

Will History Repeat Itself on Same Gridiron Twenty Years Apart -- ?

By CAREY CORBETT

Will history repeat itself? Just 20 years ago this week, the football teams of Texas A. & M. and Southern Methodist met on Kyle Field. The Methodists, boasting an unbeaten record, were favored to march to the conference crown. The Aggies possessed an erratic aggregation which had only one claim to fame—it was led by Joel Hunt.

The Mustangs had just knocked off a talented Texas team in a "crucial" clash and were heavy favorites to do the same to the Aggies.

But the score when the sun went down that Saturday afternoon on Kyle Field was A. & M. 39, S. M. U. 13.

In the words of Jinx Tucker, Sports Editor of The Waco News Tribune who covered the game, Hunt "rose to heights such as has never come to a running back in the history of the Southwest." Tucker, not sparing the adjectives, went on to say "Never has there been a team which could approach this Aggie standard of play today. It was more than an inspired team. It was a team keyed to the highest pitch possible and led by a cool, calculating general."

Hunt gained over 300 yards that day by himself, and the favored Posies never had a chance. The Aggies scored twice in the first half and went on to win easily.

That was twenty years ago on Kyle Field, and time is supposed to change all things. But certain oddsies have been known to escape the influence of time and appear again. Will history repeat itself? Can two Aggie teams, both underdogs, beat a champion bound SMU team at the same field twenty years apart?

Cadet Fish -- B Team Tangles With Undefeated SMU Colts on Kyle Field

The weekend's grid activities get underway tomorrow at 3:00 p. m. when the Aggie Fish-Bees meet the potent SMU Colts on Kyle Field.

The Colts are undefeated for the season and have victories over the Texas Shortborns and the Rice Blue Bolts while the Aggies have

Consolidated High Vs. Buffalo Friday

A&M Consolidated High School's Tigers will meet the Buffalo Yellowjackets Friday at 7:30 p. m. on Tiger Field, in a district 27-B grid battle. The Tigers will enter the game in the favorites role although a close battle is expected.

Consolidated is undefeated so far this season in district play and should they get by Buffalo Friday night their biggest problem will be to beat Marquet, the other undefeated team in district 27-B.

The Consolidated-Marquet game will be played on November 21.

Aggie Tennis Team Plays NTAC Here

The Aggie Tennis team will play the North Texas tennis team here Saturday morning at 10 as a part of the week-end athletic contests. Both singles and double matches will be played, according to tennis coach W. M. Dowell.

The Aggie tennis team will consist of the following players: Bill Bennett, Rodney Sellers, Bennie Stanford, and Duffy Stanley. Coach Dowell has not as yet decided which players will be paired for the doubles team.

NTAC is sending only two men, Dick White and Robert Weaver, to play the Aggie squad. The matches will be held on the varsity clay courts across from the DeWare field house.

On November 14, the morning of the Rice game, the Aggie tennis team will meet the U. of Houston's squad on their courts.

Aggies Have Won Eight Straight In Pony Series; SMU Definite Favorite

By DON ENGELKING

Southern Methodist University's Mustangs will be seeking their first football victory over the Texas Aggies in eight years when the two teams tangle on Kyle Field Saturday. Since 1938 when the Mustangs downed the Aggies 10 to 7 in Dallas A. & M. has been victorious in every gridiron battle with SMU. Last year the Aggie victory margin was 14-0.

Saturday appears to be the best chance the Mustangs have had in the past eight years to break the Aggie winning streak. Well on their way to their first undefeated season since 1935 and rated third in the nation in the AP football poll, Maty Bell's charges will enter the gridiron as definite favorites.

Doak Walker, the nucleus of the Mustang football machine and a shoo-in for all-conference honors, will be the big name for SMU in Saturday's tussle. Walker, who is also a leading candidate for all-America laurels, is commonly referred to as a quadruple threat; he runs, kicks, passes, receives passes, and is a great defensive player. (Incidentally, Doak played Star Hollmig, great punter and passer, and Ed Dusek leading Aggie ground-gainer and defensive powerhouse. Buryl Baty, Aggie passer deluxe who alternates with Hollmig at the quarterback slot, will be depended upon for a lot of action Saturday.

The worst defeat ever handed the Mustangs by an Aggie team was in 1918 when the Methodists were swamped 62-0. The best SMU has done against the Aggies was in 1934 when the Mustangs won 28 to 0.

Dallas Scribes Doing All They Can To Help S.M.U. Cause Here Saturday

Well it looks like the Dallas Sports Scribes are, through a slightly devious route, doing everything they can to help Southern Methodist continue its unbeaten march toward the Southwest Conference championship. It has long been an established fact that one of the best ways a scribe can help his home town team along toward victory is to come out on the eve of the game with one of two things; (a) a blast at the home-townners calling them everything in the books or (b) a long-winded funeral oration on how "tough" the opposing team is.

The first method is designed, of course, to make the home team (in the case of the Dallas scribes, this means SMU) roaring mad so they will go out the next day and pulverize the opposition. The second method (which is the one George White of the Dallas News is currently using) is figured to throw a big scare into the home boys in order to prevent overconfidence.

We have long been an exponent of "roasting" the Aggies occasionally in the hope somebody will get mad and take it out on the opposition. However, the one failing in this method is that, sometimes, the Aggies decide to take it out on us. (Note to Prof: This is the real reason why we are sometimes "forced" to cut a 6 o'clock class.)

But, that hunch still keeps cropping up: Peruna may be in for a rough ride Saturday.
