratura, would better describe the soprano voice of Lucrecia Sarria, who performed Thursday night in Guion Hall, accompanied by Ernst Hoffmann, director of the Houston Symphony, under the sponsorship of the Singing Cadets. Her singing renditions of the lilting, expressive compositions of Grever, Benedict, and Granados were much better received by the audience than her attempts at dramatic arias.

What Miss Sarria lacked in volume, vibrato, and tonal quality in the upper register, she certainly compensated for in sincerity, emotion, and tender expression in Chopin's "Tristesse," in the light and entertaining "The Gypsy and the Bird," by Benedict, and in the well known Spanish number "Muñequita Linda" by Grever. The latter number is the source of the recently popular tune "Yo Te Quiero Mucho."

Mrs. C. H. Groneman, a local violinist possessing excellent technique, provided the violin obbligato to Mozart's "Il Re Pastore." Mr. R. Kepner, first flutist with the Houston Symphony, accompanied Miss Sarria with an obbligato in four other numbers.

A rather limited but highly appreciative audience enjoyed Miss Sarria's singing so much that they demanded several encores, among them "With a Song in My Heart" and the ever popular "Ciribiribin." Miss Sarria acted as her own accompanist for the final encore, and treated her hearers to another of her Spanish songs.

Sorghum Research Will Be Aided by New Grant

Expansion of grain sorghum research by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station is being made possible through a grant of $2,000 from the Midwest Research Institute of Kansas City. C. H. McDowell, acting director of the station, announced this program would be under the leadership of R. E.

C. B. Ray Returns As Economist

After completing two years of active wartime service with the United States Navy, C. B. Ray will return to the headquarters staff of the A. and M. College Extension Service as economist in marketing today, Director Ide P. Trotter has announced. In that capacity he will work with other staff economic specialists and supply information to specialists engaged in developing better marketing methods for agricultural products.

Mr. Ray entered the navy in February, 1944, and was cleared through the separation center at Camp Wallace on February 20, last. Native of Childress County, he was graduated with the B. A. degree in dairy husbandry at the A. & M. College of Texas in 1931. In 1936 he obtained the M. A. degree in agronomy from his Alma Mater, serving for a few months afterward as cow tester in west Texas for the Extension Service.

Karper who is in charge of the Station's grain sorghum investigations.

The grant will further assist the Station, McDowell said, in studies based on the development of new grain sorghum varieties with possible industrial uses, and determination of physiological changes in varieties as affected by plant hormones.

The man who was lucky in love is the bachelor.
