Versatile AH Profs To Rope Pigs May 8

By M. L. VIVRETT, JR.

In an effort to exploit the capabilities of animal husbandry department's "profs" in the field of practical livestock operations, the Little Southwestern Livestock Show on May 8 will include an invitational matched "prof" pig Thirteen members of the A. H. department have volunteered their services in this new attraction.

The men making up the pig roping team are "Wyoming Slim" Gray, "Cajen" Robertson, "Artificial" Berry, "Annex Chief" Schrum, "Fancy Select" Dahlberg, "Toot Em Up" Butler, "Chew Em Out" Dana. "Shorty" Hale, "Wild Bill" Warren, "Sleepy" Riggs, "Hi Pockets" Miller "Speedy" Snyder, and "Ox Rider" Schrode.

Some of the wildest East Texas "rooters" obtainable have been selected for the contest. To prevent injuries to the participants, several excellent pick up men will be on hand while these elite but rough cowboys perform. The champion roper in the contest will be awarded a prize donated by Holick's Boot Shop in College Station.
