

Baseballers to Meet Bruins In Two-Game Series in Waco

The Texas Aggies move to Waco this week-end to tangle with the second-place Baylor Bears. Now in third place in the conference, the Ags play the Bruins on Friday and Saturday afternoons.

The Bears dropped into number two slot Tuesday afternoon when they lost a tight game to the Texas Longhorns by the score of 1-0. Last week they split two games with the 'sips. Baylor will probably send to the mound one of its ace pitchers, Rickey Rowe on Friday afternoon and the Aggies will face Leroy Jarl on the following day. Rowe has lost two games this season, both to Texas, but is considered one of the best in the conference. Combined pitching of Rowe and Jarl defeated the Aggies when the Baptist visited here on April 2.

As to who will hold the mound for the Farmers is problematical with former shortstop Bobby Fretz starting on Friday. Fretz, a star hurler on the A&M war-time club, has been Dimmitt's ace-in-the-hole this season. Both Gibbens and Beesley, the two first-starting artists have been layed up with injuries and it is doubtful as to whether or not they will be able to suit out.

The hurling chores may fall to either Y. B. Johnson, Bing Turner, or Dewey Jacobs with Stan Holmig being on tap just in case. Aggie hitting showed a vast improvement during the TCU and SMU games and may be the deciding factor in the series with Baylor.

The following week-ends, A&M goes on a road tour to Dallas and Fort Worth to finish playing the Mustangs and Horned Frogs. Their next home appearance is on May 10 when they play an exhibition match with Brooke Medical Center.

Southwestern U Plays B Baseball Team Saturday

The Texas Aggie B Baseball club will meet the Southwestern University team on the Kyle Field diamond at 3 p.m. Saturday afternoon. A return engagement is slated for Wednesday, April 30 at Georgetown.

This will be the seventh game of the season for the B baseballers and they have but one loss charged against them. The single loss was at the hands of the Sam Houston State College Bearkats here, but the Farmers defeated the same team in a second match later.

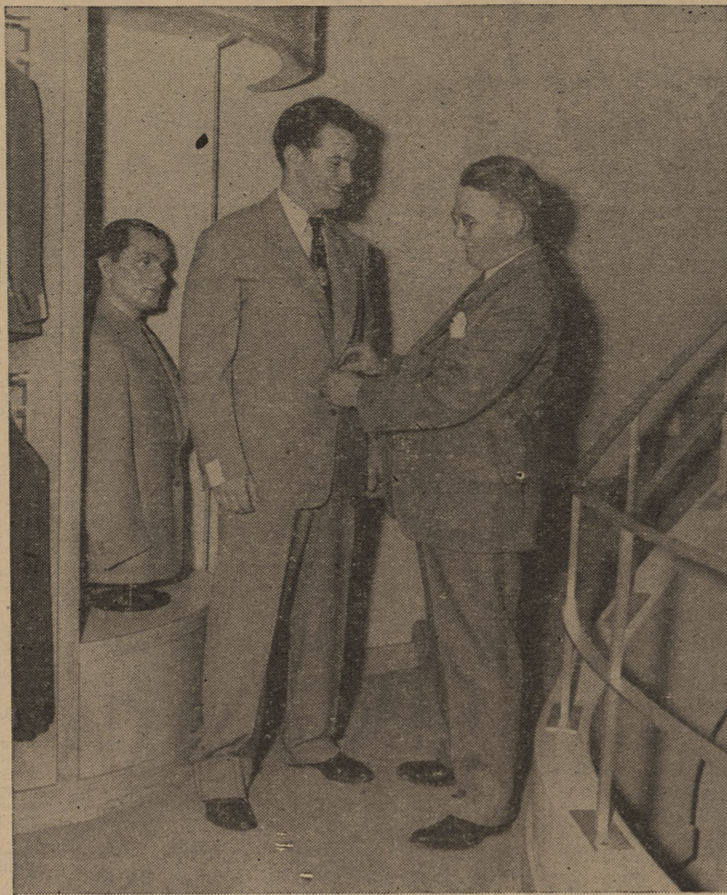

Probable mound starters for the Cadets will be either Bob Southall or George Brown. Ray Katt will catch.

Netters Play Bears In Waco Saturday

The downtrodden Aggie tennis squad, still seeking its first victory of the season over a Southwest Conference opponent, meets the Baylor Bear's on the latter's home courts in Waco Saturday afternoon.

This is just previous to the closing tilts with Texas University here on May 14-15.

ON KYLE FIELD

by PAUL MARTIN

Following last week's victories, Coach Lil Dimmitt's charges have more firmly established themselves as definite contenders for top honors.

Bib Falk's Longhorns and Pete Jones' Bears are now holding down the top slots with five wins and one loss each while A&M trails with five wins and three losses. TCU, the next closest contender trails with two wins and four losses. Rice and SMU are well in the cellar.

In the maze of statistics, it may be noted that the maroon and white leads in team batting average with a .302, followed by TU with a mere .300.

In the hitting department, individual honors go to Hub Moon, husky Aggie right fielder, who is second in the conference standings. Willie Willingham in number five position and Peck Vass in number nine are also among the top ten.

