

Aggie Thinly Clads Tie Longhorns 61-61 Saturday

by Don Engelking

In one of the sharpest track duals ever staged on Kyle Field, the Texas Aggies and the Texas University Longhorns battled it out to a 61-61 tie before an enthusiastic crowd of Aggie fans. Even when the maroon and white was trailing by 17 points with only three events more to be run, the crowd was at its peak of enthusiasm.

George Kadera, great Aggie weight man, was at his peak Saturday making fifteen points by virtue of first place in the discus, shot, and javelin. Kadera's effort in the shot put was 48' 10" which is the best that any man in the conference has done all season, while the same goes for his javelin throw of 186' 7 1/2". This marks the first time this year that Frank Guess of Texas has been beaten by a S.W.C. man in the javelin throw.

Another great Aggie accomplishment of the day was Leland Tate's jump of 13 feet in the pole vault. This is the best vault that has been made in the Southwest Conference this year.

In the 220-yard low hurdles Aggie Robert Hall, the dark horse in this event, was first, while Jim Mortensen in maroon and white was second. Ken Boren of Texas who had earlier beaten Mortensen for first place in the high hurdles was a close third. This was one of the three events in which the Aggies swept both first and second places, the other two being the 440-yard dash and the broad jump.

In the 880-yard run, the only distance event in which the Aggies placed good performances were turned in by Aggie Carroll Hahn and Joe Vajdos who placed second and third respectively behind Texas' great distance man Jerry Thompson.

Thompson, who placed only second in the mile behind his team mate Don Sparks, had saved his strength for the 880.

In the broad jump Aggie James Hill took first, while Webb Jay, who is still nursing a bad ankle, beat out Texas' Coy Porter for second place.

Art Harnden and Ray Holbrook swept the quarter-mile as was expected. Art took first, while Ray was second.

Art Haws had little trouble in taking his first place in the high jump with a leap of 6' 2". Glenn Watkins of Texas was second clearing 5' 10".

The relay events came out as expected. A&M's team of Bill Napier, Ervin Bilderback, Holbrook, and Harnden taking the mile relay with T. U.'s team of Perry Samuels, Desmond Kidd, Lawler, and Parker winning the quarter mile event.

In all, the Aggies took nine first places to only seven for the Longhorns, but the teahounds swept four events.

Kadera with his three firsts was high point man. He was followed by Parker with 11 1/2 points and Don Sparks with 10 points.

The summaries:

High jump—Won by Haws, Texas A&M., 6 feet 2 inches; second, Watkins, Texas, 5 feet 10 inches.

440-yard dash—Won by Harnden, Texas A&M.; second, Holbrook, Texas A&M. Time 49.4.

Shot-put—Won by Kadera, Texas

Whites Drub Maroons As Season Ends

By Larry Goodwyn

Football is over at Aggie-land until next fall. King Pigskin bowed out Saturday afternoon on Kyle Field as "Coach" Marion Flanagan's White team wrapped up spring training with a convincing 44-0 thumping of the "Maroons".

Although several players, notably Ed Dusek, Barney Welch and Red Burditt, showed plenty of stuff, there was little doubt among the fans that bullet-headed Jim Cashion was the big difference in the two clubs.

The flashy No. 18 was everywhere, completion of 12 passes for one touchdown and scoring two more himself. Dusek got in for his share of the glory by teaming with Cashion to produce the game's first tally and then reeling off a sparkling 66 yard intercepted pass return in the third quarter for the White's fourth score.

The game's classiest run was the 36 yard beauty uncorked by Red Burditt in the opening minutes of the final quarter. Burditt hauled in a punt on his own 34 and circled his way through almost the entire Maroon team before being roped in from behind on the Maroon 30. The play set up the game's final score, Welch carrying the ball over from the nine-yard line five plays later.

The Maroons made a ball game of it through most of the first half. After the Whites had taken the opening kickoff and driven 64 yards for a touchdown, the game rocked along until one minute remained in the first half before the Whites counted again, on a safety. The two-pointer was set up when Cotton Howell, first-string end who was on the receiving end of several of Cashion's heaves during the game, broke through to nab Beryl Baty behind the Maroon goal line. The half-time score was 9 to 0.

Shortly before the close of the third period, Cashion capped a 28 yard march by tossing jumpassing 14 yards to O. L. Pollock in the end zone.

Welch's ten-yard scoring romp in the final period closed the game's scoring.

For the Maroons, it can be said that they were just out-manned. Flanagan's team simply had a little too much of everything.

Bob Gary emerged as the game's outstanding lineman. The scrappy center was a thorn in the Maroon's side all afternoon long and intercepted three of Batey's passes to halt scoring attempts by the Maroons.

