NEWS IN BRIEF

TECH STUDENTS KILLED

SAN ANGELO, Tex., Sept. 22 (AP)—Seven persons, four of whom were believed to be college students, were killed and one other critically injured late Sunday in la fiery truck-car crash 30 miles southeast of here. Members of the Ralph Elliott family of Brady were riding in a pickup truck, which caught fire after the accident, All were killed. The other account of the source after the accident All were killed. The others were occupants of a sedan and were believed by Capt. Ray Butelr, state highway patrol-man, to be Texas Technological College students returning to Lub-bock from the Texas U, football game in Austin.

game in Abstin. Hewitt Allison, captain Texas Tech track squad. Clarence Har-less, a footliall player for Tech and the player's wife were reported killed in the crash. Elliott was ranch foreman for G. R. White, Brady, chairman of the A&M board.

NEW FLORIDA STORM-

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 12 (AP) — Biornwarnings squared in a steady breeze on southern Florida's weary coast again ear-by ioday as a second tropical disturbance stood just 80 miles southwest of the keys bearing 80-mile winds on a northward nurse. course

The warnings went up from the Florida Keys to Palm, Beach even as the battered peninsula and the ravaged gulf coast from Biloxi, Miss., to New Orleans counted 38 dead and anxiously contemplated flood waters left by last week's havoc-wreaking

ALAMO DOWNS BURNS

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 22 (AP)-The grandstand and pad-dock of the old Alamo Downs race track near here lay in virtual ruins today as the result of an early East Side Has More Spirit, morning fire yesterday that caus ed damages estimated between $260,060 and $360,000.

GIFT GIVEN AUSTIN COLLEGE But West Side Is Funnier

SHERMAN, TEX., Sept. 22-(AP)-Gift of $600,000 to Austin College, 99-year-old Presbyterian institution here, has been from the estate of the late M. B. Hughey of Charlotte, Tex., Dr. W B. Guerrant, college president, announced Saturday.

BAYLOR ENROLLMENT SOARS

WACO, TEX., Sept. 22-(AP)-A new registration record existed Saturday at Baylor University here. More than 4,200 students had enrolled, exceeding the 1948 record of 8,771. Late comers were still Pennsylvania Grad pushing the mark even higher.

TO RETURN WAR DEAD

NEW YORK, Sept. 22-(AP)-The New York port of embarkation announced Saturday that the remains of the first American war to be returned from Euro-battleficids would arrive on dead acan army transport Joseph Connolly during the last work

CAROL LEAVES BRAZEL

PUBLISHED IN THE INTEREST OF A GREATER A & M COLLEGE

The Battalion

COLLEGE STATION (Aggieland), TEXAS, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1947

Reorganization of Alumni Staff Approved by Former Students

Davenport Wins First Quarterback Guessing Contest

T. A. Davenport won the Battalion Arm-Chair Quarterback contest for last Saturback contest for last Satur-day's football games with a perfect, four for four calling, on Southwest games. Davenport, resi-dence listed as Room 73, Leggett Hall, picked correctly the victories of Texas A&M, Texas and Arkan-sas and T.C.U.'s tie with Kansas. The prize, two tickets to Satur-day's game with Texas Tech, will be presented to Davenport by the be presented to Davenport by the Battalion at Thursday's meeting of the A&M Quarterback Club at 7:30 p.m. in the Assembly Hall.

Davenport was given the nod over seven other entrants who picked the three winners and the tie because his scores more closely resembled the final tallies. Davenover Southwestern 40-0 (48-0); Texas over Texas Tech 27-0 (33-0); Arkansas over N.W. Loui-siana 47-0 (64-0); and T.C.U. to tie Karisas 13-13 (0-0).

