

Fourteen Corps Wrestling Champions In Class A and B Decided Last Night

Fourteen corps wrestling champions, eight freshmen and six upperclassmen, were crowned last night in DeWare Field House. The matches were all fast and furious with clean holds, plenty of thuds and grunts and groans. Most of the matches were as even as possible, especially in the heavier classes.

The winners:
Class A
 139 lb.—John, No. 15 over McKenzie, A Inf.
 149 lb.—Golden, A Inf. over Hardin, C F.A., points.
 159 lb.—Hines, D F.A. over Koenig, A F.A., default.
 169 lb.—Stites, C F.A. over Eckert, H Inf., points.
 179 lb.—Bowden, D Inf. over Schumack, Mitchell, points.
Class B
 119 lb.—Allen, A Inf. over Davis, C Inf., pin.
 129 lb.—Gonzales, C Cav. over

Futrell, D F.A., pin.
 139 lb.—Garner, H Inf. over Simpson, A Inf., pin.
 149 lb.—Bird, A Inf. over Hodges, A Cav., pin.
 159 lb.—Irby, B Cav. over Moran, D Cav., pin.

 Spike White, the man who was on the floor more than any of the wrestlers, stated that he hoped there would be as great, if not greater, turnout for the boxing finals Fite-Nite, which will be March 25.

Mistaken Identity Gums Up Freshman Caper at Mess Hall

"Mr. Barker, you sure are cute!" Thus spake a fish of unknown origin to the Cadet Colonel at the Corps Staff Table last Friday noon. But that ain't all... the fish turned to L. B. Wardlaw, and said to that noble personage, "Mr. Henkhaus, you're a little bit cute, too!" After this bit of information, the freshman looked at everyone, and finally his eyes rested on Henkhaus, who sits between Eli and Porky. Their eyes met, the fish realized what he had done, and amidst gales of laughter from everybody (except Wardlaw, and Henkhaus, who didn't think it a bit humorous) the first year kay-det turned and fled.

Aggie Nine to Open '46 Season This Week-End

By Marion "Dookie" Pugh
 Battalion Sports Editor

The Texas A. & M. baseball team journeys to Georgetown today to take on Southwestern University in a two-game series today and tomorrow. This is the first game of the season for the Aggies, and it should give a fair idea of how the Dimmittmen will stack up in conference competition.

On paper, the Aggies have a potentially strong team, but the pitching staff is the big question. If this department comes through, the Ags will be tough to handle. Led by "Snookie" Pressly, "Peck" Vass, and "Tex" Thornton, there is plenty of slugging power around that initial plate.

In the first game Johnnie Shufford will get the call from Coach Dimmitt as the starting pitcher. Shufford will work the first three innings, and then "Hub" Moon will take over for three; after him comes Elmer Purtle, an Arkansas boy, who will work the final trio. Both Shufford and Moon are left handers.

In the second game, to be played Saturday, Earl Beesley, who won six and lost one for Luke Field last year, will get the starting nod, and Henry Lindsley and Charlie Newman will get the next calls respectively.

The starting lineup for the first game will look like this: Edwin Arnold, catcher; Shufford, pitcher; Bill Bradley, first base; "Tex" Thornton, second base; "Snookie" Pressly, third base; "Cotton" Lindloff, shortstop; "Peck" Vass, left field; "Stubby" Matthews, center-field; and Bill Willingham, right field. This is not the batting order.

Since March 1 the squad has been working every afternoon and appears to be rounding into shape. One or two things have happened which have hurt the club to some extent. Pitchers Jim Love, Charlie Smith and Walt Bardwell are off the list. Love, however, is not ill. He was drafted. Smith had an appendectomy and Bardwell is in the hospital with a touch of the flu.

Last Saturday Coach Dimmitt ordered an intra-squad game which ended in a 4-4 deadlock. Each hurler went three innings.

Below is a schedule of the season's games for the Aggies. Clip it out and tack it in a handy place where you will be able to keep up with the Aggies as they move along into the season.