Whites Drub Maroons 44-0 in Game Saturday; Blocking Determines Win

Saturday afternoon about 4000 fans got a short pre-view of what might be expected from the Aggie football squad next fall as the Whites snowed the Maroons under in the inter squad game by a score of 44-0.

Though your reporter missed slightly in the pre-game forecasting of the score (Whites by 3 TDs), it wasn't because the first string was underestimated, we'll stick to forecasting the Brazos County weather.

From the press box, the boys seemed to be clicking on all four cylinders in 80 degree weather which could have been worse at this time of year. The Maroons put up a good fight but were too outclassed and their backfield being constantly harassed by the White tackles.

Jimmy Cashion and big Ed Dusek delivered the goods for the Whites, advancing the pigskin yards on almost every play

A&M, TU Thinly Clad Battle to Tie; Kadera, Harnden Outstanding for Ags

For a suspense-filled two hours, the Aggie track team, playing host to the Texas University Longhorns in a dual meet on Kyle Field, struggled with the visitors to determine who was to enter the SW Conference track meet at Waco next week-end as favorites.

Nothing was determined along this line as the count ended in a 61-61 tie. However, on the basis of individual performances, the results were quite spectacular. Jerry Thompson, the Steer's speedy little distance ace was beaten in the mile run by a wide margin in the time of 4:26.4. To date this season, Thompson has seemed unbeatable after startling performances in the Kansas and Drake relays.

On the Aggie roster, George Kadera turned in one of the best performances of the season in taking honors as high-score individual. The 200-pound freshman took first in the shot put, discus, and javelin.

By throwing the discus 162 feet 7 inches, Kadera not only beat his best throw to date (excluding practice in which he is reputed to have beaten this by two feet) but came within one foot of the conference record. Tossing the shot put a dis-to wrack up one first down after another. Dusek and Cashion along with Bobby Goff and Barney Welch in the starting line-up, literally swamped their red-jerseyed opponents but they did behind some of the best blocking ever done by an A&M team this early in the season. When a hole was called for in one side of the line, there was one.

In the third stanza, fullback Ed Dusek intercepted a pass on about the twenty and with the aid of exceptional down-field blocking, ran through practically the whole Maroon team to cross the line standing up.

Jimmy Cashion, a College Station boy who was one of the sparks on the '44 squad, proved he hasn't lost the old touch. He also proved to be a capable all-around back by alternating line drives and end runs and tossing a few short passes to Red Burditt and Cotton Howell to break up the monotony.

John Ballentine figured in the conversions with a perfect record. One of the greatest improvements over the Aggie chances from last year is that Coach Homer Norton knows exactly what he has in the way of material and about what each man can do. This will eliminate the costly experimenting while a crucial game is in progress.

Art Harnden is another Cadet thinly clad who turned in a noteworthy performance. Though Harnden was closely pressed by his opponent in the last leg of the mile relay and passed as they rounded the last curve, he put in the stretch to out-distance the Longhorn runner by several yards. The speedy 440 ace tied the meet with this last burst of speed and also won the 440-yard dash earlier in the time of 49.4. Times at this met were un spectacular as a brisk south wind slowed the runners considerably.

Other good performances were turned in by Art Haws who won the high jump with a height of 6 feet 2 inches, L. B. Tate who topped all comers in the pole vault with a height of 13 feet, and Jim Hill who did 23 feet 3 1/8 inches in the broad jump.

Cadet Baseballers Defeat Brooke Comets 13-6 Here

Lagging behind for the first six innings, the Texas Aggies came to life in their last three times at bat to wallop the Brooke Army Medical Center Comets, 13 to 6 for the fans who turned out for Sport's Day last Saturday at Kyle Field. Aggie coach Lil Dimmitt used three of his mound staff in this special event. Earl Beesley started for the Farmers, gave up one run, before he turned over the pitching chores to Roy Gibbons. Gibbons pitched three innings gave up two runs and Dewey Jacobs finished the last three innings of the game.

The Comets led the Aggies for the first six frames behind the excellent pitching of Elmer Roelling. Roelling allowed only one hit until the sixth, when Gibbons walked, Lindloff flew out, Vass got on with a double, then Hub Moon cracked a long fly into right center and center fielder Moody and right fielder Simpson collided, attempting to field the ball and two runs came across. Then Moon scored on Hollmig's double.

Coming right back in the seventh, the Comets brought in another three runs but these were their last falls. Behind the power hitting of Walker, Wasson, Lindloff, Vass, Hollmig, and Fretz, the Aggies pushed over another five runs and in the next inning they cinched the game with five more scores.

For the Comets, Scotty Tortorello and Tom Simpson were the heavy hitters, each getting 2 for 4. Simpson relieved Roelling in the eighth to finish the game.

Both Earl Beesley and Roy Gibbons looked well on the mound and will probably see service against the Texas Longhorns here Wednesday and Thursday.
