Heart O' Texas Club Elects Cox

Lowell Cox, veteran student from Sidney, was elected president of the Heart O' Texas Club at their recent meeting.

Charlie Stone, from Brownwood, was named vice-president, J. W. Newton, secretary and James Williamson was chosen to be club reporter. Sam Langford was selected to serve as propaganda minister athletic chairman.

A Heart O' Texas Club football team was organized to participate in the intramural contests. Any Heart O' Texas man interested in playing should contact Fred Stewart in Room 223, Dorm 15.

The next club meeting will be held November 6 and will be highlighted by two movie shorts.

Wildlife Groups Now Consolidated

A consolidation of four college units into the Wildlife Management Department was announced by Charles N. Shephardson, dean of the school of agriculture.

The Fish and Game Department, the wildlife management specialist of the Extension Service, the Texas Cooperative Wildlife Unit, and the wildlife research division of the Texas Experiment Station were combined to form the new department.

W. B. Davis, formerly head of the fish and game department, has been named head of this division. The new unit has been functioning as such since October 10, it was stated.

The offices and laboratories of the Wildlife Management Department are in the rear section of the third floor in the Agricultural Engineering Building.

Art Howard Wins Q-Back Contest

Art Howard has been selected the winner in the Contest for Arm-Chair Quarterbacks for the games played last Saturday in the South-west Conference.

Out of approximately three hundred contestants, not one turned in a correct selection of all the winning teams and scores. After a careful comparison of the scores, Howard was given the nod and this is how he picked them—Texas A. & M. 20, TCU 27; Texas U. 40, Arkansas 0; Rice 20, SMU 20; Baylor 13, Texas Tech 0.

Two other Aggies who were close runners-up, were Jimmy Morris and L. R. Pankonien. Morris was eliminated by picking Texas Tech over Baylor, while Pankonien's most noticeable error was his choice of Rice over SMU.

The two free tickets to the Texas A. & M. vs. Baylor game will be awarded to Howard this Thursday evening at the Weekly Quarterback Club Meeting.

VAN KIRKPATRICK and his orchestra will play Saturday night at the Annex Student Center.

More '47 Longhorns Friday; 2,100 Given Out First Day

Twenty-one hundred 1947 Longhorns—the entire first shipment from the printers—were distributed to students yesterday.

A new supply is expected Thursday afternoon, and will be distributed Friday, according to Harry Saunders, editor of that edition.

Goodwin Hall was the scene of the distribution, and long lines were in evidence most of the day. Identification is required in order to claim copies.