Considering the fact that Gibbens and Beesley, the two starting pitchers, are at present out of commission, the remainder of the mound staff has been doing an admirable job. Dewey Jacobs, the freshman pitcher who moved up from the B team, is credited with two wins and no losses in 17 and one-third innings of pitching. Jacobs has struck out 20 would-be hitters in this time while chalking up 8 runs and 11 hits for himself. Dewey is now number two among the leading pitchers of the conference.

Bing Turner, another Aggie mound artist, is rated high among the leading SWC hurlers. Turner is accredited with one win and no losses in five innings to rank number four in the parade.

Aggie sprint star Webb Jay moved up into the top brackets last Saturday afternoon when he clocked a time of 9.5 seconds in the 100-yard dash. Allen Lawler won the century in Kansas on the same day for the second consecutive year by accomplishing the feat in 9.7 but this was on a wet track.

This places Jay in the bracket to go with a select group of Aggies to participate in the Drake Relays in Des Moines next Saturday. Those making the trip will be Geo. Kadera, Art Haws, Webb Jay and the mile relay team of Art Har-

Aggies Blank Bombers 5-0

The Texas Aggies shut out the Bryan Bombers by a score of 5 to 0 Monday night at the new Bomber stadium in Bryan. It was the second game under the lights this season for the Farmers and a crowd of about 300 showed up to cheer their respective teams.

Losing no time at all, the Aggies picked up two runs in the first inning when Leo Daniels slammed a double into left field that scored Wasson and Vass. In the second inning, three more runs tagged up on a double error in the Bryan infield. Daniels was again the hitter and Lindloff, Wasson and Vass scored.

Lil Dimmitt used three pitchers against the Bombers, sending each one in for a three inning stretch. Bobby Fretz started the hurling and struck out four of the batters to face him and allowed but two hits. Y. B. Johnson followed him, fanning three Bombers and gave up one hit. Dewey Jacobs finished up by striking out four more and allowing two hits.

Cotton Lindloff went back into the lineup and played impressive ball in spite of the fact that his arm is not completely healed. Tex Thornton moved to shortstop and Hershall Maltz replaced Stan Holmig in the sixth to get in on some excellent plays at first base.

The Bryan Bombers are members of the Lone Star league and will play their first home game Thursday night. The Aggies journey to Waco for the weekend and will finish up conference play on May 14 and 15 when they play the Texas Longhorns.

In the Southwest conference baseball standings, Texas university and Baylor are still running neck-and-neck in their tie for first with five wins and one loss each. Texas A. & M. follows in third place with five wins and three losses. TCU, Rice and SMU are practically out of the running leaving the three top spots to the Steers, Bruins and Aggies.

SMU staged its first conference win Monday over the Rice Owls by literally stealing the game. The winning run came in the ninth when Pony second baseman Bert Berry stole home to break the 6-6 deadlock.

At the beginning of the current track season, Coach Frank Anderson admitted that our chances to win points in the dashes looked slim but the speedy dashman who has been beating Samuals and running close on the heels of Parker, Martineson, and Cotton has been showing such rapid improvement that he may yet prove to be one of the brightest spots on the A. & M. roster.

Not only has he been burning up the cinders in the 100 but has been stepping out in the 220 with quite a few points to his credit in this event.

Two Day Intramural Track Meet Highlights Weeks Activities

The Intramural Track and Field Meet will take the spot light Saturday and Sunday in a two day affair which will wind-up the special events program. Heat sheets have been sent to the organizations an dit is urged that each contestant check to see where and when he is scheduled to perform.

1. Preliminaries in Class B and in Class A running events will take place Saturday. No preliminaries will be run in the 1.7 mile.
2. All Freshmen Field Events will be held Saturday.
3. All Upperclass Field Events will be held Sunday.
4. The broad jump and the high jump will be held south of the east stands of Kyle Field.
5. The shot put will be held at the South end of the football field.
6. The pole vault will be held at the North end of the football field.
7. All men not actually participating must stay in the stands.
8. The order of events will follow that shown on the heat sheets.
9. Entries in high jump and pole vault must keep up with the progress of the bar.
10. Entries in the shot and broad jump may take their three tries any time during the afternoon.
11. If there is any question about

The unbeaten Aggie Mile Relay composed of Art Harnden, Roy Holbrook, Ervin Bilderbeck and Bill Napier, together with Webb Jay, George Kadera and Art Haws accompanied Anderson on the trip. The mile relay team annexed the Kansas Relays title last week, but will be up against stiffer opposition in the more widely known Drake carnival.

Jay, who attracted wide attention last week, with his eye-opening 9.5 100-yard dash victory against Rice, will run the century and possibly compete in the broad jump, if his weak ankle rounds sufficiently into shape.

Kadera will enter the weight events, in which he has been one of the leading competitors in the conference while Haws will seek National honors in his specialty, the high jump.

Jim Hill, who leaped 23 feet eight inches in the broad jump here last week—the longest jump in the South to date this year, will not make the trip. The deadline for entries fell before Hill made his record jump and he was not eligible to enter the Drake affair.

Jay will find plenty of competition in the century as Texas is taking both of their sprint aces, Charley Parker and Allen Lawler along. Baylor's Bill Martineson will also be around to make the competition hot.

eligibility, be sure to check before the meet.

To make this one of the best track and field meets, the cooperation you have shown in the past will be greatly appreciated; be on time for your event and all not actually participating please stay in the stands.
