STILLWATER, Okla., Oct. 13 (AP)—Southern Methodist's Mustangs counted three touchdowns in the first half, then desperately fought off a steadily improving Oklahoma A. & M. football team to win 21-14 Saturday before 18,000 persons.

One touchdown in the first and two in the second were all S. M. U. needed while the Aggies awoke too late to tally in each of the last two periods.

Reinking's defensive play was superb as he started off by breaking up three Aggie plays that lost the home 23 yards back to their 14. Bill Long kicked to the Aggie 31 yard line.

Jimmy McKissic, Ed Green and Walker in four plays moved the ball to the 15. Then in the most perfectly executed play of the game, McKissic lateraled to Howler, the flashy left half passing to Sid Halliday over the goal. Walker's kick was good, the first of three perfect tries.

The Mustangs' rushing line helped give them another score early in the second period when Joe Thomas tried to pass from his 42 but was forced to retreat to the 24 where he lost the ball. Jack Halliday smothered the pigskin and then in five plays, S. M. U. moved to the Aggies' three. Walker crashed over left tackle to score.

An intercepted pass by Cecil Sutphin on the Aggie 27 set up the visitors' last touchdown. With the second team playing, the Mustangs moved in four plays to the one-yard line and Bill Moxley cut through center to score.

Jim Spavital did the work to make the Aggies' first score when A. & M. took over on its 43. Spavital snaked to the S. M. U. 44, and then after Bob Meisner lost a yard, he ran all the way to the doublestripe. Jack Hartman's kick was good and the Aggies trailed 21-7.

Jim Cashion Out With Broken Leg

Jim Cashion, Aggie quarterback, suffered a fractured leg in the Texas A&M-LSU tilt Saturday night. He may be ready for the A&M-Texas game.

Lew Wallace, author of the popular novel, "Ben Hur," served as a Union major general in the Civil war.

Mural Football Will Start Today

Flag football goes into its fourth season of play when the referee's whistle sounds for the opening kick-off at 5 p. m. Monday, Oct. 13. The idea of flag football came from the Air Force Physical Training program at Randolph Field and was brought to Texas A. & M. by W. L. Penberthy.

After several seasons play, with from 40 to 85 teams participating each year, the game has become one of the most popular in the intramural program.

Five football fields are available and goal posts are under construction.

Results, Tuesday, Oct. 7. Basketball: 9

Trailing by 2 points at the half C Infantry battled to a 19 to 15 win over E. Field.

Dorm 16 took an early lead to beat Hart Hall 28 to 24. Pete Perkins of Hart was high point man in the game with 8 points.

Dorm 7 squeezed out a 34 to 32 win over Dorm 9. Hill ran up 8 points for the winners while Schuler of Dorm 9 walked away with high scoring honors for the day with 11 points.

D Field took an easy win from B Air Force 14 to 8. George Richardson was high point man for the winners with 8 points.

Tennis: C Composite beat C Cavalry 2 to 1 taking their winning matches 6-4, 8-1. G. T. Keene played an outstanding net game for the winners while his teammate D. H. Hodges played a strong offensive game.

Blackstone and Huddleston, Holvis and Rock of Senior Company staid up the winning teams taking their matches 10-8, 8-3, to beat B Composite 2 to 1.

Leggett Hall beat Puryear Hall 2 to 1, the winners taking two fast matches 9-7, 8-2.

Recreation Clubs To Organize at Annex

A meeting has been called Monday evening at 8:15 p. m. at the A&M annex gym for students living at the annex for the purpose of forming recreation clubs.

Such clubs as weight-lifting, volleyball, ping pong, badminton, handball and possibly others may be formed.

Nicky Pointieux will be in charge of the meeting and all those interested are invited to attend.

Recreation clubs on the main campus were organized last year and are being continued this semester.

Cadets Draw First Blood in Battle; LSU Comes From Behind Twice to Win

The highly-touted LSU Tiger eleven edged out the visiting Texas Aggies 19-18 in Baton Rouge Saturday night before an estimated 35,000 spectators.

Going into the game as undisputed favorites, the Bengals had to come from behind twice to defeat their hard-driving foe. The A&M passing attack was clicking despite three interceptions with 12 forwards completed in 23 attempts. LSU connected on seven in 18 tries.

