Official Notices

OFFICE OF DEAN OF MEN
Memorandum No. 31
Subject: Inspections by House-Masters.
To: All Non-Military Students.

1. In order to maintain an accurate record on the physical condition of dormitories and dormitory equipment it will be necessary for each house-master to make a periodical inspection. This, of course, will necessitate his entering each room at one time or another.

2. We are advising you of this now so that you will understand the reason for this inspection. Your cooperation with your house-master in this matter will be appreciated.

J. W. ROLLINS,
Dean of Men

Aggies Invade Denton For Redbud Festival at T.S.C.W.

Well, back again after a week's lapse. Really, it wasn't the "lost week-end" in the sense you're thinking . . . but it was, however, a lost week. Everything seems to happen at once and you don't know whether you're coming or going. This past week, as you all well know, was Charm week, and all these huge activities and such made this past one quite a busy week.

A fitting climax to it was the crowning of the Redbud Queen.

INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION CLUB MEETS THURSDAY

A regular meeting of the Industrial Education Club will be held Thursday, March 21, at 7:30 p.m. After the business meeting a colored picture of the Grand Canyon will be shown.

The word "planet," which means "wanderer" was given to the earth by the Greeks to distinguish our globe from other astral bodies which they viewed as "fixed stars."

Guess there isn't very much to tell you Aggies about it, though, as from this angle it looked as if entire A&M had invaded the campus. Gosh, it was nice to see so many of you up this way for the affair. It reminded me of what they told me TSCW-Aggie weekends were like before the war.

For the benefit of those of you who didn't get to come up for the dance and coronation of the Queen I'll do some explaining. Each year a festival is held in honor of spring and the redbuds, which we call the Redbud Festival. At this time one hundred princesses are selected as the most charming, and from these princesses is chosen a queen to reign. This year, the lovely Katherine Reeve, blonde junior from Menard, Texas, reigned as Queen of the Redbuds. Miss Reeve also was chosen in assembly Thursday as posture queen, an honor she won last year, too.

Another big reason this week-end was so important . . . a group of you Aggies were up here to judge a Cotton Ball Queen. Congratulations to Jeannette Hudson, senior from Ola, Ark., who was chosen. Miss Hudson, I understand, will reign as Cotton Ball Queen in April.

Spring seems to be here almost at last, and with it is coming all sorts of promising fun and plans. In the recent elections Mahala Menefee won student president for next year with Javonne Jewett, vice-president; Mary Louise Bryant, secretary; Phyllis McCarthy, treasurer; Bonnie Matthews, finance chairman; Martha Jean Leslie, Lass-O editor; Gloria Echols, Daedalian Yearbook editor; Dorothy Todd, Quarterly editor; Pat Anderson, Quarterly literary editor, and Marjorie York, Women's Recreation Association president.

TSCW lament:
Spring has sprung
The grass has riz
We wonder where
All the boys is!
Sue Jones,
TSCW Correspondent.

Junior STRIPES Ahoy
Just wait 'til you see yourself in this dream! Stripes aplenty—coming down from that so different . . . so smart shoulder line. And you'll love the way the smooth fitting jacket with its swinging row of buttons sets off your tiny waist. That's for you—in $10<sup>95</sup> sizes 9 to 15.