12 placed second, likewise all win-ners and the tie, but falling down on Texas, whom he saw as only

However, the main drawback Longhorn to come off the press on schedule, we must have more

Charles C. Secrest who saw Ar-Clubs and societies must reserve kansas a 56-0 victor over Northspace in the annual before Oct. kansas a 56-0 victor over North-ober 17. Hometown clubs will be guesser on that game. Jack Medlin of Dorm 16 won ceive space up to one page, which in no less than four entry blanks will cost $25. Reservations will be and picking the Aggies to both taken in The Longhorn office, win and lose, the former by scores Room 204, Goodwin Hall between of 27-7, 21-0, and 14-7 and the

$77,500 Budget Approved; Reject English Teaching Aids, Microfilm Library

By Jimmie Nelson

Plans for a reorganization of personnel of the Associa-tion of Former Students to permit Executive Secretary E. E. McQuillen to assume other duties were approved by the Council of the Association meeting at College Saturday night. McQuillen is expected to be named Director of the De-velopment Fund succeeding Henderson Shuffler, when the reorganization is completed, In accepting McQuillen's re-tirement, the council expressed its appreciation of his long record of service by a standing tribute of New Vets Receive

Subsistence Checks Early in November

Number 3

Veterans who entered schools and colleges this fall may expect their first subsis-tence check early in Novem-ber, the Veterans Administration has announced.

has announced. has announced. The initial payment will include all subsistence allowances due from the start of the semester through the end of the last full subsistence period before the the original budget, recommended by the executive board of the coun-cil, were two objectives which the curve the period of the form the original budget, recommended by the executive board of the coun-cil, were two objectives which the curve the period of the form the original budget, recommended by the executive board of the coun-cil, were two objectives which the colors and standards, and sufficheck is issued. councilmen considered out of their

No serious delays in payment of realm of duty to the college. One subsistence allowances are antici-pated, but the Veterans Adminis-to supply modern teaching aids to supply modern teaching aids tration is advising student-vet-erans to be able to meet personal English and speech departments in financial obligations for at least the amount of $10,000. The other the first six weeks of the fall item which failed to receive approval was one which would es-tablish a microfilm library and enrollment and receipt of the first projector in the college library the use of graduate students. Through the establishment the permanent opportunity award endowment, the Former Students Association hopes to provide a pat tern and inspiration for others t do likewise. This endowment will amount to $60,000, and will provide interest sufficient to awar one scholarship each year on

New colors and standards will be provided the Cadet Corps to supplement those donated by the A&M Mothers Club.

As M. Mothers Club. According to a report by Asso-ciation Vice-President C. M. El-well, Texas A&M is the fourth ranking institution in the United States in the percentage of ex-sta-dents who contribute annually to the welfare of the school, and ranks welfing in the school, and ranks weith in the total number of even contributing. The council expressed is unar-pinous desire that a stadium on-largement program be carried and to provide more seats in Ryb. Sta-dium, and further directed the ex-10101 Jersey Champions seutive board to gather the new essary information to formulate a Advancer Volunteer Grade, ewn-ed by Knolle Jersey Farms of Sandia, won the grand championprogram for the provision of Jim Noten, was named Assistant Secretary of The Association and will edit The Texas Aggie. ship of the Texas Jersey Cuttle Club's statewide show in Waco Friday night, Dr. I. W. Rupel, head of the dairy husbandry depart-ment, announced.

HOT OFF THE WIRE—In The Battalion office nowadays can be read the latest news as it comes off the wires. Two AP tele-type machines, as the one shown above, have been installed, and are in operation from 7 a. m. to 3 p. m. daily, except Sunday. Here MRS. NANCY CAPERS, left, and MRS, LOIS WYATT, contrast of Sunday Articles and CHAPILES. '48 Longhorn Work Underway; Men secretaries in the Office of Student Activities, and CHARLIE MURRAY, co-editor of The Battalion, scan the dispatches from the Dallas office. Needed on Staff bv By Arthur C. Mann The Aggie section has all the pirit, but the west side is furnier, but the west side is furnier, to catch him." lines be posted soon.

