

A Infantry Repeats As Intramural Winner

Final Volleyball Game With C Battery Decides Possession of Athletic Flag

Infantry Take Last Match 15-12, 12-15, 15-8

A Company Infantry, showing all the skill, coordination, and spirit that goes to make up an intramural championship team, came through with a win in the volleyball finals Tuesday evening to cinch the Intramural Flag for the second straight semester.

The winning company, commanded by Cadet Captain Orville Baker, was led by Clifford Mast, athletic officer.

This game was particularly important because had their opponents, C Field Artillery, won, they would have won the flag instead of A Company. A Company took the first game by a close score of 15-12, but C Battery came back strong in the second one to win 15-12. With the whole intramural championship resting on the third game, A Company really put the pressure on, winning it 15-8.

Little Ray Golden and Stan Wyble did a good job at setting up the ball for A Company's ace spikers, Fergus and Presnal. Loffer and Kellar also played good ball for the winners.

C Battery's team, composed of Horner, Leberman, Schmidt, Davis, Tittle and Hughes, all deserve credit for playing a swell game, with Schmidt and Davis being the standouts.

Intramural Heads Close Season With Barbecue

My way of thanking the men who made the intramural athletic program such a success this past year, a barbecue supper was given Monday night at Cashion Cabin by the Physical Education department.

Barbecue, potato salad, onions, beans, coffee, and tea were expedited by Spike White and served to the gathering.

Voicing words of appreciation were W. L. Penberthy, Spike White, President Gilchrist, Dean Barlow, Dean T. D. Brooks, Joe Skiles, Roy Bucek, Breezy Breazeale and Jo-Jo White, graduating intramural managers, Fritz Hensel, Sam Label and Wally Beck expressed their thanks to all who were connected with the intramural program.

Organization intramural athletic officers were also present.

The All-Conference team picked by Coach Lil Dimmitt would be a very powerful one but I can not agree with him wholeheartedly on some of his choices. His men are undoubtedly good but I think he overlooked some excellent men when he made his choices.

For catcher I would pick Tom Chandler of Baylor on the basis of his hitting and fielding over O'Reagan's. For center field Bob Ferguson is the outstanding player in the Conference. He is batting .326 and his fielding is very good. He made two errors for the season against one for Bell, but the margin on his batting out-weighed Bell's fielding margin.

For the hot corner I can not understand a team that leaves the conference's leading hitter on the bench. Jackson is weak on the fielding side of the ledger, but his .460 batting average is enough in his favor to assure him a berth on any All-Conference team. To leave such a powerful hitter off a team would be a very fatal mistake. Jackson made the Associated Press All Conference team last year while playing for the Horned Frogs with a batting average of better than .350 and I think he has earned the berth again this year with his .460 for the Teasippers. If Jackson makes the team again this season he and Kelty Powell, of Rice, will be the only two year men for the season.

Three Aggies on Coach Dimmitt's All-SW Conference Baseball Squad

Lil Dimmitt, head baseball coach, has announced his 1946 all-Conference baseball team, picked from the men who had dealt the Aggies the most trouble for the season. Lil placed three Aggies on his team.

The three Aggies were Hub Moon, Earl Beesley, and Julian Pressley. In addition to the three Aggies Lil's team is composed of four Teasippers, two men from Rice, and one each from TCU, SMU, and Baylor.

Three men on this conference team are under the surveillance of the big league scouts. Nearly every scout in the area has his eye on Bishop from Rice. It is not for his pitching, however, but for his power with the stick.

Dimmitt's team as follows:

- Catchers
 Jack O'Reagan Tu
 Harry Mullins TCU
- Pitchers
 Bobby Layne Tu
 Earl Beesley A & M
 Bill Bishop Rice
- 1b—Kelty Powell Rice
 2B—Jack Redding Baylor
 3B—Julian Pressley A. & M.
 SS—Chick Zomleffer Tu
 LF—Hobbs Williams Tu
 RF—Hub Moon A. & M.
 CF—Al Bell SMU

Army Pilots Offered Chance to Fly Again In Reserve Corps

Former army pilots who are itching to fly again, as members of the Officers Reserve Corps, are urged to get in touch with the Air Power Committee, Houston Chamber of Commerce.

The army is planning to center reserve activity for this district at Ellington Field in Houston. If enough pilots are registered from A. & M., it may be possible to get in flight time at Easterwood Field, according to an army spokesman.
