400 Attend ASCE Barbecue, Picnic

More than 400 Aggies, professors and visitors attended ASCE's spring barbecue and picnic Tuesday night. The barbecue was sponsored by the local student chapter of the ASCE. Guests present included John J. Lodbetter, executive secretary of Texas Society of Professional Engineers, and Dean of Engineering H. W. Barlow. After lunch was served, Lodbetter gave a short talk to the group on "Why Engineers Should Join the Professional Society."

- FOLLIES -

(Continued from Page 1) "Rattler." Music for the show will be furnished by Arnold Walkow and his band. The vaudeville team of Evans and Jones will replace The Little Aggie Singers, Glen Brooks, director of the "Aggie Land Follies," announced.

Brooks also stated that he had received word that only nine of the twelve show girls will be available for the "Follies." It seems as though several of the girls have been lost on their tour of southern cities. The chorus appeared last night in Brenham. Lenard Perkins, on the piano, will accompany several specialties in the revue. An added attraction of the show will be the presentation of sweethearts from the engineering, arts, and sciences, agricultural, and veterinary medicine departments. Tickets for the Follies will be on sale at the Student Activities Office Friday and Saturday for 50 cents. A free dance will be held at 9 p. m. in the Grove at which the winner of the "Miss A&M" contest will be announced. She will be chosen from among four finalists from the sweethearts who were presented earlier in the show. The Aggie Land Orchestra will furnish music for the dance. In case the weather does not permit holding the dance at the Grove, it will be held in Sbisah Hall. For those who like sports, the Aggie baseball team will meet the Rice Owls on Kyle Field at 3:30. A tea honoring visiting parents will be given by the Brazos A&M Mothers' Club at the YMCA from 3 to 5 p. m.

KIWANIANS RECEIVE LAND—JOE MOTHERAL, right, vice-president of the Kiwanis Club, receives the deed to a 1 1/2 acre tract of land from JOHN CECIL CULPEPPER, Beside young CULPEPPER are his parents, MR. AND MRS. J. C. CULPEPPER. College Station Kiwanians plan to use the land for a youth center.

Summey Book Up For Publication

"American Punctuation," a book by Dr. George W. Summey Jr., professor of English, has been accepted for publication by the Ronald Press Company of New York. The book, a revision of Dr. Summey's "Modern Punctuation," 1919, points out that the trend in American writing during the last 30 years is toward shorter and less complicated sentences and less punctuation.
