

Longhorns Sweep A&M Series To Take SWC Championship

With the score see-sawing back and forth the entire game, the Texas Aggies dropped the last of their series with the conference champion Texas Longhorns by a score of 11 to 9 at Kyle Field, Thursday afternoon.

The game was all tied up in the TU half of the ninth when Ransom Jackson tied onto one of Earl Beesleys pitches for a home run, pushing ahead of him Billy Cox. The Aggies were unable to score in their half of the inning. The Longhorns used three pitchers to subdue the Aggies, Tankersly, Wheelless, and Wall, while Roy Gibbens started for the Farmers and Earl Beesley relieved him in the third to finish the game.

In the first inning, the Aggies quickly jumped on pitcher Charles Tankersly for six runs and five hits. In this frame, Peck Vass banged out a homer to score two, after Lindloff got a double, Willingham singled, Moon cracked a triple to right field, Hollmig doubled and Fretz reached first by virtue of an error.

Gibbens held the Longhorns close in the second but weakened in the third and allowed to Sips to tie up the score before Beasley came in and put out the fire. Bobby Fretz put the Ags out in front in the third when he scored on a long fly by Vass.

Coming to bat with one away in the sixth frame, Frog Walker, big Aggie catcher fouled three pitches before sending one out of the park against the center field glare shade. The Longhorns waited till the eighth, then quickly pushed three across, two of these off the bat of Tom Hamilton, whose homer smacked against Kyle Field stadium over the center field fence. The other run, Shamblin, scored on a passed ball.

The Aggies then evened the score after Fretz singled, Thornton flied, and Fretz scored on Vass's long fly against the center field fence. Then in the TU half of the ninth Jackson sewed up the game for the Longhorns with his homer with one aboard.

Considering the fact that both Aggie pitchers, Gibbens and Beesley, had sore shoulders, the Aggies appeared fairly well on the field in their last game this season. Bobby Fretz moved over to third base without any strain and Tex Thornton took over the short-stop spot in the same manner. Cotton Lindloff played bang-up ball at second base and his excellent defensive playing held many of the Texas runs down. Aggie pitchers were always in trouble and fourteen Longhorns died on base. Ellis Wheelless relieved Tanker-

Correct Addresses Of Next-Of-Kin Asked By War Department

The War Department today asked all survivors of men and women who died while serving in the Army to make certain that two Army agencies have their present addresses.

Many instances have been found where addresses of next-of-kin in the files of the Casualty Section, Adjutant General's Office, and Memorial Division, Office of the Quartermaster General, are incorrect. Letters sent to these next-of-kin by the two offices have been returned, marked, "Moved; Left No Forwarding Address."

Next-of-kin who have moved since last notifying these offices of their addresses were asked to mail a postcard or letter to each office, stating in effect:

"I am next-of-kin to (name) (grade) (serial number). My former address was (street, city, state). My present address is (street, city, state)."

The communications should be mailed to:

Memorial Division, Office of the Quartermaster General, Washington 25, D. C.

ON KYLE FIELD

by PAUL MARTIN

As the Aggie track squad vies for honors with other SWC schools in Waco today, the baseball team brought their season to a none too satisfactory conclusion Thursday afternoon.

In the two-game series with the visiting Texas U. team on the Kyle Field diamond before record crowds, the Cadets turned in some exceptional individual playing but apparently they weren't clicking in other phases.

Each day the 'Sips, after a furious struggle, had come from behind to sew the match up in the ninth. Hub Moon, who had worked his way up to the top in Southwest Conference batting averages with a .428, was connecting pretty regularly and Stan Hollmig, the SWC home run king, outdid himself by belting two over the fence Wednesday. This brings his total up to seven in conference games this season.

Frog Walker, the catcher for the Farmer nine, connected with a long one over the fence a little left of center field Thursday to give the hosts a two-run lead in the seventh.

However, Tom Hamilton, the husky first sacker for the visitors, slammed a Texas Leaguer over the right field fence in the Texas half of the eighth to tie the score up.