3. Convinced beyond all doubt 1. Compassion ruffled the tend-er breast of one elderly female who sat on the west side. Observing the standing measure the side of the side sat on the west side. Observing the standing masses, she remarked, "Why, those poor things. I know they must get tired. They should sit down." 2. Duset's '71-yard run for could be a sup a sure thing, tried to place a small wager, but old cannonball's wis-dom was not that questionable. Your correspondent will have to put bimself through college, but

4. A Boy Scout, one of a group, that always comes prepared, brought a pair of high-power field glasses to the game. Unfortunat-ely he didn't see too much of the grame because people plagued him Briday.

game because people plagued him all afternoon to read the score off

Notert N. Stivenson, of Sharon, Pennsylvania, has joined the busi-less and accounting department as professor, T. W. Leiand, de-partment head, has announced. He asumal his dutics September 1. Stevenson, a private accountant before section noticed in the section noticed in the Stevenson, a private accountant

Work on The 1948 Longhorn has already been started by Tommy John and Bob-Williamson, co-editors of the yearbook. A schedule of deadhas been prepared and will

3. Convinced beyond all doubt that Tech was going to beat Tu, one hombre of cuestionable wis. John stated. "If we expect The workers."

granted only one-third of a page, at a cost of $8.50. Societies and other course of study clubs can re-

3 and 5 p. m., Monday through latter by 7-6.

By Friday, December 5, alphabetical lists of club, society, and military unit members are due in Bill Miller Heads

E. E. McQUILLEN, executive ecretary of the A&M Former tudents' Association, resigned secretary Students' Saturday night at the meeting of the association's council and class agents. New Leave Policy port's predictions with the actual scores in parenthesis were: A&M Inaugurated by VA

For College GI's Pete Scamardo, Room 316, Dorm A new policy has been in-

The time-lapse between date of ever, when the veteran drops out of college, or is absent to such an of college, or is absent to such an extent that his conduct and prog-tress are no longer satisfactory, a report must be submitted. In affect, the new policy will to a veteran for up to 15 days of any period between consecutive se-mesters or quarters. Where the period between semesters or quar-ters (including summer sessions) is longer than 15 days, or where it is shorter than 15 days and the following, semester subsistence

Robert N. Stevenson, of Sharon, Pennasyvania, has joined the basisheed and appointee never again as profession. T. W. Leiand, dependenting department, as profession. T. W. Leiand, dependenting department, as profession. T. W. Leiand, dependention and profiles never again the duities september I. Stevenson, a private accountant in fore coming to A. & M. is a failed at the presedent for a new profession. Wildratting for the day interview and interving the base profession and master of aft degree. Wildratting for the day first of the series of the day first of the series of the day first of the day first of the day first of the series of the day first of the day first of the day first of the series of the series of the day first of the series of the series of the day first of the series of the series of the day first of the series of the series of the day first of the series of the series of the day first of the series o augurated by the Veterans a two touchdown winner over Tech. Administration regarding ab-Two entrants, N. F. Buenz of sence, and leave of absence of Walton, hit the Aggies' 48-0 mar-gin over Southwestern on the head Rights.

while J. J. Dempsey's prediction of 35-0 was the closest thing to a sences of veterans to the VA. How-RIO IN JANEIRO, Sept. 22-AP) - Pormer King Carol of Ro-main and his bride, the former (AP)-Elena Lupowey, bearded the Ar-gentine ship Juna De Caray Sat-urday, bound for Portugal. The tormer monarch, now 53, and his B-year-old bride cluded remertars It was believed they might go from Lisbon to France, but no an-nouncement was made of their plans,

HOUSTON TO HEAR WALLACE

HOUSTON, Sept. 22-(AP)-Former Vice President Henry A. Wallace may speak here November 12.

Virgil Arnold, Houston attor-ney and former president of the Age Limit League of America, Inc., said he had received a letter of acceptance from Wallace to appear here on that date. Arnold said a huge mass meet ing would be called. Senator Claude Pepper Florida was invited, too, Ar-nold said, but he has made no acceptance so far.

PLAN TEMPLE HEARING

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22-(AP) -A hearing will be held in Tem-ple, Tex., Nov. 1 to get views of farm leaders in that area on agriculture problems. The meeting was scheduled by chairman Hope (R-Kan.) of the House Agricul ture Committee.

