Bruce, A. D. "Dave" Jr., Senior, B. & A.; Temple
Coolidge, Joel B., Senior, LA; Houston
Howard, Eugene F. Jr., Senior, Business; El Paso
L'Hommedieu, Louis P., Junior, M. E.; Port Arthur
L'Hommedieu is the non-military, non-vet student on the council.
- Student Council
(This council will discuss and solve problems pertaining to both the cadet corps and the non-military group.)
Manley, Darrell F., Senior, E. E.; Harlingen
- Poole, John T., Sophomore, Ind. Ed.; Port Arthur
Buntyn, Edward C., Junior, Ag. Eco.; Temple
Shanks, Rex, Senior, Chem. Eng.; Laredo
- Exchange Store Committee
(This council shall decide policies for operating the Exchange Store in all matters such as stock, profits, profit-sharing, handling of supplies, prices, method of operation, and the treatment of student customers.)
Finch, N. E., Senior, M. E.; St. Charles, Missouri
Matula, A. J. Jr., Sophomore, LA; Houston
Courtade, E. D., Freshman, Hort.; Waco
- Hospital Committee
(The Hospital committee will work in cooperation with the Hospital staff in devising sound operational procedure and in establishing logical policies. Also the committee will make recommendations on matters that enable the Hospital to render more effective and efficient service to students requiring medication or needing examinations.)
Hord, E. D., Freshman, Ag. Ed.; Winters
Robards, H. E., Senior, Ch.E.; Hermosillo, Mexico

Sooner Club Elects, Plans Xmas Affair

At a special meeting of the A. & M. Sooner Club, held Thursday, October 31, Edmund F. Bard, a senior CE student from Tulsa, was elected president. C. W. Fleisher was chosen vice-president; Joe Wirsching, secretary; and Robert L. Bowman was elected social committee chairman.

This all-Oklahoma group discussed plans for the approaching Christmas party to be held during the holidays. Regular meetings are held on the first and third Thursdays of each month in room 206 of the Academic Building.

Lavaca County Club

On Tuesday evening, October 22, the Lavaca County A. & M. Club held its fourth meeting of the year to make preparations for the Christmas dance. It was decided to hold the dance in Hallettsville's Recreation Hall on Christmas night, and the Aggieband Orchestra will furnish the music.

Committees for publicity and decorations were appointed for the annual event.

Wilcox Meets With Teachers Committee

G. B. Wilcox, head of the A. & M. Education and Psychology department, recently attended a meeting of the legislative committee of the Texas State Teachers Association with Governor-elect Beauford Jester in Dallas and Fort Worth.

BRAZOS CLUB

B. Winstead, and finance and tickets, Mike Barron. Mr. McNew announced he would call a meeting of committee chairmen at an early date to select the night for the banquet and to work out necessary details.

C. N. Hielscher was elected first vice-president of the club, replacing Fred Cavitt who asked to be relieved of the duties of this office. Mr. Cavitt is now a director of the club.

Other proceedings included: passage of a resolution favoring membership cards for club members in good standing; leaving to the club's board of directors the matter of making the fiscal year correspond with the calendar year; appointment of Mit Dansby to represent the club in work with the committee set up to provide suitable recognition to the memory of the war dead from Brazos county, and short talks by E. E. McQuillen, W. N. Colson and P. L. Downs, Jr. Holloway Hughes won the attendance prize.

Official Notices

Each candidate for the degree of Master of Science or Master of Education who expects to complete his requirements for his degree in the current semester should file a complete course of study, thesis project (if a Master of Science degree), and notice of expectation to complete, with the Dean of the Graduate School without delay.

These, approved by the head of the presented to the Dean of the Graduate School on or before January 3, 1947.

In view of the fact that some students and instructors have overlooked the requirement that grades of incomplete must be made up by the end of the first month of the student's succeeding semester in college, the time for making up incomplete grades has been extended to November 9, 1946. If incomplete grades are not made up by this date, the final grade shall be an "F", and the student must repeat the course in order to receive credit, unless for a good reason an extension of time is granted on petition.

F. C. Bolton, Dean.

Foods Group Holds Mexican Program

The Foods Group of the Campus Social Club met on Friday afternoon, November 1, in the home of Mrs. E. B. Reynolds. Mexican cookery was the theme for the day, and after a short talk by Mrs. Robert Cain, chairman, Mrs. H. E. Hampton demonstrated the making of tamales.

This was followed by a demonstration of two types of enchiladas by Mrs. Cain and Mrs. Krezdorn. A typical Mexican dinner was served to 37 ladies present.

The board was decorated with autumn flowers and small Mexican figures. Serving as hostesses for the program were Mesdames E. B. Reynolds, H. E. Hampton, W. E. Morgan, W. B. Langford, and P. G. Murdoch, who were dressed in colorful Mexican costumes.

SALUTE Offers FREE to ALL STUDENT VETERANS

TODAY Enter This Easy Contest That Gives You WELCOME CASH QUICK!

How would you like to receive $250.00 in cash just for telling about your experiences as a student veteran? That's all there is to it! SALUTE—the civilian magazine for ex-GIs that is produced by former editors and writers of "YANK" and "STARS AND STRIPES"—is paying a first prize of $250.00 plus nine other cash prizes, making a grand total of $750.00, for the best letters on "PROBLEMS OF THE STUDENT VETERAN". Literary quality doesn't matter. What we want is your opinion on what your college is doing to meet your needs... what it's like to return to school after years in service... how you and other vets are making out under the educational provisions of the GI Bill... what suggestions you have for improving the student veteran program.
