

ON KYLE FIELD

By DON ENGLKING

Candidates For Athletic Director???

News comes from W. R. (Bill) Carmichael, executive secretary for the Texas High School Coaches Association, that the enrollment for the association's annual coaches school has passed the 600 mark. At this time last year, when the attendance record was set, only 250 coaches were enrolled.

With a new attendance record being set this year the coaches school will be at its peak under the leadership of Jess Neely, Rice's head coach, and Bo McMillan, head mentor of Indiana.

Also concerning Carmichael, we have heard that he is one of the leading candidates for the post of Athletic Director here at A&M. Carmichael's main job is principal of Stephen F. Austin High School in Bryan.

Other candidates whose ears will no doubt burn when the board of directors goes in a huddle to decide on the new athletic director are Barry Holton, former Notre Dame grid star and presently Commander in the USN, Bug Morris, head coach and Athletic Director at Abilene Christian College, and our own line coach, Bill James.

Aggie-Longhorn Duets Going Fast

Bad news for football fans who are not Aggies or Longhorns comes from C. D. Ownby, business manager of Texas A&M, who predicts that only Ex-Longhorns and Ex-Aggies will be able to obtain tickets to the Turkey Day game here on Kyle Field this year.

Aggie-Longhorn football game tickets have already been ordered by 4,000 A&M Exes which does not include the Student body.

According to Ownby the game will be a sellout and Kyle Field, which will hold approximately 40,000 fans will be packed to the brim.

The University of Oklahoma grid team has really been hard hit by its members becoming pro. Joe Golding, ace Sooner back last season will be playing for the Boston Yanks next fall.

John Rapax and Plato Andros who were both members of that famous Oklahoma forward wall last year, will also be wearing pro grid uniforms this fall. Andros will be with the Chicago Cards and Rapax is still undecided. All three of these gridsters had another year of eligibility with Oklahoma.

In a football game between the Conrad, Montana, High School and the Browning Indians from the nearby Blackfoot Reservation, the following plays were made in the space of a few seconds. One of the Conrad guards intercepted a pass, turned, and raced for his own goal line. No teammate made a move to stop him, but two Indians started after him. By some superhuman effort one of them managed a shoe-string tackle that brought him down on the two-yard line. After a moment of silence, S. O. Hefty, the Conrad coach said, "I have never seen two such rapid fire boners in succession."

While studying a movie of one of their early games last year, Ernie Steele, of the Philadelphia Eagles, remarked, "What that halfback doing way over there. Who is he?"

Guard Bruno Banducci, who was sitting by Ernie, explained, "That dope is No. 37 and if you will glance at your program you'll see No. 37 is you."

Intramural Play For 2nd Term Gets Off to Fast Start

Intramural competition in softball and volleyball for the second summer semester began Wednesday afternoon with the promise of even a more exciting season than last semester.

The only change in the lineup of teams in the campus Softball league was the addition of the Hilliel club team while the Project House team withdrew from the same league. Dorm 8, last semester's intramural softball champs and holder of the undisputed College title by virtue of their victory over the champs of the College View league, will be defending their highly coveted crown.

The College View Intramural softball league, which got off to a slow start last semester, is making up for lost time this semester by doubling its schedule. The same number of teams will be in the league this time but each team will play eight games instead of four.

The Women's Volleyball League from the College View Apartments also got off to an enthusiastic start last Wednesday. Each team in the Vet Wives' league will play a total of eight games. There are three teams in the Women's league.

Angrist Resigns To SHSTC Post

Art W. Angrist, instructor in the A&M English Department since September, 1946, has resigned effective September 1 to become associate professor in speech and drama at Sam Houston State Teachers College, Huntsville.

He will leave around August 5 for a six-week visit to the University of Michigan, from which he was graduated, before returning to his new position.

Angrist, since his arrival last September, has been active with the Aggie Players. Under his direction the dramatic group has presented "The Male Animal" and "A Murder Has Been Arranged". Earlier this month he supervised backstage directions for the Aggie Players' and Singing Cadets' presentation of "The Mikado", Gilbert & Sullivan light opera.

In January of this year he was named one of the outstanding members of the A&M faculty in The Battalion's annual "Who's Who" awards.

Harry "Steamboat" Johnson, 60 year old baseball ump of the Southern Association, estimates that 5,000 pop bottles have been thrown in his direction during the 37 years he has been an umpire.

Larroca Becomes Singles' Champ of Intramural Tennis

The Summer Intramural tennis tourney for the first semester ended last week when Tony Larroca defeated Hudson LeGrand, 6-5, and 6-1 for the Singles title. Larroca is a Dorm 11 man and LeGrand hails from the College View Apartments.

In reaching the finals Larroca defeated Aubrey Sprawls of Dorm 8 in the first round, Otis Felger of Dorm 5 in the second round, Charles Nettles of Dorm 1 in the quarter-finals and Leland Sharp of Dorm 8 in the semi-finals. LeGrand, in reaching the finals, tangled victoriously with George Thorburn of College View Apartments in the first round, William Barnett of Dorm 4 in the second round, Wallace Dixon of Dorm 7 in the quarter-finals, and Billy Lane of Dorm 4 in the semi-finals.

The combination of Terrell and LeGrand became the intramural tennis doubles champs by defeating Felger and Nettles, 6-1, 5-7, 6-3.

Terrell who is a member of the C. E. Dept., and LeGrand defeated the doubles team of Fred Reese of Dorm 2 and William Hassenman of Dorm 3 in the opening round, and then came back to eliminate the combine of Larroca and Joseph Blackbear in the quarter-finals, 6-1, 5-7, 6-3. The champion doubles team reached the finals by downing Lane and Thomas Adams of Dorm 4 in the quarter-finals and ousting Sharp and James Miglavacca of Dorm 8, 4-6, 6-0, 6-2.

A similar intramural open tennis tournament will be held during the current summer semester.

The absent-minded Brown band pulled off last football season's prize boner. They marched proudly in front of the Harvard stands and formed a large "Y".

The Game Warden's Lament

By Gilbert Russell Brackett

If the game warden asks to see your license, he's insulting.
If he takes your word for having one, he's corrupt.
If he arrests a violator, he's showing how rough he can be.
If he gives the culprit another chance, he shows favoritism.
If he labors day and night to enforce the law, he's a tyrant.
If he relaxes at all he's a shirker and a crook.
If he talks fish and game conservation, he's maudlin.
If he keeps quiet, he's not interested in his work.
If he accepts suggestions or advice, he's incompetent.
If he works out problems for himself, he's a know-all.
If he acts like a gentleman, he's too easy.
If he acts firm, he's unfair and a rascal.

Antelopes Lose To Cats in Opener At College View Area

The College View Intramural softball league opened the second semester of play with Barney Welch's Cats whipping Ed Dusek's Antelopes, last semester champions, 9 to 3.

Clark, the Cat's pitcher, allowed only 3 hits and collected 12 strikeouts and also had a perfect day at the plate with 3 for 3. Hale, the Cat's right fielder, followed Clark by hitting 2 for 3.

Boyd, losing pitcher, set the first nine men to face him down in order, but then allowed 9 hits and 5 walks the remainder of the game to produce the Cat's 9 runs.

Thomas, Flowers, and Pickett led the Antelope hitters, each getting 1 for 3.