RAYMONDVILLE QUIET

RAYMONDVILLE, TEX., Sept. 22—(AP)—All is quiet on the Raymondville school front. Bernardo D. Serna, chairman the Lulac Council here, said the two-week controversy over a charge of segregration of Latin-American students here was set-Plan Dance-Tuesday

LA GUARDIA DIES
NEW YORK, Sept. 22—(AP)—
Final plans for a week-end dance in "Alamo City" will be made tuesday night at 7:15 in Room 20.6, Academic Building, when the times mayor of New York and former director general of UN, RA, died Saturday.
The fiery political leader had been in a coma since Tuesday night
after the A&M.Texa, the back meeting.
The dame is scheduled for Saturday.
The dame is schedule for Saturday.
The dame is sch

He formerly worked as millie secondant with Servell Welling mibile pirit, but the west side is funnier.

verheard and overseen at the

A&M-Southwestern game: 1. Compassion ruffled the tendsylvania.

Joins B&A Staff

Stunts by Barton ton and Company, Cloyeland, Ohio, cost accountant with Bartges Construction Company, and accountant

Take First Place with Fraternity Management Com-pany, both of State College, Penn-Rogers Barton, assistant pro-fessor of engineering drawing, won Stevenson is a member of the American Association of University Professors, National Associa-tion of Cost Accountants, and the ship contest held last week at Fair Park in Dallas. American Accounting Association. Barton's entry in the stunt and

Wichita Falls Club Elects Davis Head

Charles P. Davis, senior premed student in the Cadet Corps. inverted outside loops. was elected president of the Wich-Over 100 model builders and ita Falls A. & M. Club Wednesfliers from Texas, Oklahoma, and day evening at the first meeting Louisiana competed. Several natof the semester. Assisting him for the 1947-48 ional records were set in the speed events, including speeds over 120 year will be Bob McBroom, corps senior, vice-president; John W. miles per hour. Harris, veteran business and ac Dallas Manager To counting freshman, secretary-treasurer; and Hal E. Dungan Jr., management engineering junior, Address S A M

Final plans for a week-end dance

he turned into The Longhorn of fice between 3 and 5 p. m. Mon-day through Friday.

Senior Pavorités pictures must be submitted by Friday, February 6, They must be 5 x 7 glosay finish the first place stunt trophy at the Southwest Gas Model Championsocial and sports events, which year's annual.

Barton's entry in the stuft and precision flying event was judged on the precision with which the day for The 1948 Longhorn, Tom-day for The 1948 Longhorn, Tomnumerous maneuvers were per-formed. These maneuvers included my John, co-editor, has announced. Students A and B, non-military oops, wing-overs, inverted flight, outside loops, figure-of-eights, and students, will have pictures taken through Wednesday of this week, followed by C, D, and E students of the campus. through the remainder of the week complete schedule for non-The military students is as followse

September 25-27 September 29 October 2-4 October 6-8 October 2-4 October 6-8 October 9-11 October 13-15 October 14-15 N-0-P-Q R-8 endar is the annual Wichita Falls dinner-dance to be held December 24. The banquet will be held at the Wichita Falls Country Club. followed by a dance at Sandy Beach Roller Rink on the Iowa Park Road. The next meeting of the club will be held in Room 208, Aca-demic Building, at 7 p. m., October 1, Dungan reported.

stalled for the current school year, and the semester's program plan-ned, it was stated. Price's subject for the evening will be "profit Sharing—A New Plan for Employ-Gamma Mu and Pi Kappa Alpha.

