Full Summer Schedule Planned . . .

Scott, Spicer, Jones to Appear At Grove During Summer Term

Henry Scott, Earle Spicer, and Grandpa Jones will appear at The Grove as part of the scheduled summer entertainment. C. G. "Spike" White, in a meeting yesterday with the Summer Activities Committee, said that all had signed contracts or expressed their willingness to present programs here.

These three entertainers will be part of the full schedule planned for The Grove. Two movies, three nights for skating, bingo, and a Saturday night dance have been scheduled. Tentative plans call for a juke box dance to be alternated on Saturday night with a local band, and possibly a road band appearing later in the summer, White said.

The following weekly schedule has been planned by White and the Summer Activities Committee:

Table with 2 columns: Day and Activity. Monday: Skating; Tuesday: Movie; Wednesday: Bingo or special entertainment; Thursday: Movie; Friday: Skating; Saturday: Dance; Sunday: Skating.

There will be no admission charge for students to any of the activities. The cost of the entertainment is taken care of by the student activity fee.

In explaining the use of the $1.70 activity fee that is charged, White explained that it was divided into four categories. The maximum amount was passed by the last session of the State Legislature in Senate Bill No. 228.

One dollar of the fee will cover the cost of the Battalion subscription. The Batt will be published three days a week through the summer—Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

The summer activities at The Grove are covered by 40 cents of the fee. There will be no additional cover charge, White emphasized. Intramural sports will include open and team tennis, open golf, volleyball, horse shoe pitching, and softball. This amount will also cover the cost of clerks, balls, bats, trophies, and officials.

Four cents of the activity fee will be devoted to the operation, maintenance, and for supplies for the swimming pool.

The committee working with White consists of Chairman H. V. Risen, Neal Galloway, James Edgar, W. W. Gardner, and Kenneth Bond.

Press Club Banquet Held In Sbis, Staffs Receive Awards

The annual Press Club banquet was highlighted in Sbis Hall last night by the presentation of keys to all publication staff members and other awards to outstanding staffmen.

Editors Charlie Murray and Jimmie Nelson of the Battalion, Tommy John and Bobby Williamson of the Longhorn, and Roger B. Letz of the Agriculturalist received watches from President Gilchrist for their work on their respective publications.

Outstanding Battalion staff member awards in the form of electric shavers went to Kenneth Bond, of the feature and editorial staffs, and Art Howard, Sports Editor.

Portable radios were presented to Paul Creten and Paul McBride, second semester editors of the Commentator and Engineer, for their guidance of those magazines.

Clayton Selph, editor of Bryan Field's "Little Batt," was given a pen and pencil set in recognition of his work on the freshman paper.

Dave Coslett was voted outstanding member of that publication and received a pen as his position award.

Reminders of the staff received keys in recognition of their work and 50 bronze keys for first year members, 30 silver keys for second year men, and 10 gold keys for third year men were given out.

The banquet honored the return of the Battalion's roving correspondent Ivan Yantis, and the main address was given by Frank

King of the Dallas Office of the Associated Press.

Mr. King was introduced by toastmaster J. T. Miller and gave a brief sketch of the requirements he felt were necessary for a journalistic career.

President Gilchrist introduced Yantis and welcomed him back from the circumnavigation of the globe.

Yantis spoke on the customs he encountered in his travels and illustrated his lecture with slides of the interesting points he visited.

Music for the affair was furnished by a five piece orchestra made up of Aggie Band members and two vocal numbers describing the plights of publication men in general were delivered by a Battalion Quartet dubbed the "Printers Ink Spots."

The dinner program was concluded by a faculty panel skit in which a "candidate" for the Battalion editorship was tried for the dual crimes of upstreaming and having a fan dancer campaign for him.

W. C. Bernard, Associated Press columnist who writes "Texas Day by Day," made the trip to A&M with King.
