

Loveless to Speak To B&A Societies

Sid Loveless, manager of the College Station American General Life Insurance Agency, will be guest speaker at a joint meeting of the Business and Accounting Societies Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Agricultural Engineering Lecture Room.

Loveless, who is also a member of the business and accounting faculty, will speak on "National Service Life Insurance." Deadline for extending lapsed National Service Life Insurance policies has been extended to July 31, 1948.

The Business Society's annual barbecue, "The Business Bust," will be discussed, and an election will be held to fill the positions vacated by graduating seniors.

More than 400,000 people visit Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico annually.

Special Meeting Of VSA Tonight

A special meeting of the Veteran Student Association will be held tonight at 7:30 in the Chemistry Lecture Room, President John Hancock announced yesterday.

A representative of the Internal Revenue Department in Bryan will present information regarding payment of income tax reports, it was stated, Veterans Advisor Taylor Wilkins will also give information on registration for next semester, Hancock said.

Debate Club Will Discuss Education

Dr. Thomas Mayo, head of the English department, will discuss the A&M educational system at a meeting of the Debate and Discussion Club tonight at 7:30 in the YMCA Assembly Room, J. T. Miller, president, announced Sunday.

After Dr. Mayo's introductory talk, the floor will be opened for audience discussion and questions will be directed towards the chairman, who will act as moderator for the discussion.

English Majors To Hear Carmichael

All English majors are asked to be present at 7:30 Tuesday evening January 13 in the YMCA auditorium to hear J. W. Carmichael of the English department lead a discussion on the relations between literature and religion.

This will be the third of a series of discussions among English majors and teachers. C. O. Spriggs led a discussion on literature and economics while Dr. T. F. Mayo was responsible for the one devoted to literature and science.