October 16-18 October 20-22

All management engineering Fencers Meet Tuesday

And checks

Newman Club Friday aight. The other officers are Vice Freedont Bick Ploch, Agricultural Educa-tion, from San Antonio; Sacrotary Bob Weller, Eeletrical Engineering, from Highland Fark, III.; Treasur-er, Walter Barry, Mechanical En-gineering, from Dallas Historiana, Jim Kelly, Civil Engineering, from Pecos; and Carlos Smith, Civil En-gineering, from Port Lavaces; Re-norter Jack Denny, Mechanical Enis scheduled to be delivered on gineering, from Port Lavaea; Re-July 19. It will include all spring Informal table chaplains, with Father J. B. Gleis. were the causes of delay in this sner bringing the welcoming address, Father Gleissner, a veteran haplain of forty four years, praised the Aggies for their spirit of participation and willingness to do their best. Father T. J. Valenta presented new plans and encouraged the seventy boys at the meeting in their attempt to raise money for the proposed new chapel south The Astronomy Club will hold

The discussions of various subjects, over coffee and donuts, between masses on Sunday will be physics building. Everyone intercontinued this year and all Cathlic students are invited to join in this and the other services.

Ag Mag Comes Off Press in November

The first issue of The Agriculturist, bi-monthly magazine for the School of Agriculture, will be

Students who have not yet subscribed to the magazine may do so in the animal husbandry or in the animal husbandry or poul-try husbandry offices, in the Dean eering Building. Subscription rate for the entire

ME's Meet Tuesday

a 24" telescope, which will be ex-ceeded in size in the Southwest onservatory. 42 Grad Joins B&A published in early November. Staff as Instructor Edward C. Cass, of Haskell, re-cently-joined the business and ac-counting department staff at A. & M., T. W. Leiand, department of Agriculture's office, or in any office in the Agricultural Enginhead, has announced. year is 50 cents.

often deinyed aubstatence By allowing 15 days between mesters or at the end of the school year, the average veteran will get at least 30 days leave during the year, if Thankagiving, Christmas, and other holidays are included, the total will be well in excess of 30 days for most men. Veterans who want to save entitlement can arrange to have their subsistence terminate on the last day of a semester, thus waiving the automatic leave, which is charged against entitlement.

Astronomy Club Meets Tonight

BIOLOGY CLUB MEETING

ment, announced. Reserve grand champion was Draconis Lovely Lassie, shown by the Heep Jersey Farm of Buda. The champion bull title went to Draconis Royal Baron, owned by Herman Heep of Buda and D. T. Simmons of Fort Worth. All Aggies who are interested in Biology or related fields are in-vited to attend the organizational meeting of the Biology Club, which will be held in the Lecture Room of Science Hall, Tuesday at 7:30. All old members of the club are es-

More than 1,000 persons were- pecially urged to attend.

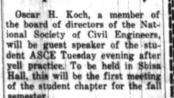

in attendance as Dr. Rupel an-nounced the winners eligible for the national Jersey show at Col-its first meeting this semester to-night at 7:30 in room 39 of the umbus, Ohio. The show ended in Wado Saturday with a parade of champions and an afternoon sale.

ested in astronomy is invited, ac-cording to V. H. O'Bryan, presi-dent. A series of lectures and tel-Director of ASCE escope studies have been planned for the term. An active project of the club will be the construction of To Speak Tuesday

ly by that of the McDonald Ob-semester. A member of the firm of Koch and Fowler, consulting engineers of Dallas, Koch is noted for his work in the municipal field. As a director of the national group, Cass graduated from A. & M. in 1942. Returning after four years military service, he did graduate work and served as a graduate as-sistant. He became a full-time in-structor September 1. he represents District 15. His subject for the evening will be the aims and objectives of the ASCE. All civil engineering students and faculty members are invited to attend. Refreshments will be serv-

Port Arthur A&M Club will meet Tuesday night at 7 o'clock in room 100 of the Academic huild-ing. Officers for the coming year will be elected.

Tuberculosis: The earlier found the sooner cured Watch this space for news about tuberculosis, especially in Texas, and Brazos County in particular. In only 3 years, from January 1, 1943, to Jan-uary 1, 1946, tubercu-losis caused the death of 8997 persons in Tex-na. Of these deaths, 4152 were among white persons, 3132 among Latin-Americans, 1722 among negroes.

TUBERCULOSIS

ASSOCIATION+

among negroes,