

Hollmig's Relief Hurling Saves Beesley's Win at Rice

Big Stan Pulls Farmers Out Of Danger in Wild Ball Game

By ANDY MATULA

For those ardent baseball fans who didn't see the state edition of either the Houston Post or Chronicle, the Aggies beat the Rice Owls Saturday night 8 to 7 at Buff Stadium. That in a nutshell is the game. But if you want an accurate account of all the goings-on, the gory details, the play-by-plays, and all the other data that comprise a baseball game...

Anyway, briefly, here's what happened. John Finch started on the mound for the Owls and Earl Beesley was A&M's leading pitcher. Beesley had plenty on the ball. Finch didn't, so the Aggies started promptly to work on him.

Off of two hits and an error, the Farmers led one to nothing. The Owls went down in order until the fourth when they picked up a scratch hit.

By the fifth frame the Aggies decided to add to their score. With a number of assists from the Rice infield and outfield, five A&M tallies crossed the plate from four hits. In the sixth the lead was increased by two runs.

Stan Hollmig slapped a double against the left field fence but didn't notice Red Burditt holding up at second. Big Stan did the next best thing in such a situation... he slid into third.

Umpire Heagy Garcia, who seem to enjoy the game no end, didn't notice the mistake until some fan wisped up the Rice first baseman. Hollmig then smilingly walked off the base when he was called out.

Beesley pitched until the eighth inning, allowing only two hits the whole time and fanning seven Owls. Alvis Nixon came in then to continue the game. Nixon fanned two Rice players, gave up three hits and three bases on balls to allow five runs to come home.

Costly errors on the Aggies' part aided the Owls' this time. Bruce Morris then came in but hit the first batter and threw two wild itches to enable two more runs to score.

Marty Karow then called on Stan Hollmig to come in from left field to finish the game. Hollmig retired the side, after walking one man. At the beginning of the eighth frame, the Aggies had led eight to zero, the score at innings end was eight to seven.

Elton Tumlinson went to the mound for the Owls and the Aggies promptly filled the bases. Alert infield work kept the potential A&M runs from scoring.

In the last half of the ninth, three men faced Hollmig and all three went down, two by strikeouts. The game was finally over. Both Marty Karow and Jess Neely were down to their last man.

The Aggies looked good in the hitting department. Hollmig, Beesley, and Lindoff all cracked out doubles, hits that would have been home runs at Kyle Field. Bobby Fretz got two hits out of four times at bat.

Catcher Jim Calvert was the Aggies' leading batsman in Saturday night's game but he ran into a bit of hard luck. After hitting safely two out of three times, Calvert sprained his ankle rounding third base in the sixth inning.

Coach Marty Karow expects Calvert to be in shape in time for the SMU-TCU series next weekend but doubts if he'll play before then. Calvert's loss would be a blow to Aggie baseball chances this spring.

Colts, TU Win Weekend Tilts

Ponies Beat Bears 6-5

DALLAS, April 12 —(AP)—SMU virtually eliminated Baylor from the Southwest Conference baseball race Saturday by edging the Bears 6-5 on an 11-hit attack.

The Methodists won in the tenth inning when Ernie Hughes slugged a single with Jack Maroney on third. Hughes thus made up for three errors he had turned in at second base.

Irwin Kay held Baylor to seven hits. It was the third straight defeat for the Bears in the conference race.

Texas Blasts TCU 6-1

AUSTIN, Tex., April 12 —(AP)—Young Charley Gorin, rapidly becoming the ace of coach Bibb Falk's mound staff at the University of Texas, made an impressive Southwest Conference pitching debut today in holding TCU to three hits as the Longhorns triumphed, 6-1.

Gorin, willowy sophomore left-hander from Austin, permitted a single to Paul Koch and a double to Billy Beck in the fifth inning for the Frogs' lone run. He gave up the other base hit in the ninth, Brown Chiles singling.

US TO RESUME OIL INTERESTS IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, April 12 —(AP)—United States oil interests, barred from Mexico for 10 years since expropriation by the government, will resume operations in this country.

The government oil monopoly, premax, has announced that contracts had been signed with Cities Service Co., to prospect for oil and develop new fields.

Fish Beat Reagan 16-4 For 5th Win

By JAMES DeANDA

Coming from behind for the third time this season, the Aggie Fish baseballers bounced back from Thursday's loss to Sam Houston's Bearkats with a 16-4 win over a game but outclassed Reagan High School (Houston) nine.

