

Aggies Outlast TCU, Meet Bears Tuesday

Beesley Slated To Face Baylor

The Texas A. & M. baseball team will journey to Baylor tomorrow to play their third game on the Southwest Conference schedule. Earl Beesley is expected to start on the mound for the Aggies after winning two from the T.C.U. Horned Frogs last week.

Diamond fans are expecting to use tomorrow's game as a basis for comparing the Aggies' strength with that of Texas university. The Longhorns defeated the Bruins in both games of a series last Thursday and Friday 7-6 and 5-1, and are considered as the principal stumbling block in the Aggies' bid

AGGIE SUBS BEAT AUSTIN NINE, 13-0

Houston's Stephen F. Austin high school baseball team dropped its game to the Texas Aggie B team here Saturday afternoon, 13-0 with Billy Hill, Bill Warriar and Walter Deaken on the mound for the losers. Walt Bardwell and Al Newman pitched for the Aggies allowing six hits while the Aggies collected 13 off the opposing trio.

For the Aggies Zeke Strange and De Lafosse both tripled while Jack Watson, Russ Mays and Bill Hartley doubled.

For the Conference crown. Tuesday's contest at Waco is a one-game stand.

Hub Moon Drives in Winning Tally After Frogs Tie Up Hectic Contest

The Texas Aggie baseball nine stayed in the Southwest Conference running Friday afternoon as they defeated the T. C. U. Horned Frogs 18-17 in as wild a diamond contest as has been seen on Kyle Field in many years.

Scorekeepers for the game added up a total of 25 walks, 13 errors, 25 hits, 35 runs, one hit batsman, and three runs scored on wild pitches and passed balls. Climax of the free-scoring fracas came when the Horned Frogs went into the first of the ninth trailing by seven runs and managed to tie up the ball game. In the last inning Hub Moon cracked out his fifth hit of the day to score Bob Little, who was pinch running for Henry Lindsey, who was pinch hitting for Al Rettig.

Both teams used up five pitchers. Newman started for the Aggies and was succeeded in order by Bardwell, Shuford, and Purtle. Earl Beesley, who had pitched a one-hit game on the previous day, was called in to relieve in the ninth. Ditto, D. Thompson, P. Thompson, Noah, and Conrad hurled for the Toads.

Moon was the slugger for the day with five hits in seven official trips, one a homer with one aboard. Peck Vass and Julian Pressley also hit for homers and Ed Arnold bounced one over the fence for a double. For the Frogs Gus Bierman hit safely three times out of three, and received three free passes.
