U. H. Vets Irked At 80th Congress

Some 3,000 veterans of the University of Houston attacked congress for its failure to increase subsistence payments, and its maintaining a limit on veterans earnings, last Friday.

A mass protest meeting was planned, but it was decided that the Cougar, campus newspaper should have the first word. Friday the Cougar printed an editorial condemning Congress for ignoring the bills for veterans aid, while other bills received last-minute passage.

Voice, Ears Added to Jeep

Voice and ears have been added to the Jeep in the form of a high-powered two-way radio, to be used by the Navy. Self-powered, the new radio can be used even when the vehicle is running six feet under water. The receiver is so small that it can fit into the glove compartment.
