...spect I craved, I thought that I had won my case.

"The comment came back, however, that the administration expects its employees and students to comply with the requirements of the Board and the president without exceptions in principle or fact.

"I was then told that they had other matters to attend to and I was told to go.

"Reporters were waiting on the outside. They were probably disappointed that I did not stop and visit with them a while.

"But a class of 40 or more students was waiting for me, and I hurried back to my classroom. At any rate more than likely I would not have said anything differently to them from that which I said to one of the reporters of The Battalion that afternoon.

"My statement to this student reporter was that the appearance before the Board was not unpleasant, and I could not see from anything that they did and said on that occasion that they intended to dismiss me. I felt that this was a preliminary hearing, which it might well have been, and that they would look more deeply into the subject when they had more time.

"At about 9 o'clock that night I was called on the phone by one of the Dallas News reporters. He informed me that I had been dismissed from my position and wanted to know what I had to say. I told him that I doubted the accuracy of his information. He, thereupon, read me the action of the Board.

"I then called Dean Bolton and Dean Brooks to see what they knew about it. They informed that there was no doubt about the accuracy of the information. The next morning the report was confirmed in the newspapers.

"I told the reporters that the statement in the wording of the action of the Board to the effect that I admitted my inability to substantiate my charges was an outright lie. This will be treated in my next release."

Dr. Clark's next statement will concern his "ability to substantiate the charges."

VA County Service Officers to Meet

A service officers' school for county and veteran organization post service officers under the Veterans Affairs Commission has been announced by Educational Director Harry E. Rafter.

The conference will be held February 7-8 in the Columbus County Court Room.

Officers and other persons interested of Brazos County and 29 surrounding counties are invited to attend, Rafter said.

Subjects to be discussed include insurance, education, veterans' benefits, hospitalization, and pensions.

CANNED GOODS SALE

SOARING VEGETABLE CROPS WILL BE LATE THIS YEAR BECAUSE OF THE FREEZE. YOU CAN, THEREFORE, EXPECT CANNED GOODS TO BE THE MOST ECONOMICAL FOOD BUYS FOR SOME MONTHS TO COME. THIS SUGGESTS CASE-LOT BUYING. ON ALL CANNED MEATS, FRUITS, VEGETABLES AND JUICES WE ALLOW 5% OFF IN CASE LOTS.

WHAT BRANDS TO BUY: Perhaps the biggest opportunity for reducing grocery costs without any material sacrifice in quality lies in substituting good quality unknown brands for known brands especially as to fruits, peas, corn and beans. We carry both lines, and we believe we know the quality of both. We have tagged most of the items in popular demand as to GRADE. Find the GRADE of the brand you know and try our lower-priced SAME GRADE. If you are not entirely satisfied with its quality, we will cheerfully refund your money upon return of the empty can.
