

SPORTS SHORTS

This and That

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—Tip (for what it's worth): Our old pal Mr. Reliable Source says if Bernie Moore has a good season at Louisiana State (and the grads will moan louder than the recent hurricane if he doesn't), don't expect him to be around for another — several pro football teams have been flirting with the veteran L. S. U. coach and Bernie is about to look coquettish and drop his hanky—California golfers are looking for big things from Ron Livingston, 16-year-old San Gabriel High School kid who can shoot in the low 70's—When fullback Ted Fritsch reported at the Green Bay Packers' training camp he entered the luxurious lodge lugging a bootblack stand and shouted: "Come and get it, boys. Five cents a shine—and don't forget I got a concession."—A couple of fumbles and he'll need it.

Grunt and Groan

The razzing folks are steaming up a series of three "match-ups" between Primo Carnera and Tony Galento. St. Louis and Boston are the likely spots for two—and the third in the chamber of horrors, we assume.

Names in Sports

Although Frank Sinkwich retired "voluntarily" for the season, folks who saw him training at Cheshire, Conn., say he was one of the hardest-working guys on the squad, even though his trick knee was bothering him then—seems Frankie's contract expires this year—Domino, one of Assault's ancestors, ran in two match races—against Dobbins as a two-year old and against Henry of Navarre at three. Both ended in dead heats—Tom Galla, Georgetown's 200-pound fullback, is an accomplished violinist.

Let Davis In

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—After seeing how the Yankees and the Dodgers backed into the pennants, it seems they ought to play the World Series on Ray Dumont's plan for running the bases backwards. . . . When the Army football team staged a secret practice last Friday, a guy in civilian clothes kept trying to get into the stadium and the MP's kept tossing him out. The guy finally got a message through to publicist Joe Cahill, who came down and told the guardians of the portals that it was okay for Glenn Davis to see what was going on. . . . Penn State, which Cold-shouldered a proposal to play Notre Dame in a charity football game this week, will be back on the Penn schedule next season after a long lapse.

HARRIS AGAIN

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—Bucky Harris, who piloted the New York Yankees to the American League pennant in his first year as manager, will remain at the helm next year, Larry MacPhail, president of the Yankees, announced today.

MUSTANG LEAVE

DALLAS, Sept. 25 (AP)—The Southern Methodist University football team was to leave Wednesday aboard a special train for Santa Clara University in their season opener Saturday.

Fish Team Meets North Texas Aggies In First Season Game Friday Night

Taylor, Moore, Barton, Salomon Make Up Fish Backfield in First of Five Game Season

Friday night, Sept. 26, the Freshman football team opens the season against the North Texas Aggies in Arlington, the first of a five game schedule that the Fish team will play this year.

Here's a tentative starting lineup of the team

Position	Name	Weight
L.E.	Paul Murray	175
L.T.	Dick Obregon	198
C.G.	Carl Moleberg	180
C.	Bob Bates	193
R.G.	Mickey Spencer	195
R.T.	Bill Butler	230
R.E.	Cedric Copeland	170
Q.B.	Blayton Taylor	190
L.H.	Doyle Moore	180
R.H.	Dorbant Barton	180
F.B.	Gene Salomon	173

Coach Charlie DeWare states that there may be several changes in the lineup before game time however as there are some positions not definitely settled yet.

In the crucial quarterback slot is Blayton Taylor, a 190 pound Freshman from Honda, Texas, and on his shoulders will rest the responsibility of running the team. Doyle Moore from Austin and Dorbant Barton who hails from Fort Stockton are the speedsters, and Gene Salomon of Del Rio will be called upon to furnish the power.

The line positions will be filled by a very capable looking crew. At the ends are two men from Waco, Cedric Copeland and Paul Murray. Dick Obregon from Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio is the left tackle, and Bill Butler of Pasadena pairs with him at the other tackle post. Carl Moleberg, a Fredricksburg product plays left guard, and on the other side of the line at right guard is another Pasadena man, Mickey Spencer. The pivot man is Bob Bates who is from Riverside High School of Fort Worth.

The Freshman team began practice on the 15th of Sept. with 11 ends, 10 tackles, 13 guards, 9 centers, and 32 backs. This group has been divided into two groups of about 35 men each with one squad under Coach DeWare and Line Coach Wayne Cure and the other squad under the direction of Assistant Coach Tom Pickett and Jelly Steyman. The coaches will select the Fish squad from these two groups by the 1st of October.

