Athletic Clubs To Play in Houston

Three Aggie Athletic Clubs will journey to Houston this Saturday for matches at the Houston YMCA.

The Fencing Club will take on its second opponent of the year when it meets the Texas Carbide team from Texas City. Defeated in its first town engagement, the team is angling for a victory over the Carbide team, but according to instructor W. M. Dowell, the Aggies lack the experience of many men on the team of the hosts. Sandy Sanderson is captain of the Cadet team and Jack Baird, former Aggie, is coach and captain of the Texas City club.

Handball and badminton team members make their first public appearance when they compete against the Houston YMCA teams. About 12 members of the badminton club will make the trip, at least seven fencers and some six or eight handball players will also go. The Y teams have a reputation for being some of the best in the Southwest.

The clubs will leave by chartered bus Saturday at 1 p. m. and return that same night. All games will begin at 8:30 p. m. at the Houston YMCA.
