This Week's 'College Speaks' Presents All-Around Program

The "College Speaks" series, heard each week-day at 5:15 p. m. over station WTAW, is planned to interest each individual listener, whether he likes biology, mathematics, history, or the political situation. This series is designed to give each department at A. & M. an opportunity to speak on some phase of its work.

Scheduled for the week of February 3-7 is Howard Joham, instructor in the Biology Department, who discussed a phase of the animal kingdom, yesterday. Truett Book, a member of the Modern Languages Department, spoke this afternoon on the political situation in France, comparing it to that in the United States, giving special emphasis to the French political parties and their manner of electing officials. J. L. Shaw, a member of the Mathematics Department, has selected for Wednesday a brief resume of the life of Archimedes, considered to be the greatest mathematician in the last 2000 years. Dr. S. R. Gammon, head of the Department of History, on the Thursday program will stress the damage or dis-service that was done to the national government through the actions of Benedict Arnold, Aaron Burr, James Wilkens, and the late Senator H. C. Lodge, grandfather of the present senator. Dr. Gammon entitles his discussion "Damaged Souls".

Miss Wilnora Barton, reader's advisor at Cushing Library, will devote her Friday program to discussing the services that the library offers its patrons. During the remaining weeks of the spring semester, Miss Barton will review current books.

Four Aggies Named On All-Star Team

Four famous Texas Aggie football greats have been placed on an all-star Sugar Bowl team by Fred Digby, sports editor of the New Orleans Item.

Digby, one of the remaining 39 members of the New Orleans Mid Winter Sports Association, names seven Southwest Conference players to this mythical eleven in his new book, "The New Orleans Sugar Bowl Classic." John Kimbrough won the spot of fullback, Ernie Pannel took over the left-tackle position, while Marshall Robnett covered up the left guard slot. All three players took part in the 1940 Sugar Bowl game between A & M and Tulane.

Herb Smith won a second team spot as left end and shares the distinction of going the whole game along with Kimbrough, Robnett and Jim Thompson. Other SWC players to make the team were all from TCU; they include Sammy Baugh, right halfback; Tracy Kellow, right guard; Dave O'Brien, quarterback; and Ki Alrich as center.

VA Fools Toupee Bill

The Veterans' Administration in Newark, New Jersey, has just approved purchase of a toupee for an unidentified service man, who claimed the loss of his hair was a service-connected disability. The bald man received a blanket order to get the best one he could find at government expense. But the administration office rejected a former GI's request for a pension for his dog which saw service in the K-9 corps. Nor would the office pay for shoeing a former soldier's mule, which was a veteran of the Burma campaign.

No White Ones Wanted

The 9th Assembly District Republican Club of New York City is looking like mad for a live elephant, so far with no luck. The club is determined to have the party's traditional mascot on the hoof—for its forty-fifth annual Republican ball at the Waldorf-Astoria on February 24. Now, if they were only Democrats.

A Tree for Kilmer

The Boston School Committee has approved plans to plant a tree in the Joyce Kilmer schoolyard. The committee discovered that there wasn't a single tree in the yard of the school named after the admired poet and World War I hero who wrote the poem, "Trees".

Brazoria County Thursday

A special meeting of the Brazoria County A. & M. Club will be held Thursday, February 6, at 7:30 p. m. in Room 234, Academic Building. All those students are requested to attend.