An interesting sidelight on the game Friday is that the North Texas coach, Klepto Holmes is an ex-Aggie and was an all conference guard on the Aggie team of 1927. Football fans will remember the strong NTAC team that came to Kyle Field in 1943 loaded with service talent and gunning for the Aggies. The "Kiddie Korps" of that year held the North Texas Aggies to a 0-0 tie in a rugged battle that saw-sawed up and down the field the entire period.

Bufs Square Off Against Mobile In Dixie Series

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 25 (AP) Houston, champion of the Texas League, and Mobile, Southern Association titlist, square off here tomorrow in the opening game of the Dixie series.

The Bufs won the Texas League crown last night by blanking Dallas, 1-0, behind the four-hit pitching of Clarence Beers.

The first two games of the seven-tilt Dixie series will be played here with the next three at Mobile, starting Monday. If the final two games are needed they will be played here.

Big Al Papai (23-11) is expected to start on the mound for Houston tomorrow, opposing John Hall (18-8). Hall has nine shutouts to his credit.

Beers, who started in organized baseball as a catcher, won his 28th victory this year against eight defeats in stopping the Rebels.

Tommy Glaviano singled Hal Epps home in the fourth inning for the only run of the game—the sixth of the final playoff series. Epps had doubled into the crowd in centerfield.

Black and Blue No More . . .

Marty Broussard Patches Up, Puts Together Aggie Athletes

The most important man in practice for a football team for a game is the coach, but after a trip through DeWare Field House one is prone to disagree with this old adage. Marty Broussard, recently acquired Aggie trainer, is the reason for this contradiction. From 7:30 in the morning until late at 8:30 at night Marty may be found in the training room in DeWare Field House going about his chores of taping football players' limbs, applying medicine to cuts and bruises, rubbing out the kinks and the sore spots, and any other kind of doctoring that may be needed.

Broussard came to Aggieland for the first time on September 1 of this year and he immediately pitched in and started to work taking care of football players and he hasn't had a dull moment since. Broussard was head trainer at the University of Florida during the 1946 season and before that he was at his alma mater, Louisiana State. Broussard graduated from L. S. U. in 1942 with a B. S. in Physical Education and immediately took over the head trainers job for the Tigers.

Weather Favors T. U. Over Oregon

PORTLAND, ORE., Sept. 25 (AP)—The forecast came out yesterday for dry weather at the Texas-Oregon football game here Saturday, and the suspicion grew that the Pacific Coast is about to be embarrassed again.

Odds-makers were spotting Texas as 14 to 40 points, despite Oregon's avowed fervor and the fact that this is the year Oregon had marked for revenge from a 71-7 walloping inflicted in 1941.

Texas, with a host of fast backs and 31 lettermen including ace passer Bobby Layne, drubbed Texas Tech with ease last week, 38-0. Meanwhile Oregon showed a pass defense weakness and had to come from behind in the last quarter to defeat little Montana State, 27-14.

A dry field was expected to add to Oregon's problem, and the forecast had Oregonians studying weather charts on the possibility of rain. The record showed only 1 chance in 5 on any Sept. 27.

The continued fair weather gave some visions of another 1941 losing, but Coach Jim Aiken of Oregon snorted, "They'll have to cut off our legs to beat us like that."

Aggie Ex Wins Navy Swim

Victory came this week to Gilbert C. McKenzie and two teammates who represented the U. S. Pacific Fleet in the 300 meter medley relay at the all-Navy swimming and diving meet at Jacksonville, Fla. Previously, McKenzie and his teammates had won the same event at the Eleventh Naval District swim finals in San Diego and at the Pacific fleet meet at Honolulu.

McKenzie attended A. & M. before entering the navy and was a member of the Aggie tank team. He hails from Houston.

VETERANS...NON-VETS MULTIPLY YOUR INCOME!!!

Here's the opportunity you've been looking for! You can now earn $30 a week in your spare time by selling campus-styled sportswear.

One of New York's largest sportswear manufacturers is expanding his national market to include your college campus. He has several profitable openings for alert, personable undergrads to represent him as sales agents in your school.

Many college representatives have already more than doubled their incomes by working part-time. Campus sales throughout the country reveal an unprecedented demand for these collegiate clothes. And this demand will be kept at a high peak by constant, sales-creating advertising in your college publications.
