Official Notices

ATTENTION OF ALL STUDENTS: Copies of the 22nd edition of the College Regulations have been made available to all students through the Student Affairs Office.

The Regulations are provided as a guide to the student in academic matters, student activities, and student life and each student should inform himself on them. Special attention is directed to the following paragraphs:

Par. 17 covering class absences which can be "authorized."

Par. 31 covering classification.
Par. 19 (4) covering grades to be given for courses dropped late in a semester.

Par. 21 under which a student's grade-point-ratio is lowered by grades of F and WF. This affects both the student's classification and the requirements for graduation.
