

Aggie Cindermen Leave for Laredo Meet

Coach Anderson Hopes for Good Fishing Weather at Border Meet

By Marion Pugh
Battalion Sports Editor

When Col. Frank Anderson was questioned about his Aggie track team, and about the possibilities of a few first places at the Border Olympics being held at Laredo today and tomorrow, he answered a little like the fisherman. "If the water is right," said Colonel Andy, "the bait good, the fish hungry, and I'm lucky—could catch one."

Nevertheless, the Aggies are moving down on the border ready for anything. In time trials the other day, the thinly clad didn't look bad, and yet there was no call for the fire department to simmer down the cinders.

Two Laredo lads showing their wares during the trials were Bill Swisher and Alexander Ortiz. Swisher is a comer, according to Coach Anderson, and is pegged for action in the 440-yard relay and possibly in the 100-yard dash. Ortiz is the more durable of the two and runs in the 440-yard dash