For the first three innings of Friday's tilt, the Cadets gave a perfect demonstration of how not to play baseball and were on the short end of a 1-0 score. A pair of twin killings and a perfect peg to the plate by outfielder Bill Warriner kept the Reagan lead from growing.

In the first, third-sacker Sonny Bollman speared Ray Pollari's line drive and doubled Dean Jordan off first base. Another double play in the third, choked off a Reagan threat with only one run.

The Cadets won the game with an eight-run rally in the fourth inning. Catcher Bill Dennis got the first hit off south-paw Dick Beadle with two down and the bags crammed. Beadle fell apart and before relief hurler Roger Edwards could retire another man the Cadets scored eight times with six hits, four walks and four stolen bases.

The Farmers hit Edwards hard the rest of the afternoon and followed up the fourth inning attack with single runs in the fifth and sixth, a brace of scores in the seventh and four more in the eighth.

J. B. McCoy, who replaced Larry Ludtke on the hill for the Cadets in the fourth frame with two down and the bases loaded, received credit for his second win of the year.

McCoy set the visitors down with three singles in the five and one-third innings he worked, striking out eight batters while issuing only one free pass. An error in the outfield gave Reagan its last three markers in the eighth.

Aggie hitters had a merry time at the plate again Saturday. After

Farmers Sweep Track Events While Beating LSU 80 to 50

Texas A&M's powerful Track Team took an easy 80 to 50 victory over the LSU Tigers in Baton Rouge Saturday. The Aggies were short on men but long on strength as they captured all of the track first places and three of the six field events.

Coach Frank Anderson used only a 27-man team while subduing the Tigers. LSU is the defending champion of the Southwest Conference and is favored to win the title again this year.

George Kadera took first place in the shot put and discus for his 10 points which made him high scorer for the day.

However, Coach Anderson was most pleased over the showing of three runners—Webster Stone, Webb Jay, and Don Carden. All of these men lowered their previous best times.

Jay beat two LSU men in the 100-yard dash with a time of 9.8. Aggie Bill Napier came in on a quick finish spurge, but the judges failed to watch him and he was not given a place.

Webster Stone turned in a fast 880 to lead Jackson of LSU and Bob Atkins, Stone's time was 1:56.3, his best of the year.

Bill Carden starred in the 120-yard high hurdles, turning in a time of 14.8, also his best effort of the season.

The Mile Relay Team romped to an easy win over the Tigers without the services of Ervin Bilderback, who was out with a hurt leg. Don Carden took Bilderback's place with C. S. Ludwick, Ray Holbrook and Art Harnden.

Earlier Holbrook and Harnden won the 440 in slow time to save their strength for the mile relay effort. They led the field easily and won in a dead heat.

Carroll Hahn won the one-mile race, followed closely by teammate J. M. McGlothlin.

A&M swept the 2-mile distance race with three places, Aggies J. D. Hampton, R. R. Raven, and Jerry Bonnen finished in that order to pick up nine points for A&M.

George Kadera failed to make the 170 yards in the discus which he had been making in practice, but he came in ahead of Robert Craves of LSU with a 153' throw. However, the wind was with the throwers and kept their distances short.

Tennis Team Takes Mustangs And Frogs in Weekend Tilts

By BILL EVANS

The A&M Tennis team bounced back this weekend and entered the win column by virtue of a 4 to 2 victory over the SMU Ponies and a 4 to 3 technical defeat of the TCU Frogs. The Aggies had little trouble in Dallas Friday and took the match with wins in three singles and one doubles event.

Things were different Saturday in Fort Worth, as the A&M Netters won the match on a technical point after having taken one singles and two doubles events.

The Mustangs had little to say Friday after their defeat at the hands of the Aggies. The boys from SMU looked good at first when they took the No. 1 matches in singles and doubles, but they couldn't go any further and the Aggies cleaned up the rest of the events.

In singles, Bill Bennett lost to George Martin, 4-6, 6-3; Benny Stanford rolled over Don Burkett, 6-0, 6-2; Rodney Sellers beat Raymond Rude, 6-1, 6-8; and Duffy Stanley downed Jimmy Owen, 7-5, 7-5.

Bennett and Stanford lost their doubles match to Martin and Burkett with a score of 4-6, 6-4, 13-11, in a very close one. The other Aggie pair, Sellers and Stanley, won their tilt by taking Rude and Owen to the tune of 6-2, 6-1.

The Aggies won in Fort Worth Saturday due to a technical rule which states that in the case of a tie in a six event tennis match the number one doubles event will count two points instead of one.

Things were very close all the way but the boys from Argyle-land had that little something (See TENNIS on Page 4)