Peevce Smith took the opening kick-off on the A&M 16 and carried the ball up to the 35. Jimmy Cashion and Rob Goode took over here and marched down to the Tiger 25. Holmig's passes to Cotton Howell and Barney Welch advanced the pigskin to the 11. A short toss from Holmig to Goode and the Cadets took a six point lead.

The kick went wide. This marks the final tilt with a non-SWC foe for A&M. Conference play begins next Saturday afternoon in Fort Worth against the TCU Horned Frogs. To date the Frogs have taken on four opponents including Arkansas, to whom they dropped a 6-0 decision.

After moving up to the mid-field stripe following the kick-off, LSU fullback Harrell (Rip) Collins fumbled and the Aggies recovered. A futile attempt to pick up a first down resulted in a kicking duel between Holmig and Collins that kept the ball in Tiger territory for the rest of the first stanza.

The second quarter found the visitors on the defensive with Stan Holmig punting out of some dangerous situations. In the middle of the second round, Jim Cason, 20 year old Tiger halfback from Victoria, Texas took Holmig's punt on his own 40 and, with the aid of plunges by third string fullback Zollie Toth, carried the ball to the A&M 10. Here, Toth carried the mail to tie the count in a sweep around right end.

In the closing minutes of the first half, Cason took Holmig's punt on the Bengal nine yard line, returning it to the 27. A pass from quarterback Y. A. Tittle to halfback Dan Sandifer set up the second LSU tally with 45 seconds left to play. The kick went wide, Tittle being pressed by the entire Aggie line, and the Tigers led 12-6 at halftime.

Opening the third period with a drive to the A&M 5 yard line, the Bengals were stopped short of a first down and Holmig punted out to the enemy 45. This ended the only threat by the hosts in that period.

The next Aggie score was set up when Barney Welch recovered a Holmig punt on the Tiger 12 after Bengal safety man Bobby Clegg had touched the ball. Rob Goode went across standing up on the first play.

Jim Cason intercepted Holmig's pass to stop an Aggie threat on the LSU 30 in the third quarter. Farm-er right end Norton Higgins dropped Tittle behind the line of scrimmage for a five yard loss. A penalty for backfield in motion and an incomplete pass left the Tiger on their own 20 with third down and 20 to go. Here Tittle connected with a long pass to Al Heroman good to the A&M 40. Toth carried the ball over the right guard for the final nine yards and the winning TD.

The kick was good giving the hosts a 19-13 lead.

Higgins took the kick on the Aggie 30 and advanced to the 35. Here Holmig took over and with passes to Howell, Red Burditt, and Charlie Wright moved up to the LSU 32. Holmig tried next a long toss that was intercepted by Tittle on the LSU five yard line. This stopped the Cadet threat and sewed up the game for Tigers.

Baylor Upsets Arkansas 17-9; Takes Early Conference Lead

The Baylor Bears outplayed and finally outscored Arkansas at Waco Saturday in one of the screwiest games of the year. This game had everything — touchdowns, touchbacks, field goals, and a helping wind.

Having pushed a weak-lined Arkansas team all over the field except for two minutes of the second quarter when the Forkers scored a quick touchdown and blocked a kick for a safety, the Bears were still behind 9-0 at the start of the final quarter. But on the first play of that period, Lyle Blackwood, Baylor substitute halfback, ran through left tackle 37 yards for a touchdown. Then with a strong wind at their back, the Bruins kicked-off deep to the Forkers and forced Arkansas to punt. Quarterback Sims ran the ball back to the 33.

Then with their line game failing on the 9, Henry Dickerson rushed in and made a side-angle field goal to give Baylor a 10-9 lead.

The Baylor student body, which hadn't seen a conference victory since 1945, then went wild. Underdogs in this tilt, Baylor was not supposed to have had a chance.

But more was yet to come. Arkansas got nervous and started throwing passes all over the field. They threw one too many in the flat zone and Frank McKinney, Baylor halfback, gathered it in and ran 40 yards in the clear for another score, making it 16-9. Another bit of foolwork was added when Dickerson kicked a long point after touchdown when Baylor had been penalized to the 18 after a roughing penalty on the first try.

This victory was especially sweet to Coach Bob Woodruff of Baylor because he beat a team coached by his one-time head coach John Barnhill. The Bears had been working on Arkansas plays ever since practice started, pointing for this game.

The unusual thing about this game was that the Bruins so completely out-statisticized Arkansas but were two touchdowns behind going into the last quarter. At the end of the game they were still in Arkansas' end of the field, knocking for another touchdown.
