

Utility, Beekeeper Conferences Slated Early in November

Arrangements for the Public Utility Short Course for electrical metermen to be held on the campus November 3-8 have been completed, according to Lucian M. Morgan, assistant director of the placement office.

Under the sponsorship of the electrical engineering department, the short course will cost $5 per person. Registration will be held on the Electrical Engineering Building from 8 to 11 a. m. November 3.

A banquet has been scheduled for 7 p. m. November 6 in Sbis Hall, Morgan stated, with tickets selling for $1.50 at registration. Approximately 100 persons are expected to attend the 5-day short course.

The Texas Beekeepers Association annual meeting will be held on the campus November 3-4, Morgan also announced.

Registration will be held in the YMCA lobby from 8 to 10 a. m. November 3, with a banquet slated for 7:15 p. m. that evening. Banquet tickets will be $4 sale for $1.50 at registration.

The Beekeepers meeting will be sponsored by the entomology department, and all sessions will be

Saddle & Sirlain To Sponsor Rodeo October 24, 25

The Saddle and Sirlain Club of A. & M. College will present its annual Rodeo at the Bryan Arena on October 24, 25, at 7:30.

The club, consisting of the second semester sophomores, juniors, and seniors taking Animal Husbandry, presents the rodeo for the purpose of raising funds to finance the trips of the A. & M. Livestock Judging Team. All Aggies will be eligible to enter. Prizes, donated by merchants, will be awarded to the top men in each event.

A new innovation will be the entry of a cowgirl representative, from each Southwest Conference school and other smaller colleges, to compete in a "ladies barrel race".

Men's events will include: calf roping, saddle and bareback bronc riding, brahma bull riding, wild mule races and wild cow milking. A western dance will be held at Sbis Hall immediately after the Saturday night performance.

Tickets for the rodeo will be placed on sale in each dormitory by the end of this week. Details for entering the rodeo may be received at the Animal Husbandry office.
