Birdwell Attends Store Convention
 Carl Birdwell, manager of the College Exchange Store, will leave tomorrow for Galveston to attend the annual southern regional meeting of the National Association of College Stores.

The convention will include a sales clinic and discussion of problems of this type of business, it was reported. Manufacturers' agents and their displays will also be in Galveston for the meeting.

Birdwell, who is regional chairman of the association, will be accompanied by his assistant Robert B. Barham. The southern region includes most of the southern and southwestern states.

Gammon to Speak At 479th Composite
 Military problems of the U. S. will be discussed by Dr. S. R. Gammon, head of the history department, at the next meeting of the 479th Composite Group, Col. R. A. Eads, commanding officer, has announced. The 479th Composite Group consists of all reserve army officers not otherwise assigned in Brazos and Burleson Counties. The meeting will take place in the Lecture Hall, Chemistry Building, at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, December 11.

Those who have not yet received their American Defense Medals and Victory Medals of World War II may do so if they present their original discharges or statements of service, Eads said.

What a Record! . . .
 Steve Sobey, Penn State's great guard, provided a glowing proof that servicemen, after shaking off their war legs, could come back. He played in 1946 but prior to that Sobey had served 12 months—18 of them in the Pacific—as a member of Air Force ground crews.

60-Minute Man
 A 60-minute man for unbeaten and untied Penn State, one of Sobey's notable efforts came in the 20-7 win over Navy. With State ahead by only 3-7 in the second quarter he tossed a Middle ball carrier for a loss on the Penn 33-yard line and a minute later he recovered a Navy fumble.

Chuck Bednarik, 220-pound center, was the key man in Pennsylvania's line. The Bethlehem, Pa., junior missed the Navy game, which Penn won by 21-0, but after the contest his teammates showed how they felt toward him by handing him the winning football covered with autographs.

A 60-minute player in the 7-7 tie with Army, Bednarik proved an alert tackler. In the first six games he played he intercepted four passes.

Like most of the others on the 1947 All-American Bednarik saw considerable war service. He was in the Army Air Corps as an aerial gunner on a B24 and took part in 30 missions over Germany.

Four Aggies Mentioned
 Four Texas Aggies are on the AP All-American honorable mention list. They are: Tackle Jim Winkler, Guard Odell Stautzenberger, and Backs Ed Dusek and Stan Hollmig.

Abraham Lincoln had as much schooling as the average pioneer boy of that time.

Erstwhile Secrets Released to Aeros

One hundred and twenty-six Wartime Reports have been donated to the Aeronautical Engineering Department by Southern Flight Magazine, according to E.E. Brush, head of the aeronautical engineering department.

These reports are from the National Advisory Committee and will provide an excellent supplement to the Aeronautical Engineering Library, Brush said. Much of the information contained in the reports was secret during the war and has just recently been released by the armed services.