Tex Thornton, who had moved from second base to short, did some smooth fielding as per usual, converting what looked to be several sure hits to an out on first.

This leaves the Ags back where they started—in third place in conference standing as the season closes. Baylor, by trimming the TCU Frogs 10-1 in their closing game, returned to second place and several of the other teams are still slugging it out for the cellar.

B Baseballers Have 9 Wins, 3 Losses

Though the first string baseball team wound up by losing two straight to the Texas U. Longhorns, the Bee team ended its season Monday by polishing off the Texas Shortorns for the second straight time.

Coach Charlie DeWare's charges first trimmed the junior 'Sips 4-3 on Kyle Field May 8 and then journeyed to Austin Monday to take the second of the two-game series 12 to 9.

Freshman hurler George Brown was credited with the win and in addition to going all the way on the mound for the Ags, slammed a homer somewhere over the head of the center field.

Zeke Strange, Cadet right fielder tallied four hits in four trips to the plate to pace the Farmer batting.

Catcher Ray Katt has been the heavy hitter for the Ags this season with four homers to his credit. Katt has been a consistent hitter as well as a first rate catcher.

Baseballers Bow to Steers As 'Sips Stage Ninth Inning Rally

After eight innings of exciting ball, the Texas Aggies allowed the Longhorns to squeeze past them by a score of 6 to 5 Wednesday afternoon on Kyle Field. The Longhorn win came by virtue of a home run in the ninth by Billy Cox, right fielder for TU.

The Aggies lost this heartbreaker after playing wild ball for the first six innings, then settling down to put across extra runs and tie the game up when the Longhorns came

Net Squad in SWC Meet in Austin

By Earl Grant

The Aggie net squad journeyed to Austin Friday to participate in the annual Southwest Conference tennis meet held this afternoon.

It appears that Texas and Rice are the powerhouse teams of the conference this year. They both copped easy wins from each of the other teams in the conference.

In Sam Match, Rice has one of the best all around tennis stars ever to hit the southwest. Match, seeded twelfth nationally, leads a well-rounded Rice team which should give the other conference squad a hard time.

Texas possibly has the best balanced team in the conference. Consistent throughout the entire season, Texas has already defeated Rice earlier by a six to one margin; Match being the only Owl netter to break the Longhorn winning string that day.

The Aggies will stake their hopes on such men as Bill Bennett, Benny Stanford, Hank Allen, Rod Sellars and Duffey Stanley.

to bat in the ninth. Starting on the mound for the TU nine was Bobby Layne, who has 22 wins in his conference play. The Aggie batters became too hot for Layne to handle in the eighth frame and Coach Faulk sent in Murray Wall, who got credit for the win. Dewey Jacobs was charged with his first loss of the season as he went the whole way for the Maroon and White.

The Teasips pushed across one run in the second only to have A&M come right back and go out in front by one run in their half of the inning. Stan Hollmig, the first Aggie batter, swung on the first pitch sending it over the fence at the 355 feet sign in left center. Leo Daniels got a single, stole second, and came home when Bob Watson put a single against the right center fence that neither of the two fielders could handle.

The Longhorns went ahead in the third, 4 to 2, and the Aggies picked up another run in the sixth. Tom Hamilton, lanky first sacker for TU, cracked a homer over the right field fence in the first half of the eighth. Not to be outdone, Stan Hollmig, stepped to the plate in the Aggie half of the frame with Hub Moon on first, and slammed another homer, this one a good sixty feet over the left center fence, to put the Aggies back in the ball game. The Aggies then missed a chance to sew up the tilt, after Daniels walked and Walker grounded out.

Dewey Jacobs managed to put the first two batters safely away in the ninth, then Billy Cox sent his winning homer over the right center fence. The Farmers were unable to score in their half of the ninth.

Bobby Layne kept the Aggie hitters baffled until he gave way in the eighth to Murray Wall. Big Dewey Jacobs took the first several innings to settle down, then finished the game. Stan Hollmig boosted his home run record up to seven in this game, to continue leading the league in that department.
